P. Cowton March. 17. 1849

Right Rev. & Dear Sir

I wrote to you about the 20th Jan, saying that I had instructed my Bankers to forward to you £20 - of which £9. 0. 8 was intended for Mrs George & the remainder on S. George's acct. at Subitee. As it seems the arrival of Letter, is not quite to be depended upon I think it better to write a a few lines to repeat my previous notification.

As the facility of communication between England & America is increased I hope that our epistolary intercourse may be more frequent - To insure the delivery of our letters I think it will be better that we should neither of us prepay our letters.
It seems also that Newspapers can be transmitted free of postage & I therefore purpose sending you occasionally a newspaper from England & at the same time I should be glad each now and then to receive a Newspaper from Mennais & any little pamphlet which concerns your important Institution at Jubilee, as I may have it in my power to make it useful - That I may not miss the present post I must now conclude with assuring you that I am right Rev. & dear Sir yours with affection & respect

J. A. Holbe

I send you an Ecclesiastical Gazette by the present post.
