Voter Registration

by Kevin Hopkins
Voter registration has become a national issue recently. Everyone from politicians to pollsters is dashing madly about with visions of "Wild in the Streets" in their minds trying to find out how the new youth vote will affect the system. To provide a more scientific Jeane Dixon view, Newsweek commissioned the Gallop Poll to investigate the prospects of this new influx of voters. It was found that education is a cornerstone in the outlook and potential activity of the new voters. One-fourth of the 25 million new voters have already registered and another 38 per cent more are absolutely sure they will register. However, if the new voters, age 17-23, are divided, "among those who have spent at least some time at college, the proportion likely to be registered jumps to 79 per cent, compared with only 59 per cent for those with less school." It is felt that only 42 per cent of the possible new voters will actually cast their ballots in the '72 elections as compared to the 62 per cent national turn out in 1968. The afore no startling change is expected. More interesting details can be found in this October 25th Newsweek article.

Locally, the better informed, more liberal and more politically critical college student described by Newsweek has met with stiff resistance in exercising the right to vote granted by the 26th Amendment. Four of the major arguments raised against students voting in their campus town are systematically discussed in a leaflet written by the Coalition for Voter Registration. Peace and Social Awareness (PSA) distributed this information along with two other papers discussing 3 bills on voter registration now before the Illinois State Legislature and the law of voter requirements written by the Champaign County League of Women Voters (LWV). If not in distribution in the SC, inquire about these informative papers at the Student Government Office.

But if you too lazy, basically what you need to know is that you must be a U.S. citizen, at least 18 years old, have lived in the state 6 months and in the precinct 30 days by election day. You can register anytime except during a period 28 days before to 2 days after an election. To register you must have proof of your age, such as a driver's license, and proof of permanent residence, such as a rent receipt or a hunting license. It should be noted that the term permanent is defined in past and present terms not future. So if you are planning to move at a later date - after elections - there are no grounds on which registration rights can be denied.

Voter registration at Parkland will be extremely intensive as most of Parkland's students are permanent residents of Champaign. PSA is the driving force behind the coming weeks of activity. November 1-5 the LWV will have an information booth set up. PSA has slated a number of key speakers to discuss the issues at hand. There are:

Thursday, Nov. 4, 1-2, Dennis Bing, County Clerk, Formal lounge. Monday, Nov. 8, 11-12, State Rep. Bradley, Jeff. Build. Aud. Tuesday, Nov. 9, 12-1, Larry Johnson, Cham. C. States Att. F. L. Wednesday, Nov. 10, 11-12, Charles Zipprodt, Mayor of Urbana, F. L. Thursday, Nov. 11, 1-2, Marilee Clore, Teach-In.

Dennis Bing has been a controversial figure recently. Rep. Bradley is the co-author of a pro-youth bill. The Teach-In will have free coffee and donuts. PSA has also chartered 2 buses to take students who have not registered free of charge to the Courthouse. Buses will run for 4 hours, for 4 days starting at 10 a.m. on Monday, Nov. 8.

The programs are for you; all you have to do is show up. It may be argued that your vote doesn't matter. Well, it has a few politicians worried. It comes down to: does the new right to vote mean that you have the right to be apathetic like 38 per cent of the voters in 1968 or does it mean that you will effectively wield that little power you do have. Wield or yield, as always, its up to you.

REGISTER TO VOTE!

Make Yourself Heard

By Tricia Wagoner

The Student Government is provided to serve you, the student. However it's up to you to know the representatives.

Each member has definite duties and he or she accepted the responsibilities of his or her office when they were sworn in.

Your job is to know who the members are and let them know how you feel. If you have any gripes, let them be known. Approval should also be expressed when it is deserved. Any suggestion or formal proposal you have should be turned over to student Government personally or through a member. If you value your opinion it should be heard!

Student Government meetings are open and any student is welcome to see how meetings are run, to evaluate what is seen and heard, and to suggest change whenever necessary.

Change for the sake of change is a waste of time, but if it's a change for the better, make it known. Lack of understanding comes from lack of asking. There will be a member of Student Government in the office from 8-5 each day. Make your interest known and find out more about it from a member. You may both learn something.

