Dear Mr. Creekmore:

Would you care to review a book called "Soviet Russian Literature, 1917-1950" by Gleb Struve? It's coming out shortly and I already have a copy. I thought another volume, "Taming of the Arts" by Juri Jelagin, which we haven't reviewed as yet, might be done with the Struve.

Perhaps you'd be kind enough to let me know by air mail whether or not I may send these books to you.

As for space, the two, I should think, might have a thousand words or a bit more. And if you think they don't combine well you might do two reviews.

Sincerely yours,

Margaret Marshall
