Ursinus Baseball Nine Takes Eastern Penna. Collegiate League Title

By Dillwyn Darlington '41

A pair of major upsets that eliminated Drexel and Muhlenberg from the Eastern Pennsylvania Collegiate Baseball League race automatically gave Ursinus its first conference title in recent years, although there are still four more games to be played on the schedule.

The Bears, by virtue of four losses and one defeat, are granted the title on the percentage basis, for, although Gettysburg has lost but a single game, the Ursinus rating of .800 tops the Bullets' .667, and Drexel's .667. Although the Dragons still have one more game, that being with the hard-hitting Bucknell Bisons, their percentage could not match that compiled by Jing Johnson's veteran nine. It is the league's custom not to play out postponed games, but to grant the titles on the basis of the games played at the close of the season.

May 15 Was Drexel's Day

At the beginning of this hectic week, the Bears were leading the conference race with a clean record of four victories and no defeats, but their upset at the hands of the Drexel club sent them down into second and brought the Dragons into the first rung of the ladder. The same day, May 15, Gettysburg's perfect record was marred by the lacing that Bucknell handed them, 14-11. This defeat automatically eliminated Gettysburg from the race because they had not played enough games, being washed out of three at the beginning of the season.

On Thursday, Juniata, languishing in the league cellar, turned upon the Muhlenberg powerhouse and completely upset all pre-game "dope" by nosing out the Allentown aggregation, 3-2, in a tenning battle. This defeat dropped the Mules into fourth place, and killed their title hopes.

Stonorov Gives Slide Lecture On Medieval Architecture

Oskar Stonorov, on his second appearance on the Ursinus College campus, spoke on architecture of the fifteenth to the eighteenth century inclusive. He, with the aid of slides, discussed many features of architecture. City planning was especially emphasized by Mr. Stonorov. For examples he used German cities, Washington, D. C., and Peking, China. He also touched upon Louis XIV, as in his previous lecture, and said of the king's effort to build up Paris, "he made a h... of a mess of it". Special attention was also paid to the palace at Versailles.

Debaters Hold Joint Banquet; Tau Kappa Alpha Names Four

The Webster Forensic Society and the Women's Debating Club concluded their activities for the year in a banquet held on Tuesday evening. Charles Barnes '40, president of the men's club, presided as toastmaster, introducing Dr. Harvey L. Carter, advisor of the men's debating club. Because of the men's May Pageant, held that evening, Dr. Carter delivered a very short address and the rest of the prepared speeches were omitted. In conclusion, the new members of Tau Kappa Alpha, honorary debating fraternity, were introduced. They are: Jane Hartman '41, Shirley Staples '41, Harry Showalter '41, and Denton Herber '42. Dr. Elizabeth B. White, advisor of the women's club, and Mrs. Carter were also present.

DUBUQUE ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF NEW GOVERNMENT CLUB

At the meeting of the new government club last Thursday, Joseph Dubuque '41, was elected chairman. Dr. J. Lynn Barnard and G. Sieber Pancoast were named as faculty advisors.

The constitution was drawn up and it must be approved by the faculty before going into effect next fall. "The purpose of the club will be to afford an opportunity for gaining experience in parliamentary procedure, discuss current trends in American politics, and enkindle interest in the annual intercollegiate state government conferences." All students are invited to join the club.

Men Students Give Version of May Day

By George Kratz '43

The men's May Pageant, "Who Stole the Hair from the Throne", was presented last Tuesday evening; it was something less than a success. The program featured John Wise '40, as May Queen, some good clowning by "Toy" Dawson '40, and an excess of poor dancing by the rest of the cast. John Walichuck '40, and Hubert MacGeorge '42, as king and queen, gave a stellar performance.

Herman Eilts '43, inexperienced and ludicrous as he was, proved to be the star of the dance groups, although "Dan" McGowen '43, "showed up" well underneath his scanty attire. Charles Hearey created a dapper appearance in galoshes.

The Queen's attendants — Max Zeski '41, Jim Armstrong '41, Buzz Bardsley '40, Dave Jacobs '41, Jack Garlock '42, and other "beauties"—were no doubt hampered by their "gorgeous" and scanty sartorial elegance and thus prevented from giving their best performance.

Altogether, it was a rather unpracticed spectacle which greeted the large audience of students. And as for the Queen of the May, though John cut no small figure, we'll still take Harshaw.

Showalter Announces Lantern To Be Published This Week

Harry Showalter '41, editor of The Lantern, announced that the next issue of the Lantern would be ready for distribution on this coming week-end. The artistic makeup has been revised, featuring a new cover and a new masthead, both designed by Winfield Smith '41.

