Your letter of June was duly received - We are now at our summer

Dear Sir,

Your letter of June was duly received. We are now at our Summer home, and it would not be convenient to send you the book you refer to. We return to Washington about the first of November and if you will then remind me of the promise I will send you the book.

I would be glad to have the copy of the article you referred to, and if you visit Washington would be pleased to have you visit my studio where I am now ~~working~~ making a statue of "Leanoyah" which Oklahoma will send to the National Capitol. Before I left I sent also to the Capitol a statue in bronze of War-Goverbor Kirkwood which Iowa had ordered for that place.

Very truly yours
