Portfolio 1987

in one, out the other the next should be as difficult as the last
risk
question uncomfortable situations each room with many doors to choose from sometimes it is easier to exit through the door we entered to return to the room we already experienced but to pass through into new space
learn new things
have unexplained encounters . . .
learning never stops
risk is but one room
one door
one passage
of the many yet to come
we pass
we graduate
we continue
