DORM EDITION

VOL. 5, No. 8-Eight Pages Z-670 PROVIDENCE COLLEGE, PROVIDENCE, R. I., DECEMBER 7, 1939

5 Cents a Copy

Theatre Group Will Present

Connell Play

Tickets for 'Brother Orchid' Are Placed on Sale By Players

Tickets for "Brother Orchid," which will be presented in Harkins Hall December 16 and 17 by the Pyramid Players are now on sale, it was announced today by Joseph A Wade, '40, production manager.

The tickets are priced at fifty cents each with a special student price of each with a special student price of thirty-five cents per person. "Brother Orchid," written by John Connell, is the major production of the Players for this semester. It is a tale of the adventures of a bigtime gangster in a Floratine monas-tery. Rehearsals for the play have been in progress since the first of November

Members of the cast are Thomas Members of the cast are fromas Farrell, '41; Joseph A. Wade, '40; Francis Stadnicki, '43; John Antaya, '41; Edward Healy, '43; Joseph Mc-Laughlin, '42; Ira Williams, '41; Charles J. McGovern, '41; Francis X. Charles J. McCorby, 41; Erbandes A., McCarthy, 41; Edward Dupras, 40, and Thomas McBrien, 41. It is ex-pected that a dress rehearsal of the entire play will be held on Friday afternoon, Dec. 15. John Gibbons, 41; Patrick Brannon, '41; Eaden Keith, '43; and Frank Gragnani, '40, are the members of the publicity staff. Technicians

Technicians for the production will The Providence College choir un-be James Gilligan, '40; Joseph der the direction of the Rev. Leo S. Keough, '40; George Carroll, '40; Sal Cannon O. P., provided music at the Guglielmo, '40; John O'Reilly, '40; mass. Joseph O'Shea, '43; James Hattan, 43; In pointing out the sacrifice that Patrick Doyle, 43: Thomas Glifillan, was necessary for the generosity of 43; John Tramonti, 43; Edward the dead benefactors, Father Fitz. gerald said, "Let us recall that there James Curran, 43; and Dennis Izzi, manager for the production, said that tickets would continue on sale throughout the coming week. One ticket each will be allotted to stu-dents at the special thirty-five cent rate; tickets will cost fifty cents at

Classes were suspended for Thanks-giving recess following breakfast. New England DES Group to Organize

Faculty Members to Represent Providence College At Boston Meeting

The Rev. Arthur H. Chandler, O. P., dean, and the Rev. Daniel M. Galliher, O. P., registrar, of Providence College, will leave for Boston tomorrow, where plans for the for-mation of a New England division of olic honor society for men and women from Catholic colleges throughout the country, will be dis-

The honor society, plans for which Into the new style 21st century res. Was the celebrant at the solemn high taurants with ten or eleven slugs and mass: Rev. Daniel M. Galliher, O. He honor society, plans for which buys his dinner. Or suppose that our poker games are paid in slugs. P. were deacon and sub-deacon, re-What then? One good point brought yp by the adherents to this defalea-tion is the fact that if a war should Rev. Dominic L. Ross, O. P. Rev. Dominic L. Ross, O. P. The Rev. Charles V. Fennell, O. P., the formation of the society will not

Friar Debaters Will Take Part In Tournament

To Engage in Inter-College Contest at Maine University

Four members of the Providence College Debating Union left for Orono, Maine, today to represent Providence College in an intercollegiate debating tournament sponsored by the Univer-sity of Maine Debating Society. The debaters are Charles Cottam, '43; John F. O'Gara, '40; Danlel E. Geary Jr., '40, and James R. McGowan, '41 They were accompanied by the Rev. A. P. Regan, O.P., faculty moderator of the Debating Union.

Other colleges represented at the tournament are Amherst, Willian Bowdoin, Rhode Island College Williams Education, St. Patrick's of Ottawa, Education, St. Patrice's of Consta-University of New Hampshire, Rhode Island State College and Colby. The smatter to be discussed is: "Requestion to be discussed is: "Re-solved: That the Federal Government Should Own and Operate the Rail-

Experiment

The tournament is an experiment intercollegiate debating methods in New England. New England. Although debating sist solely of reprinted articles, es-tournaments are frequent among col- says, poems, short stories and nar-leges of the South and the Middle ratives submitted by past contribu-West, single debates have been cus-tomary with institutions in this section of the country.

The debaters will be told just prior o the beginning of the debate what ide they will defend. This method side they will defend. places emphasis on native speaking ability and a comprehensive knowledge of the subject on hand. It elimthe practiced speech to a considerable extent.

