Dear Hubert:

I did enjoy your letter so very much, have noted a change of station, 4 months from home, so I expect to spend lots of time in New Orleans. I will send the letter with comment to literary editor of Times Beacon. Hope you don't object. No news of Wookie will let you know if I hear anything. I have just had one of those colds which like we once had, plenty of sore throats & sore. Do let me congratulate you on the commission. Looks like my flight instructor rating is very slim. The chimney was frozen all ratings.

I will have one little drink in you at that little bar in M.O. on way back when I expect to go in on a final down pass. I'm looking forward to the day when we can all be together again. Todd in England.

Pat
