TEMPORARY OFFICES, NO. 62 WALL STREET.

Henry A. Miles Esq., C. P. A. —————

August 24th, 1897.

DEAR SIR:

As you will doubtless be interested to know the details of the Organization Meeting of the National Society of Certified Public Accountants in the United States, copies of newspapers containing a short account of the proceedings have been mailed you. [Vide New York Press, Sun, Tribune, Times, Mail and Express, etc.; Brooklyn Eagle, Standard Union, etc.]

In accord with a resolution of the meeting, I hand you printer's proof of the Constitution and By-laws, and ask your attendance at a meeting to be held at the offices of Smith, Reckitt, Clarke & Co., 62 Wall Street, on Friday next, the 27th August, at 4.30 P. M., to consider and pass upon the said Constitution and By-laws, after which a meeting of Governors will be held to elect Committees. Should you be unable to attend, please sign and return proxy form, together with any suggestions, which I shall have much pleasure in placing before the meeting.

Very faithfully yours,

ARTHUR W. SMITH,

President.

The National Society of Certified Public Accountants in the United States.