Each college will be represented by two teams, both of which will engage in five debates. The debates will be judged by members of other teams. Grading of the competitors, however, will be done largely on an estimate formed by other judges prominent in public speaking depart-ments of New England colleges and universities.

tournament will begin tomorfrom the University. The tournament will resume Satur-day morning. In the evening a ban-quet will be held, with the awarding quet will be of trophies.

has been tentatively set for the even has been tentatively set for the even-ing of December 13, in Harkins Hall. The subject has not yet been fixed. A debate with the University of Maine will also be held here on March 8 on the railroad question. Daniel E. Geary, Jr., '40. Secretary of the Providence College Debating Union has revealed. Geary also announced that an in-

PHILOSOPHY CLUB

The Philosophy club of Providence heaven College held a scholastic circle in The destruction of civilization is at our poker games are paid in slugs. Harkins Hall Tuesday evening. Dan-iel J. MacArthur, '40, president, wel-tomed the assembly and outlined the Roman Empire centuries ago, just as

FROSH NOMINATIONS Nominations for freshman class officers will take place this morn-ing in the auditorium at 11:30. The nominations will not be according to divisions as in the past but will be open to all. All members of the class are urged to attend this meeting. attend this meeting. The elections will take place Thursday, December 14, in the

P.C. Magazine To Celebrate Anniversary

December Issue of 'Alem-bic' to Feature Outstanding Stories

A special issue of the Alembic, Providence College student literary magazine, will be pub-is month commemorating quarterly lished this the twentieth anniversary of the publication's foundation, Lionel J. Landry, '40. editor, said yesterday. The issue, which will bring to campus readers some of the best writpus readers some of the series in it ing appearing in the review in it inventy years of existence, will con Although debating sist solely of reprinted articles, estors.

Among the selections chosen by the staff for the anniversary issue will appear "Franklin, A Self-made Man, an essay by Paul F. Skehan, '23, from the issue of December 1920. "The Holy Night," a poem by John P. Walsh, '24, from the same issue; "Jovial Embroidery," an essay by P William G. Beaudro, '38, from the is-sue of January 1936; "Vox ex Umbris," a poem by E. Riley Hughes, '37, from the issue of December, 1936; "Winter," a poem, by John Houli-han, '40, from the same issue, also "Glimpses of Kilmer," an essay, by John F. O'Connell, '28, from the is-John F sue of November 1926; "A Barbarous Epic," a poem by James J. Lynch, '25, from the issue of February, 1923; "Christmas Bells," a poem, by John row afternoon after a drawing of opposition by lots. A military ball will be held Friday, with escorts by Anis Samaan, '27, from the issue from the transmission of the same drawing of th by Anis Samaan, 27, from the issue of March, 1927; "Eroica," a short story by Robert C. Healey, '39, from the issue of November 1937; "On the (Continued on Page 8)

Deceased Benefactors Are Honored By Students At Thanksgiving Mass

Father Fitzgerald Lauds Late Charles Bree, '41, and William Kauf-Bishop Matthew Harkins

At a solemn high mass held in Harkins Hall last Wednesday in honor of the deceased benefactors of the college, the entire Providence College student body heard the late Bishop Harkins praised by the Rev. Jeremiah T. Fitzgerald, O. P., vice-president of the college.

The mass of thanksgiving was cele brated by the Very Rev. John J. Dil-lon, O. P. president of the college, Father Dillon was assisted by the Rev. Frederick C. Hickey, O. P., deacon, and the Rev. William A. Sullivan, O. P., sub-deacon.

The Rev. Arthur H. Chandler, O. P., dean; the Rev. Frederick C. Foley, O. P., assistant dean, and the Rev. Daniel M. Galliher, O. P., registrar, vere seated in the sanctuary. Alcolytes for the mass were, man, '43.

must have been something of the '43. spirit, something of the mind and the must have been something of the ^{43,} spirit, something of the mind and the supersensitive that impelled men to surrender the hard earned wealth that made the monument possible— the cement, the steel, and the frame-manager for the production, said that the cement, the steel, and the framework are but another body to house and tabernacle the idea-the interest and the spirit that made this college. General Communion was received by the entire student body during the after which breakfast mass served in the cafeteria.

debate with Connecticut State College Nickelodeon Shows Huge Profits in the Form of Slugs

