COME ONE, COME ALL, TO THE FRESHMAN BALL !

On the night of May 29, the ballroom of Medaille Hall of Fontbonne, gay with many-colored lights, will give the illusion of a rainbow with a pot of gold at its end, carrying out the theme of the Freshman Spring Dance, The RAINBOW PROMENADE.

Candle-lit tables will be set out on the adjoining terrace. Girls in glamorous formals and boys in their tuxedos will be happily sipping punch 'neath oak and elm, stars, and with luck, a moon.

Every girl's program will surely be filled for every dance, because no one can resist the lilting melodies of Herman Drake's eight-piece orchestra, playing its loveliest for this occasion. The dancing will begin at nine o'clock and continue until midnight. For many the prom will be a pleasant reunion, for alumnae and other students of former days have been invited.

The cost for such a marvelous time? Only three dollars a couple! The bids are now on sale in the den of Ryan Hall. Also, they can be procured at any time from the committee in charge of the sale of bids, which is Mary Ellen Zwisler, Mary Waldorf, Patricia Scott, and Sheila Handley.

The planning for the dance is being done by the officers of the freshman class, who are Sue Vallar, president; Nancy Raupp, vice-president; Sheila Handley, secretary, and Marybel Steele, treasurer.
