J. H. -

Sunday night -

Tom had a letter from Eleanor saying you had seen her show she enjoyed it. To tell what you thought of Dr. Bones -

To see Place in the Sun last night - Thought S. Taylor just about perfect. Haven't seen any of her other films & wasn't prepared for any kind of acting ability. Certainly all the credit can't go to the director, though much should, of course. S. Winters excellent too. Some of M. Cliff was O.K., but he strikes many false, hollow notes. Can't understand why he seems uneasy, tentative & self-conscious often, but he does. The way he looks,

, however, leaves little to be desired, though the loss of looks shows up. Liked all these natural shots in the sun, with moles on E. Taylor & scars & bumps on M. Clift - was interested in The Brave Bulls but it's v. jerky in continuity, as if there wasn't any script at all. Melanes also lacks conviction & don't hit.

I hope the MS is going along merrily.