By IRA T. WILLIAMS, JR., '41

By IRA T. WILLIAMS, JR., 41 The nickelodeon in the cafeteria is practice of putting slugs into nickel-very profitable—yes indeed. But who odeons and other machines, there profits most—the students or the management? that is the question. The other day the money box was opened and lo and behold it con-cease to print money and will devitation to debate has been received from Colby College. Geary said that the Debating Union's annual road trip will be deferred to spring. PHY CLUB PRESENTS CIRCLE bled prayers to all the saints in the set of the astouries when one walks P. into the new style 21st century res-wata comed the assembly and outlined the purpose of the club.Roman Empire centuries ago, just as the fall of Babylon was attributed Samo. 40, read a paper on "The for greed for financial power, so is to greed for financial power, so is

to greed for financial power, so is
to greed for financial power, so is sary would be the melling of slugs and the fall of the twentieth century for liter callagentia there is no
the fall of the twentieth century to greed for financial power, so is to greed

Friar Basketball Mentor Married In Danbury, Connecticut,

Head basketball coach and assistant football coach, Ed Crotty, was married last Friday morning to Gloria Maria Young of Danbury, Conn., at St. Joseph's Church, Danbury

The Very Rev. John J. Dillon, O. P., President of Providence College, Catholic Educational Association. was the celebrant at the solemn high

Wedding Bells Ring For Coach Crotty

December 1

THE COWL

tablished November 15, 1935 Published every full school week by the students of Providence College, Providence, R. L.

Harkins Hall, Room 18 THE STAFF

THE STAFF Charles Sweeney, 41 np Eoltor Henry Gray, 44 nt Editor Default Dopres, 40 Editor Practics X McCarthy, 41 hotographer Aloysius Quinn, 40 ps Editor John Ordars, 40 x Manager Daniel E. Geary, 46

sinces Manager. Daniel E. Geary. 40 REPORTERS suph. Euron. 40: Harold Rich, 41: onnas Mulligan, 41: Peter Goodwin, : James E. McGowan, 41: Lionel J. andry. 40, Martin Orzeck, 41: Chaites Institute, 41: Chaites McConnell, 40: orgene. 41: Choiert Smith, 41: Thom-McDonald, 41: Charles McConnell, 40: orge Moris, 44:

ADVERTISING STAFF

John M. Reynolds, '40, Manager ert E. Roque, '40; John F. Cronin, CIRCULATION STAFF leorge F. Carroll, '40, Manager am J. Riley, '40; Joseph Lennon, '40; n V. Donilon, '40; Joseph McLaugh-Subscription: 5 cents the copy; $1.00 a year Same rate by mall. Title as second-class matter. October 1856, at the Post Office at Providence, thode Island, under the Act of March 1873.

National Advertising Service, Inc. 420 MADISON AVE. NEW YORK, N. Y. CHILARN BOSTON LOS ARBELES - SAN PRANCISCO

-

THE DORM

The completion of the new residence hall exemplifies a termination and likewise an inception. First, it signifies the culmination of the actual construction work; and secondly, as we had rather think of it, it is the first achievement in an extensive, building campaign. A campaign which might add three or more buildings to the College during the next few years.

It is the first major building Stine by the College in nearly a decade, and was undertaken at great financial expense. However, there has been much evidence attesting to the fact that it will be well worth the tremendous efforts which have been extended on its behalf.

The prestige of the College has already been greatly enhanced. We are no longer an institution with a solitary main building. And, although this may appear foolish, it is nevertheless true that the general public is incapable of believing that the physical size of a college need not affect its academic standing, and that a college of one building may have just as high a rating as one whose campus is cluttered with halls.

Aquinas Hall is not in reality a dormitory, but a most modern and up-to-date residence hall. In addition to the living quarters, it has a dining hall, a lounge, a recreational room in the basement, and a chapel.

This set up provides these students who are fortunate enough to reside on the campus with every possible opportunity to live a college life to its fullest. They have the chance to establish and foster friendships which will last for life. This was practically impossible as long as they were scattered all over the neighborhood. And experience has proved that true friendships can not be formed in the classrooms alone. In addition to the education of the will and the intellect, the social and cultural candy as a remedy for stomach life of a student should not be ache. neglected. The Catholic concep- the United States is willing to tion of higher education, in- take action which will not draw in a definite direction.

cludes as well as others, though to a lesser degree, this social aspect of a college education. At Providence, it has been and will continue to be accorded its proper position.

The proximity to the priests and the chapel should facilitate their daily attendance at Mass and frequent the reception of Holy Communion. These two practices in themselves, if lived up to, would more than contribute towards their share towards defraying the actual expenses for the chapel.

Providence College builds for the future.

