by T. R. Tomkins

no one sees him there
but me the rain's blooded

pigeons once hidden
now glide out to view

the remains the girl
on her red bike cuts

the wet street like dull scissors she will not see him white gowned moths dance about the lights

from my warm window
i am watching him

but it's no matter
he was there waiting

yesterday no one
saw him then either
