Albany Jan 7, 1846.

Dear George,

I have only a moment to say that Taylor is determined to make a severe fight - against - Tallmadge
It is believed that all the other Members are for T.

The Whig Senators are "hanging fire" about remaining Bacon. They are great feeding among our friends.

Root, Morley and several others (even Sibly!) are for Bacon.
They will be compelled, however,
to make a new appointment.

Wesley

Hon Francis Granger,

Washington.