INCONSISTENCY

Fining a millionaire ten dollars and costs for murder in the first degree would indeed be ludicrous. And that is just how the "moral embargo" appears to us. Banning planes and aeronautical supplies from Russia at this time is about as sensible as trying to put the Atlantic Ocean in a two quart jar.

A "moral embargo" at this time is the same as closing the barn door after the horse has been stolen. The present administration in recognizing Russia back in 1933 should have taken into consideration the fundamental doctrines of Communism. There was a great deal of oppression against recognition at that time but greed for revenue from our foreign trade with the Soviets settled the issue.

Communism has not changed since our recognition of Russia. The Soviets are merely putting into practice those doctrines which in 1933 they were not powerful enough to effect. It was American aid which made the Reds the power that they are today

The people of the United States must decide which course they are to follow in regard to the present conflicts. They must decide whether these subversive doctrines are to be suppressed and aid given to smaller nations or whether they wish to remain neutral and stay out of conflicts. If it be the latter then the United States must treat all nations without discrimination but if the purpose is to suppress these subversive doctrines and to aid helpless nations more stringent action than a "moral embargo" must be taken.

Air products are but a minor part of the strength of any warring nation. In order to aid Finland effectively it will be necessary to sever diplomatic and trade relations with the Russians. The Reds already have enough planes but they are in constant need of our machinery and our superior manufactured products. Worthwhile action by the United States combined with action of the Balkan nations is the only way to make Stalin think before acting.

The action of European nations against Russia will be utterly useless unless the United States adopts a policy which will be effective. A "moral embargo" at this time is the same as giving

Collegians to Give Congressman Dies Warm Reception Upon Investigation

Congressman Martin Dies, the gov-rament's one-man crusade against all inges un-American, has announced es would be scored for discussing the ernment's one-man crusade against all things un-American, has announced he'll soon turn his prying eyes U. S. colleges and universitiesthat but he's going to get a warm recep-

Past activities of Mr. Dies' wellpublicized committee have already discredited his work, the collegians maintain in editorials in the college press, but they nevertheless fear that his proposed investigation will, without cause, injure the nation's institu-tions of higher learning and hamper the accomplishment of their programs and the fulfillment of their duties.

The Ohio State University Lantern The Onio state Oniversity Lantern believes that "whatever Mr. Dies' avowed good intentions were, he has souttled them with bis sourrilous tac-tics. Mr. Dies smears names. He browbeats witnesses. He raids pri-vate correspondence. He does everything that is undemocratic and un palatable to advocates of democracy. Not only would Mr. Dies be wasting the public's money (in investigating colleges), he would be making him-self a public nuisance and menace." The Amherst College Student at-tacked the coming investigation with these words; "It is one thing when the committee investigates members of the communist party for subversive of the communist party for subversive activities, and another when it turns to education, the single greatest es-sential of democracy. Any injury to the freedom of education is striking at the life blood of democracy." "Each student, whatever his sympa-thes will be effected by any apple in thies, will be affected by any such in-vestigation," says the University of Michigan Daily, "If not directly, then of indirectly by witnessing the general suspension of his friends, or (if he be friendless) by the obfuscation and final obliteration of cultural progress here at the university."

The McPherson Spectator brought the possible results of the investiga-tion home to its readers in this manner: "If the committee should inves-tigate McPherson College, judging by previous methods, they probably would find that the history classes are using subversive propaganda when they study the Russian aystem of com-munism, the Italian corporate state the German version of National So-

It portrays the idea that United States to make up its possibility of a communistic economy, the abolition of the price system, the replacement of the capitalistic ideal with some better methods. The right of discussion and the right to free-dom of speech and assembly are in-The right herent and must be retained in a de-mocracy. Any attempt at denying that right is in itself an un-American denying activity.

In an editorial letter to Mr. Dies the University of Pittsburgh News hinted at a possible explanation of the congressman's move: "We realize that congressman's move: "We realize that you (Mr. Dies) are a wholly disinter-ested researcher when you come to examine our colleges and universities. That of the 60 college journals we read, only one little school has commended you, while about 45 college papers have denounced your actions has, of course, nothing to do with your sudden determination to expose those hotbeds of radicalism, the American Institutions of higher learning. Come on, Mr. Dies, we're waiting." And so, we said in the beginning. Mr. Dies due to receive a warm welcome from the nation's collegians!

AQUINO CLUB TO HOLD INITIATION CEREMONIES

The initiation committee of Aquino Club at a meeting held last Tuesday formulated plans for the initiation of freshmen members of the club. The initiation will be held in the near future.

