Dear Nephew

I have had so much hurry and bustle this last two weeks that I had nearly forgotten my promise to write to you but lucky enough I thought of it today. we are all well and in good spirits and if nothing particular happens we mean to start for Troy tomorrow morning. I don't know when we will be back again. but at all events you will hear from us soon and I also hope to have matters arranged with you in a satisfactory manner if you are writing to your Mother soon you may let her know that I have ~~left~~ I hope to have the pleasure of seeing you and Anna next Summer if you can come to Troy you shall have a hearty welcome if you write to us address to the care of Joseph B Wilkinson I will now bid you good bye give my kind love to Anna and accept yourself the best wishes of your Aunt

Elisabeth Chapman
