Gen W E Strong,

My Dear Friend,

Your good letter was received with great pleasure and I assure you my dear friend that in all the congenial relations I have received none have been more gratifying to me than those from such em--phatics as yourself. The hallmarks memories of our association are to me most precious, and let me say that I shall appreciate the honor of being considered one of your most sincere friends.

In entering upon my duties I feel most keenly the respon-sibility resting upon me having been chosen in the manner

I was, and realizing the expec-tations of me. By the true and tried men of this my native State. Compliments to

Mrs King Yours Truly
John A. Logan