Prose has been written by Franklyn Miller '42, Paul Morris '41, Evelyn Huber '40, Joseph Dubuque '41, and Dorothy Shisler '41; while Georgine Haughton '41, Gladys Heibel '42, Evelyn Huber '40, Virginia Shoffner '41, Valerie Green '40, and Robert Yoh '40, have contributed poetry.

"The Firefly" Stars Girl in Guise of a Boy

By Eva June Smith '42

One soft Spring evening in May without any special place to go, my feet naturally started down towards the gymnasium. There the Spring operetta, "The Firefly", was in practice. Rehearsal had started already and the lovers, Geraldine (Gracemary Greene '42), and Jack (Kenneth Snyder '40), were in the midst of a disagreement. Gerry accused Jack of smiling at a pretty Italian street singer, but he insisted that he was laughing. This immediately progressed to a musical controversy.

A Mr. Thurston (Roy Snyder '41) and Jack appear on the stage talking confidentially. Thurston asks Jack whether he minds if he pays

Hall presidents were installed at the meeting last Thursday afternoon in Shreiner Hall. Since there will be no one at 944 next year except freshmen, no president was elected. The following are the results of the hall elections: Firecroft, Gladys Levengood '42; Lynewood, Ruth Noble '41; 612, Dorothy Adams '41; Shreiner, Mary Ellen Hillegass '41; South, Nadine Sturges '41; Sprinkle, Virginia Shirtz '41; Maples, Miriam Maeder '41; Glenwood, Winifred Kapp '41; Clamer, Kay Atkinson '41.

Benjamin To Head Chemists; Discuss Silicates at Meeting

Edward Benjamin '41, was elected to preside over the Beardwood Chemical Society for the forthcoming year. This election was made at the last meeting of the society on May 14. Francis Lippi '41, will be vice-president, and also supporting President Benjamin will be Curtis Leuallen '41, in the office of secretary-treasurer.

Dr. William Stericker, research chemist, gave an illustrated lecture on "Silicates and Their Derivation". Dr. Stericker is employed with the Philadelphia Quartz Company.

PARENT-STUDENT LUNCHEON IS FEATURE OF CLASS DAY

The Class Day program of the graduating seniors, to be presented on Friday, May 31, will not follow the precedent of previous years. Heretofore the exercises have been given in Bomberger Hall, but this year the informal program will consist of a luncheon at 1:00 p. m., at which 35 seniors' parents will attend, followed by the Class Day program and the dedication exercises of the recently planted class tree. John Wise, toastmaster and chairman of the Class Day exercises, and Mark Alspach, president of the Senior Class, will preside at the exercises.

Dr. George W. Hartzell will give the address and Mark Alspach will read the history of the class. The class prophecy and the class song, written by Betty Usinger, are also to be presented at the exercises. John Rauhauser '41, will receive the symbol of office from the graduating Senior President, Mark Alspach.

The class tree, a flowering crab apple, was planted on the West campus last Wednesday morning.

Colorful May Hop Ends College Year

Ursinus students and visitors to the campus danced to the rhythm of Len Le Art's Ambassadors Saturday evening in the Thompson-Gay Gymnasium, when the final dance of the year, the May Hop, was held.

For this informal dance, the gymnasium was decorated in accordance with the occasion in that it portrayed the spirit of the month. The walls were lined with a frieze of tulips against a white background, while in the center of the floor stood a May-pole decorated with paper streamers, which extended out overhead to form a secondary ceiling. At the last dance of the evening, couples clung to these streamers and danced in a circle about the pole.

Eighty Couples Attend

The dance was held under the auspices of the Men's and Women's Student Government Organizations, who chose Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Hartzell and Dr. and Mrs. Reginald S. Sibbald as chaperons for the evening. In all eighty couples attended this, the final College social.

Jean Ehlers '41, headed the committee of five, composed of Betty Bickhart '40, Muriel Solomon '41, Jean Webb '42, Charles Bardsley '40, and Kenneth Snyder '40.

Commencement Speaker Heads Governor James' Job Mobilization Drive

Mr. Walter D. Fuller, principal speaker at the 70th annual Commencement, is Governor Arthur H. James' appointee to the chairmanship of the Pennsylvania Job Mobilization Campaign. The Rev. Mr. Roy L. Munich '15, Baccalaureate preacher of Commencement week-end, was the representative of Ursinus College to the Harvard Tercentenary Celebration in 1936.

Held in Front of Freeland

The exercises at which Mr. Fuller will deliver the Commencement address will be held on the campus in front of Freeland Hall, weather permitting; otherwise, in Bomberger Hall, at 11:00 a. m. on June 3.