Each Senator has certain duties that you, as a student of Parkland, can put to use. Any questions about athletics and college sports can be directed to Gene Hart. Student services such as social functions and activities may be discussed with Susan Betzold. To advance your interests in any Parkland College Publications, Dave Friedmann should be contacted. Night students may take your questions and suggestions to Al Grey. Senators serving day students are Gene McPeek, Preston Ladson, and Terry Jones. The remaining officers are Jan Hannah--Secretary; Tom Krause--Treasurer; John Stuckey--Vice-President, and Bob Bales--President.

It's up to you to make Student Government a Student Organization and not an individual situation. Find out who the members are, what they stand for, what their duties and responsibilities are, and take advantage of the fact that they are there to serve YOU!

News Briefs

(CPS)--A 12 year old St. Paul, Minn. girl who has been swimming competitively since she was 7, has filed a complaint with the St. Paul Human Rights Commission claiming she is barred from junior high swimming competition because she is a girl. The Minnesota State High School League rules limit inter-scholastic sports to boys. According to league official, Kermit Anderson, "It could be discouraging for boys to be beaten by girls." WHEW!

U. S. College enrollment will double by the year 2000, the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education predicted last week. Clark Kerr, the commission chairman, said the current enrollment of 8.1 million will rise sharply in the 1970's, shrink a little in the 1980's, and then increase heavily again in the final decade of the 20th century.

The greatest growth during the 1970's, the commission said, will occur in two-year colleges. Their student population will jump 70 percent, while four-year schools will rise 58 percent.

Debaters Wanted; No Experience Needed

Mr. David Valley announced that the first meeting of this years debate team was held Wednesday, November 1, 1971, at 3:00 p.m. in the quiet lounge of the student center. Valley urged all who are interested in learning to apply the principle of argumentation to join. This years debate topic, "Resolved that more stringent controls should be imposed upon government agencies gathering information about United States Citizens," promises to provide some of the most exciting college debates in recent times.

Intercollege speech tournaments are usually held on Friday and Saturday. Debates compete in 5 rounds of debate, two rounds on Friday evening and 3 rounds on Saturday. Often times there is a banquet on Saturday afternoon, at which time the winners are announced and awards are presented.

Mr. Valley is anxious for Parkland College students to become involved in the rewarding experience of tournament competition. Therefore, plans are now being made for Parkland students to attend four out-of-district debate tournaments during the school year. If interests in the program is sufficient, Valley disclosed, more trips would be planned.

If at all interested in the debate program, you are urged to attend the organizational meeting on November 10. If you are unable to attend the meeting, call Mr. Valley at 384-2342 or come to his office in the Taylor Street Annex and make your interest known.

Letters to Editor

One Student's Opinion

Dear Editor;
 Champaign County Clerk Dennis Bing recently invited a local group, Coalition for Voter Registration, "to join with me in a drive to register legal permanent residents of Champaign County." If this statement is true, then Mr. Bing has taken a sharp 180 degree turn.
 It should be apparent, however, that Dennis Bing has done as much as possible to DISCOURAGE voter registration.
 Parkland College, with an enrollment of approximately 4,000 students, should have direct access to the mobile registration van. (About 60 per cent of Parkland students are from Champaign County.) Yet when I requested him to dispatch the mobile van to Parkland, he flatly refused.

 Once again it is the same old story for residents of the Black community. People who want to get the mobile van out there only get double talk and the run-around.
 Even rural areas, where the Republican party has a wide following, have been cheated by Mr. Bing. Because of his use of the mobile van, township clerks are no longer permitted to register residents of each township. If a person in a rural township misses the mobile van, he must now drive all the way to Urbana and register at the courthouse.

