Dear Mr. Creekmore:

On the advice of Professor Dorrance White I am writing to inquire whether you would be interested in submitting a translation of some Ovid for the Anthology of Classics in Translation that the Department of Classics at Wisconsin is getting out. We had not at first planned to include Ovid; but I now feel that the omission would be an egregious one. We will not be able to use very much; but I should like to have a story from the Metamorphoses, a bit from the Fasti, and some of the love poetry--in all about 500 lines, preferably verse. Unfortunately, we need this by September. This is very short notice, but if you would be interested I would much appreciate your contribution.

Yours sincerely,

Herbert M. Howe