The conferring of degrees and the awarding of prizes will take place following the address, which will be precluded by the opening remarks of the President.

Mr. Fuller, who resides in Penn Valley, Narbeth, Pa., has been president of the Curtis Publishing Company since 1934. Previous to his rise to the presidency, Mr. Fuller had served as office executive, comptroller, secretary, and vice-president of the company.

He is chairman of the Lower Merion Township Planning Commission, a member of the Montgomery County Park Board, and chairman of the Executive Committee of the Penn Valley Civic Association. He is regional vice-president of the National Association of Manufacturers.

Preceded by Famed Poet

The Rev. Mr. Minich, as pastor of the First Congregational Church of Malden, Mass., follows in a line of pastors of which Michael Wigglesworth, the poet-scientist-minister, was one of the first.

The church was organized in 1648 and Wigglesworth, author of "Day of Doom", became minister in 1656, serving till his death in 1705.

The Rev. Mr. Minich had served as pastor of Christ Congregational Church, Woodhaven, New York City, before assuming the pastorate at historic Malden. In 1925 he was moderator of the New York City Association of Congregational Churches. From 1929 until the present he has been Dean of Young People at the Northfield Summer Conference of Religious Education.

Plans for the rest of Commencement Week-end include a luncheon for the class of 1940 in the upper dining room of Freeland Hall, Fri-

Frosh Entertainers Gorge Juicy Steaks

The freshmen, who have waited so long for a steak dinner at Ursinus, finally obtained this rarity, when approximately twenty-five of them were handsomely treated by Mr. and Mr. Donald L. Helfferich at their Summer home, at Little French Falls.

At the party held before the Christmas vacation in the upper dining room for the freshmen and sophomore men, Mr. Helfferich, as host, arranged the men in groups to present entertainment. The winning group won the steak dinner which was held last Wednesday.

After dinner, Tad Kulpinski led a swimming crew into the icy waters of French Creek Falls. The laughs of the evening were the snake-charming by E. G. Parks and Paul Augustine's falling into the water—with clothes on.

Senility In Government

The state of the government in a period such as the one which we live should be the object of the direct concern of every intelligent citizen; certainly of every college student, since in a short time they will be participating in the function of that government either directly or indirectly. During a period in which there is war, a government is either neutral or belligerent. The United States is at present governed as a neutral nation, but the state of the two types of governments represented in the current conflict offer excellent criteria to apply in the evaluation of our own system.

England and France are referred to as the democracies. Both have the cabinet form of government with central authority resting with a parliament. However, at the present time, the democracy of both is questioned. It is claimed that the English prime minister exercises practically dictatorial powers, and at the same time that the French government approaches authoritarianism in its highly centralized form. On the other hand, Germany is a totalitarian state. It is ruled by the only legally existing political party, and if current conditions are any indication, quite successfully.

Why are the democracies of Europe in the position in which they find themselves today? Many different people provide many different answers, but it is obvious that the strength or virility of any particular government or form of government must be inherent. There are those who believe that the strength of a government increases proportionately with its age or its experience. This school, an agglomeration of optimists, probably believe that the traditional policy of "muddling through" will relieve the English situation.

Then there are those who believe that a new, vital, unencumbered political system is stronger than one which has permitted itself to become senile. This view point is well illustrated by the type of men who are chosen to head a government. The tendency of the democracies, U. S. included, is to choose older men, such as picayune Neville Chamberlain, while the appeal of the totalitarian states is to younger men or youth itself. For those to whom "seeing is believing", it would appear that a premium should be placed upon comparative youth.

OUR COURSE IN THE WAR

Eight months of preparation and practice of war have passed into history. During the past two weeks the war in Europe has burst forth in all its bloody fury. Tank against tank, plane against plane, man against man; back and forth across the fields of war-torn Belgium the battle rages. The Nazi war machine is at last on the march.

Since the Nazi conquest of Holland and Belgium, it is pertinent to discuss what should be the position and policy of America in this fateful hour. There are two comprehensive policies which seem advisable for the United States in this crisis.

Stay Out at All Costs

In the first place, we should stay out of the war at all costs. We have everything to lose and nothing of consequence to gain by an entry into that conflict. If the Allies with all their near-preparedness and their well-trained armies are powerless to forestall a Nazi victory, then the little help we might be able to offer from our present state of unpreparedness would not be of much consequence even if it should arrive in time. Therefore, it is now to our best interests to remain out of this maddening conflict.