 It is a farce for Dennis Bing to say he wants to encourage registration. Dennis Bing, Jack Martin, Bill Springer, and the rest of the local Republican clubhouse have a vested interest in limiting voter registration - a great influx of new voters would tend to upset the Republican's apple cart. Apparently, to limit registration to people who would most likely vote Republican, Mr. Bing instituted the use of the mobile registration van. Not considering the high cost to taxpayers in Champaign County, the mobile van has proved to be a very effective method for registering only potential Republicans.

 signed,
 Greg Embry

Lost Book

Dear Editor:
 Someone "borrowed" a book from my office bookcase and has not yet returned it. Up From Poverty, by Frank Reissman, is a fairly new book published by Harper and Row, and is needed by both students and teachers in the teacher aide program.
 A New Career Program, such as Parkland's Teacher Aide Course, is based upon a special kind of philosophy and organizational principles outlined in this text. This book is a personal edition which I purchased when appointed to organize this program. I would appreciate seeing it back in its old place on my bookshelf at the Jefferson Building, or it can be left at the LRC librarian's desk.

Thank you,
 Mary Lou Brotherson

Seed For Thought

By Steve Merkel
 Crack!
 "That was close", I thought as I scurried down Bradley Avenue hoping to make it home before the heavy, nimbus clouds drew completely overhead. This looked to be a good, hard storm. The day had been hot and humid and since I had ignored Mr. Roberts warning on the Noon News I deserved to get a little wet.
 Not caring for the darkness of the clouds however, I did notice that Lt. Baden was out observing the storm's approach so I asked him if I might be able to hold up at Sub-Station Three until the worst was over.

 Once inside, the storm now blowing at full force, I asked Lt. Baden if I could take a look at their big Pirsch Pumper.
 One of the first things that caught my eye about this unit was a pattern of small holes chipped in the driver's door. I inquired as to what the hell they were and as I had suspected they were from a shotgun blast.

Question? - What possible motive would anyone have for firing at a firetruck?

My mind wandered back to high school days and to the Tatman kids for whom I used to babysit. No one had apparently ever found out why their father, Bob, was shot to death in the line of duty on November 25, 1967; a gray day for Nancy and those poor, four understanding children.

Pigs or Targets?
 Remember the old westerns where the two unshaven fellows in the black hats were numbing at the bar? One would say something like, "You can't do that, he's wearin' a badge." And the meaner looking of the two would answer, "That ain't no badge;

A Call From Out of The Swamps

In the past SWAMP has been one of the most active and forceful organizations in Parkland. This organization is in the process of reactivating after the loss of most of its members through graduation. And new volunteers are requested. By the time of this printing SWAMP will have had its first meeting; however, the desire for an increasing membership is ever present as more force can be applied to problems of the environment with larger numbers of the concerned.

Tentative plans of the recycling of Parklands waste paper have been tendered and the program will be getting under way in the coming weeks. Temporary committees have been set up as a groundwork until the organization gets moving. The scope of planned activities will increase with the increasing of student action.

Every person attending Parkland is asked to support SWAMP with whatever time they can, no matter how small. Without a general call to arms, let it suffice to say that too many people have counted on the other guy to clean up the world and now Earth needs all the helping hands available. SWAMP is small but it's trying. Are you?

The library will be closed on Saturdays when holiday weekends (3-day weekends) are observed.

Debate Team

ALL STUDENTS interested in participating on the college's FIRST DEBATE TEAM are encouraged and requested to register in the Student Activities Office NOW. Plans are being developed for three to six trips to area and mid-states tournaments.

If there is sufficient interest, the debate team will become a REALITY.

Cheerleaders Selected

After extensive practice, the big day came for the selection of the cheerleaders. The selection try-outs were held Thursday, October 21 in the Boys' Club. The Judges were a composition of six faculty members and six members of the student body. After much deliberation, the panel of judges picked these seven lucky girls. Congratulations go to Sinnie Goines, Barb Hannah, Connie Simpson, Char Ware, Cindy Widloski, Terry McGulley, and Shelly Archer; the new Parkland Cheerleaders.

Counselors' Corner

EDITORS NOTE: This is a first in a series of releases from the Parkland College Counseling offices to keep students informed of the requirements involved, and benefits available, transferring to other schools.

Northern Illinois University is continuing its program of offering University Scholar Awards for junior college students to two outstanding junior college graduates each year. This is made possible through the Grants-in-Aid Committee.

