Dear Hubert Creekmore:

There has been time for me to read the novel THE WELCOME that you were kind enough to send to me a few days ago.

I don't think this is easy-going material in terms of the theatre. However, I think there is a play in it if one can get the right person to dig it out. Did you want to work on this with a dramatist or did you want a dramatist to come in and have complete freedom of movement. Sorry if I missed the point but it suddenly dawns on me that I don't think I know the answer without more information from you.

Cordially,

AUDREY WOOD