America a Constructive Nation

Since the majority of the important nations, their energies having been spent in war's fury, will be prostrate at the conclusion of the war, America's rightful place will then be to assume leadership in the rebuilding of an unbalanced and war-torn world. America is a constructive rather than a destructive nation.

Despite presidential war mongering, it is highly inconceivable that the Nazis will ever become powerful enough to launch a blitzkrieg in America. The Norwegian campaign has shown how difficult it can be to land armies successfully in the face of well-fortified coastal points.

Best Defense Needed

All of which brings us to our second point. We must build the best national defense system of which we are capable as soon as possible. There is entirely too much agreement by entirely too many so-called authorities with respect to the fact that most of our present defenses are both out of date and completely inadequate. Even ten billion dollars would not be too much to pay for complete security in this hemisphere. It is our unavoidable duty to prepare to defend this hemisphere and this hemisphere alone.

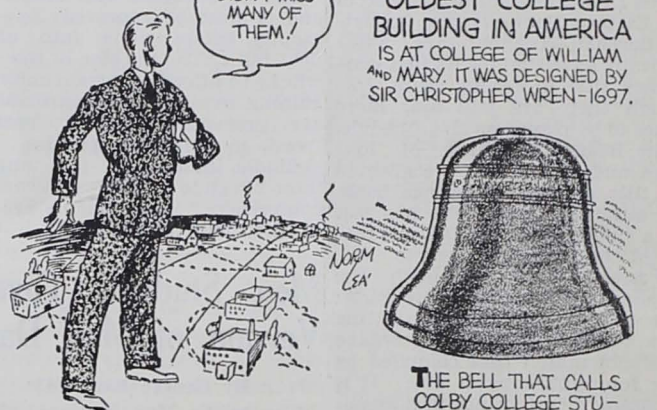

The world will certainly achieve an incomprehensible amount of economic and social disorganization as a result of the war. Let us stay out and provide a refuge for sanity and culture.

Three teams wound up in a tie in the softball league. They were Curtis, Brodbeck, and Derr. Curtis drew a bye and Derr took Brodbeck on Wednesday, 5-1. Ray Smith, the winning pitcher, allowed only one ball out of the infield. The play-off will be held at the earliest convenience.

Colonel "Hash" and Intra "Abe", his left-hand man, wish to take this opportunity to thank certain members of the intramural council for their efforts on behalf of the intramural program. They are Bill Frey, of Curtis, Hal Moyer, of Highland, and Eli Wismer, from the Day Study.

Bears Still Head Baseball League; Lose to Both Dragons and Wildcats

Drexel Dragons Threaten Whipping Bears, 5 - 1

In a game characterized by puny hitting on the part of the Bears, the Ursinus tossers were handed their first league reverse by Drexel on Wednesday by a score of 5-1. The Jingmen were able to garner only five scattered hits, while the Dragons had eight, although three of their runs were unearned.

The Bear batters went down one, two, three in the first three innings, and they scored their only run in the fourth when Moyer crossed the plate on Swift's single, after receiving a base on balls and going to second on an infield out. Three scattered singles was the best that could be racked up during the following innings. "Mac" McFarland had the best record at the plate, hitting twice in four times at bat, but his work was of no avail.

Drexel Scores Three in First

Drexel scored three of their runs in the first inning, two of which were unearned. The lead-off man tripled and was scored on a single by the next batter. The third man up hit a double-play ball to Fred Swift, but all were safe as Swift made a wide throw to second base. Another single and an infield out scored the two men on base, giving the Dragons three runs in the first frame. They garnered one in the third and another in the fifth to give them their total of five.

In spite of this loss, Ursinus' record of four wins and one loss make it a strong contender for the League title, whose winner will not be decided until all League games have been played.

Bears Completely Crushed With Villanova Blitzkrieg

In a wild and woolly game in which all the Jingmen saw some service, the Bears were handed a 21-5 setback by a far superior Villanova Wildcat nine. Coach Johnson started Howard MacMahon, who had shown up exceptionally well in his previous performance against the Wildcats; but they soon got to him and even continued to lace Walter Chalk, and "Tony" Williams. It wasn't until "Bobbie" Keehn took over the mound duties in the fifth inning that the game was settled down again. This was Keehn's first appearance since hurling two no-run, no-hit games while at Brown Prep.

Wise Stands Out

Howard Wise, playing his last game for Ursinus, stood out, afield and at bat. His triple and double both helped in the Bears' scoring. Others seeing action for the last time in an Ursinus uniform were Harry Atkinson, Hal Moyer, Bob Keehn, Fred Swift, Walt Chalk, "Babe" Harris, Jim Johnstone, "Toy" Dawson, Ed Thompson, and "Tony" Williams.

