Charles Francis Adams
August 27th 1849.

Dear Mother

My dear Mother

I received your letter of the 25th and was glad to hear from you and to hear that you were all well I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you all the same I have not much news to write at present

I am still in the city and have not yet gone to the country
I have not yet seen any of the people I have written to
I have not yet seen any of the
people I have written to

I have not yet seen any of the
people I have written to
I have not yet seen any of the
people I have written to
I have not yet seen any of the
people I have written to
I have not yet seen any of the

I have not yet seen any of the
people I have written to
I have not yet seen any of the
people I have written to
I have not yet seen any of the
