Dear Hubert,

Under separate cover, I am sending you a copy of the TRANSLATIONS OF EZRA POUND which, from what Jay tells me and what I have caught glimpses of in the files, you had a good deal to do with. I hope you will like the results of your handiwork. It is a really impressive volume and to my mind a great deal more interesting in many ways than THE LITERARY ESSAYS OF E. P., which will be coming at the end of the year. We are publishing TRANSLATIONS on August 29th.

I couldn't be more delighted over the reception of THE CHAIN IN THE HEART. I haven't had a chance to read it, but I'm going to sooner or later and look forward to it a great deal. People say it has power, and is a good story as well.

Yours ever,

Bob

P.S. The above all reads with a terrifying formality. But I can say is that the Dictaphone still has a slight constricting effect on me and I suspect that this note, suffered by contagion from having followed a long letter to a particularly expressive body agent, which rightly got icier and icier..... Hope you had a good stay here and are now deep in projects