The Villanova loss gave the Bears a season record of six wins and four losses.

Jayvee Nine Closes Season With Loss to Villanova, 3-2

The Jayvees rang down the curtain on a night-marish campaign last Monday by dropping their return game with the Villanova Wildcats, 3-2, in the best game of the year.

With Harry Showalter pitching beautiful ball and allowing only six scattered hits, a little more punch in the clutch would have won the day. The Bears threatened in every inning but two, but were able to score only once. In the third Augustine's single, Peterson being hit by a bad pitch, and Hartline's prodigious blow to left for three bases gave the locals their only tallies.

Cats Score in First, Sixth

The Cats' scores came one in the first on a walk, a stolen base, and a hit, and two in the sixth on a hit, two errors, and a pair of infield outs. Thus the season closed with the none too good record of one win and four losses.

Racquetters Win Two; End Undefeated Season

As a fitting climax to an undefeated season, the Snell racquetters scored a 4-1 victory on the Beaver courts Wednesday.

"Bunny" Harshaw overcame her handicap in losing her first set, 2-6, to stage a winning comeback with scores of 6-4, 6-0, in the last two sets. "Squeaky" Von Kleeck, second singles player, fought hard to score a 7-5 win in her first set, but lost with scores of 4-6 and 3-6 in the last two. The third singles match played by Mary Robbins resulted in a 6-0, 6-0 victory for Ursinus.

Jane Roberts and "Mil" Bricker, first doubles team, wound up a good season to score a 6-2, 6-4 win over their opponents, while "Nat" Hogeland and "Allie" Dougherty concluded the match with a 6-3, 6-4 victory.

SWARTHMORE MATCH

Last Monday the women's tennis team journeyed to Swarthmore and added another laurel to their season's collection by nosing out the Quakerites, 3-2. In the number one position, "Bunny" Harshaw, in her accustomed form, dispatched "Maizie" Johnson, 6-3, 6-1. In the second spot, "Squeaky" Von Kleeck dropped two hotly contested sets to Marion Johnson, 6-4, 6-4.

Cindermen Top Albright 82-44 in Last Contest

Freshman stalwarts stood out as the cindermen of Coach Ken Hsaghen handed an 82-44 shellacking to Albright in a dual meet last Wednesday. By winning this meet the Bears finished their season with 2 defeats and 2 wins in dual competition to compile one of the best records in recent years for an Ursinus track squad.

Although the visitors ruled the sprints, the Bears were able to come out on top by coming through in the distances and field events. Freshman Joe Ingham took two first places by leading the field in the high and low hurdles. Veteran Ed Conine ran second in both of these events and added a third place in the broad jump to garner 7 points for the Bears' cause.

Joe Irvin pulled the iron-man stunt of the day when he captured second places in the century, 220, and 440. In the latter event, he ran a very close second to Boland of Albright, who set a new field record of 51.9 seconds for this event; and in the 220, again, he pushed Boland into running a highly commendable 21.9 race. Jim Raban, faced with an off-day, took third in the hundred-yard dash.

In the distances, freshmen and newcomers ruled the situation for the Bears. "Ruggles" Wadsworth, running the third mile of his career, captured that event by defeating Golis of Albright in a very exciting finish, while in the 880, freshmen Jowett and Mulligan staged a breath-taking battle with Jowett winning the event by a very close margin.

Harry Felton, junior day student, finished his first year of varsity competition by winning the two-mile with Adams in second place. In the field events, the Bears captured four firsts, with veterans scoring a majority of the points.

In the high jump, Huckel and Leullen took first and second places respectively, while Ehlers and Selfridge took the same prize spots in the discus events. "Tonto" Morrow threw the shot put 39 feet 4 inches to take first place from Zeski, who took the second. In the pole vault, the Bears received their only zero for the meet as Albright took all three places. Toulon and Jowett finished out the Bears scoring with a second and third respectively in the javelin.

Golf Team Scores First Win, Trouncing Penn Lassies, 4-1

The Ursinus College women's golf team won its first victory of the season by defeating the University of Pennsylvania lassies on the Llanerch course last Wednesday, 4-1.

Dottie Schleinkofer opened the meet by winning her match; Kay Atkinson, Ann Robinson, and Peg Stettenbenz followed her success with decisive victories. Martha Jane Evans dropped her match, but Pete Steven's charges had already clinched the meet.

Kay Atkinson was chosen as the captain for next year, and Dot Ducat was named manager. The final meet of the season will be against Chestnut Hill College for Women at the Jeffersonville Country Club, the home grounds of the Ursinus lassies, next week.