These awards will cover the expense of full tuition, books, fees, room and board, plus $250 per year for other expenses. The scholarships may be used for any recognized field of concentration at Northern. They are awarded for a two-year period, and the recipient must maintain a minimum grade point average of 3.3 on a 4.0 scale.

To qualify for one of these University Scholar Awards, a student should have completed at least 45 semester hours which are acceptable at NIU. His record must demonstrate outstanding ability and talent, and "he should be of high moral and personal character."

Northern will also be offering Academic Achievement Scholarships to several Junior College Graduates who will enter their school in the fall of '72.

Any questions about either scholarship should be addressed to:

Dr. William Hermann,
Chairman
Grants-in-Aid Committee
Northern Illinois University
DeKalb, Illinois 60115

Mr. Charles B. Wharton, Assistant Dean of Admissions at Bradley University in Peoria, has announced the establishment of the Special Merit Scholarship program for junior college transfer students.

"Any student transferring to Bradley University for the first time from a two-year (junior) college who has a minimum of 24 transferable semester hours of credit with a cumulative 'B' average is eligible for a Special Merit Scholarship of up to $500 per year regardless of financial need. When need is a criterion for other potential financial aid, this award will become part of the total financial aid package."

If there are any questions, you may contact Mr. Tom Cromwell, Director of Financial Aid at Bradley.

Mr. Art Adams, the Director of Admissions at Illinois State University has informed Parkland that the admissions requirements at ISU will not be restrictive for the 1972 Spring Semester as they have been for some time. They can accept regularly admissible transfer students in all major areas except Elementary, Special, or Junior High Education.

Mr. Adams indicated that Illinois State prefers to recruit students who have already completed their associate degrees. However, under certain circumstances, a qualified student may be considered for admittance.

If a qualified student is interested in transferring to ISU, and does not yet have his associate degree, he should contact his counselor at 384-2255.

Hart Beat

By Gene Hart

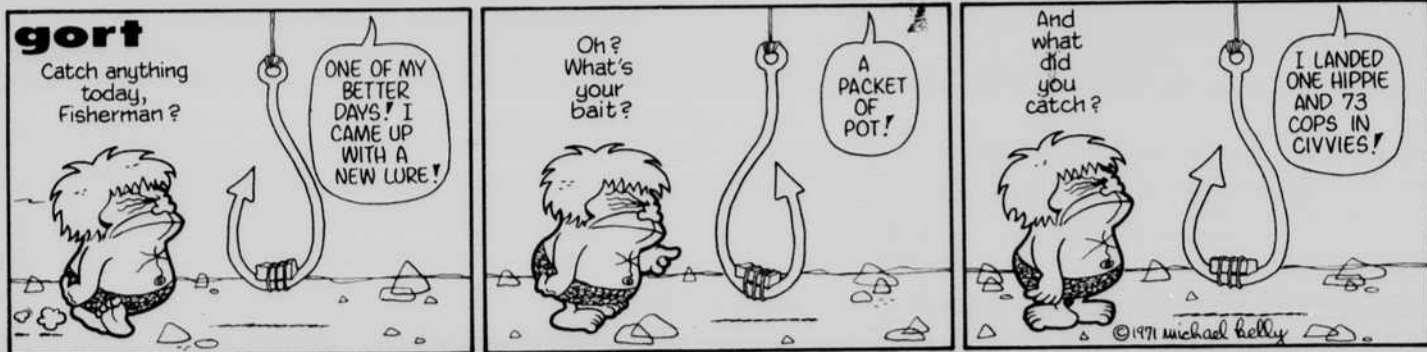

Editors Note: This is the first in a series of articles by Gene Hart, Student Government Senator of Athletics, to keep the student body informed of athletic happenings in and around Parkland College.

Starting November 2, 1971 Parkland College will have Spalding Swimming Pool open to ALL students from 11:15 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. This will be the case on each and every Tuesday thereafter. Spalding Pool is located at 910 North Harris, approximately 12 blocks from the Student Center. All students are welcome free of charge at the time indicated when presenting a Parkland I. D. Card. Other times will be arranged if sufficient interest is shown. Students must provide their own suits, towels, and hats.

Those sex education classes sure make things easier to understand.
