Dear Sirs

4/9/53 I hope you will find a few rhymes I have come across about a month ago but I thought you were busy enough last month.

✓ About that "Poshda Yockel"
I have a little but not enough to begin with.

Do you know what

"Farsomling Kraut" is or have you never heard about it. I know a little about it my Grandmother had some when I was quite small it is a very fragrant small plant and the ladies used to take a little of it along to the "Farsomling" (church) and burn some in a while they would draw it through their hands and it would smell very good in the "Farsomling House". Now I wonder if that was done in all Denominations I have this from the Schwenkfelders.

About the "Gitz Fogel" I guess that is what we call "Par Homer Gase" (Wats goat) around ^{here} some people call it the yearly locust. In English it is called Cicada or locust we have a picture from it out of a Farmers magazine.
