In the published article, there was an error in the caption of Figure 1 as published. The citation “Nagabhatla et al., 2020b” was incorrect. The correct caption appears below:

In the published article there was an error in the Introduction, paragraph 1. The citation “Nagabhatla et al., 2020b” is incorrect. The sentence previously stated:

“The temporal and spatial heterogeneity in a country’s ability to manage women’s particular demands in migration and livelihoods are relatively under-researched despite the fact that in Africa and Asia, 70 % of women and girls are responsible for domestic water collection and often migrate less than men (Nagabhatla et al., 2020b).”

The correct sentence appears below:

“The temporal and spatial heterogeneity in a country’s ability to manage women’s particular demands in migration and livelihoods are relatively under-researched despite the fact that in Africa and Asia, 70% of women and girls are responsible for domestic water collection and often migrate less than men (Nagabhatla et al., 2020a).”

In the published article there was an error in the Introduction, paragraph 3. The sentence previously stated:

“To assess the nexus, a three-dimensional framework outlined by Nagabhatla et al. \(2020b\) was used as a base guiding framework...”

The correct sentence appears below:

“To assess the nexus, a three-dimensional framework outlined by Nagabhatla et al. \(2020a\) was used as a base guiding framework...”

In the published article there was an error in the Related Literature, paragraph 1. The citation “Nagabhatla et al., 2020b” is incorrect. The sentence previously stated:

“A considerable amount of information and literature sources, national and international agencies and agendas, and development reports make a general reference to “environmental migration” and “climate migrants” (Beine and Jeusette, 2019; Nagabhatla et al., 2020b; UNESCO UN-Water, 2020)...”

The correct sentence appears below:

“A considerable amount of information and literature sources, national and international agencies and agendas, and development reports make a general reference to “environmental migration” and “climate migrants” (Beine and Jeusette, 2019; Nagabhatla et al., 2020; UNESCO UN-Water, 2020)...”

In the published article there was an error in the Methodology, “Guiding Framework and Research Design,” paragraph 1. The citation “Nagabhatla et al., 2020b” is incorrect. The sentence previously stated:
