THE HARVARD UNION

II

Mr. PRESIDENT, Teachers, Graduates, and Students of Harvard University,—Friends All.

This house is finished and you all are welcome to its halls. Of its origin and history you have known something, and now will you listen to a few facts about it, and to a few thoughts concerning it, which have come to me during the past summer?

For several years I have been thinking of and striven for something that I have laid out for you to see.

THE SOLDIERS' FIELD

OVER four hundred students and graduates of Harvard University assembled in Sever Hall on the evening of June 10, 1890, to hear about "The Soldiers' Field," which had been given to the University by Mr. Henry L. Higginson.

President Eliot spoke as follows:—
Gentlemen: At a meeting of the Corporation yesterday, the following letter was presented:

To the President
Harvard University
