Coach John Loftin is a SWOSU coaching legend. Loftin enjoyed an amazing run of success as Head Women's Basketball Coach amassing 861 wins in a career that spanned 38 seasons, including 19 at Southwestern Oklahoma State University. His first team rolled to an unbeaten 34-0 season which included capturing the NAIA National Championship in 1982. NAIA titles followed in 1983, 1985, 1987 and 1990. All total, SWOSU made 14 appearances in the NAIA Tournament, including 10 Final Four Appearances, and one national runner-up in 1992 under Loftin's leadership.

You can be part of honoring the heritage of SWOSU Women's Basketball while also contributing to the program's bright future by investing in the new Coach John Loftin Endowment. The Loftin Endowment will provide financial support to SWOSU Women's Basketball.
