Dear Mr. Creekmore:

I hope you have received the translations of Ezra Pound which a bookseller here found for me quite readily. It occurs to me that some American dealer such as Kirgo in New Haven might well stock these items: Scheiwiller in Verona prints them. At any rate, I hope they give you pleasure. Please don't bother about payment; let them be a small gift in return for your kindness and generosity to me in other literary matters. With best wishes

Cordially yours,
L. R. Lind.
