

14th International Conference for
Philosophy and PsychiatryMain program

Last update: 2011-09-

17

Thursday, September 112.00-13.00 Registration13.00-13.15 Welcome note (Bill Fulford, Universities of Oxford and Warwick, UK; Helge Malmgren, University of Gothenburg, Sweden)

Lunch

14.00-14.15 Registration14.15-18.00 Pre-conference courses (4 x 45 minutes each, plus coffee breaks):What is Phenomenology? (Jan Almäng, University of Gothenburg, Sweden; Helge Malmgren)Meaning, Understanding, Explanation (Tim Thornton, University of Central Lancashire, UK)Essential Psychiatric Ethics (Ingemar Engström, Örebro University, Sweden; Göran Hermerén, Lund University, Sweden)Evidence Based Psychiatry (Derek Bolton, Kings College, London)For details about the courses go here.19.00-22.00 Social event: Evening tour with the steamboat Bohuslän (with buffet)Friday, September 2*8.30-9.30 Registration9.30 Welcome note (Bill Fulford; Helge Malmgren)10.00-10.40 Phenomenology in psychiatry: Theory. Keynote lecture (David W. Smith, University of California, Irvine, USA)

Coffee break

11.10-11.50 Phenomenology in psychiatry: The practice. Keynote lecture (German Berrios, University of Cambridge, UK)

- 11.50-12.45 Comment to lectures (Helena De Preester, University College Ghent, Belgium); plenary discussion
Lunch
- 14.00-15.45 Parallel workshops (detailed program here):
- Changing diagnostic thinking: evidence and values
 - Psychotherapy of the psychoses: evidence and experience
 - Explanation and understanding: historical trends in Swedish psychiatry
 - Mental disorder and crime: evidence and ethics (moved from Sept. 3)
 - Nosology and Validity in Psychiatry
- Coffee break
- 16.15-18.10 Parallel oral presentations (detailed schedule here).
- 19.15 Reception, City of Gothenburg

Saturday, September 3

- 8.30-9.00 Registration
- 9.00-9.45 Evidence (and Ethics, and Experience): Value-Ladenness in Psychiatric Research. Keynote lecture (Rachel Cooper, Lancaster University, UK)
Coffee break
- 10.15-11.45 Comments to lecture (Derek Bolton; Ingvar Johansson, Umeå University, Sweden; Anders Lundin, MD, PhD, Stockholm, Sweden), plenary discussion
Lunch
- 13.00-14.45 Parallel workshops (detailed program here):
- At the Borderline: When Ethics, Evidence and Experience Collide (moved from Sept. 2)
 - Does phenomenological psychiatry have a future?
 - Moral visions and talking cures: intellectual and moral virtues in psychotherapy
- Coffee break
- 15.15-18.00 Poster session (detailed program here)
- 16.30-18.00 Special workshop: Integrating perspectives: An open discussion of the problems of communication and of understanding between clinicians and service users (Jan Verhaeg, University of Central Lancashire, UK; Nancy Nyqvist Potter, University of Louisville, USA; Tim Thornton)
- 19.00 Conference dinner

Sunday, September 4

- 8.45-10.15 Parallel oral presentations (detailed schedule here).
Coffee break
- 10.45-11.30 Ethics: Valuing Mental Health. Keynote lecture (Jennifer Radden, University of Massachusetts, Boston, USA)
- 11.30-12.30 Comments to lecture (Bengt Brölde, University of Gothenburg, Sweden; Bill Fulford), plenary discussion
- 12.30-13.00 Summing up (Bill Fulford). Announcement of next year's INPP conference (Grant Gillett, University of Otago, New Zealand – on video link – and Kristen Steslow, University of Otago, New Zealand).
- 13.00-14.00 Lunch

Pages
Aims
Program
Call for Contributions
Committees
Registration
Hotel Booking
About Gothenburg
Important Dates
Contact Information

The conference is organized by the Swedish Association for Philosophy and Psychiatry in cooperation with the University of Gothenburg, the Swedish Psychiatric Association and the International Network for Philosophy and Psychiatry.