Albany Novemb 26th 1839

My dear Sir,

I have only time to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 23^d and express my regret that I had not the pleasure to meet you here while on your way to Washington.

Your suggestions in regard to some appointments in Genesee County shall receive the most respectful consideration.

I am with sincere respect and esteem

Your friend and obedient servant,
William H. Seward

The Honorable Seth M. Gates
W. C. Washington