Members of the committee include: Ralph Paparella, John Lombardi, Joseph Bevilacqua, Salvatore Guglielmo, Thomas Levesque, Nino Fab-bri, Frank Di Traglia and Edmund Baldi, seniors; Donald Tramonti, John Pascone and Al Marchetti, juniors; Edward Franco, Samuel Iorio, Frank

Political Stage Is Taken Over By Students

Governor Stark and Post-master General Com-ment on Campaign

College students threw their hats opening meeting in Westminster Colopening meeting in Westminister Col-lege's student campaign was import-ant enough to draw speeches from Governor Stark of Missouri and Post-master General James Farley, and a coast-to-coast network from CBS. The reason for the radio broadcast of the reason for the radio broadcast Interesson for the cash oronecast and the speeches from eminent politi-cal figures was that the occasion was important not only to Westminster, but to colleges throughout the coun-try. Already many colleges have ex-pressed an interest in Westminster's plan for making students more active politically, and a long range cam-paign has been outlined.

Parties Westminster College has westminister conlege has inaugu-rated this fall a plan for dividing the undergraduate body into three politi-cal parties-Republican, Democratic, and Independent-Liberal. The parties are led by student chairmen, and hold, roughly, the political views that their names indicate. A series of detheir names indicate. A series of de-bates are planned in the college gym-nasium, each of which will be ad-dressed by a guest speaker, prominent in politics. Among the names of future speak ers are listed Thomas Dewey, N York's District Attorney: Mayor Guardia, of New York; Senator New thur Vandenberg, and ex-President Hoover, all of whom have expressed approbation of the scheme.

approvation of the scheme. The final meeting, which will take place in the spring, will consist of party conventions, run with all the trimmings of real conventions, from banners to cigar smoke, and climaxed with each party's selection of its can-didate for the presidency. Students didate for the presidency. Students from other colleges where similar plans are being worked out will at-plans are being worked out will at-tend Westminster's final convention. Governor Stark made the trip to Ful-ton in person, and his remarks were heard by fifteen hundred people in the college gymnasium, in addition to the radio audience of the Columbia Broadcasting System. Postmaster Farley spoke from Washington, also over CBS, and his remarks were picked up inside the gymnasium, and carried over the public address sys-tem to the crowd.

The second secon contaminated.

Service to a political party is ser-"Service to a political party is ser-vice to the nation. It makes no dif-ference which party you serve. Our democracy ower its existence to the two-party system—and the party in power will always need a strong oppo-sition party to provide the system of checks and balances which is an in-row-al mart of our natterp for govern-Edward Franco, Samuer and Sopho-Merciole and John Russillo, sopho-terecks and balances which is an n-tegral part of our pattern for govern-mores. Nicholas Golini and Mario ment."

Seniors to Hold Annual 'Veritas' Dance

they study the Russian system of com-munism, the Italian corporate state, the German version of National So-the disfavor of Russia or which will not pinch its own pocket-book. The time has come for the United States to make up its mind and then take some action in a definite direction.

Dorm is First Step in P. C. Building Plans

Aquinas Hall Offers Complete Facilities for Resident Students

Aquinas Hall, Providence Col-lege's new $500,000 residence hall, now occupied to capacity with 180 students and 11 members of the faculty, is the first step in a gradual physical expansion of the college, started December 16, 1938, following a drive for funds conducted by the college earlier that year.

The Hall is located on the north-east section of the campus adja-cent to Guzman Hall. It is expect-ed eventually to form the basis of a quadrangle of buildings to be add-ed as the college expands.

As seen from the front the dormitory appears as an inverted U with mitory appears as an inverted C with a grass plaza and terrace leading to the front entrance in the center. The building is 300 feet long and 35 feet wide, with a wing on each end 35 feet by 55 feet. It is Gothic in design, conforming with the other buildings on the campus. It is four stories high and has a basement. The construction is of brick with limestone trimmings and a base of granite. IS FIREPROOF

The entire building is fireproof, the floors of the three upper stories eing constructed of asphalt and being steel framework being used through-out. The hall contains a lounge, dining hall, chapel, private dining room, and kitchen as well as recreation rooms and bed rooms for the

The lounge, on the right main entrance, is 35 feet by 100 feet. Its walls are of paneled wood and there is a fireplace and bookcases along the walls. Four doors lead off along the walls from the left of the main ing hall is on the left of the main entrance. It can accommodate 300 College have not shown any ivy dur-

The kitchen is in the left wing and behind it is the private dining hall for guests and special functions.

New Chapel

The chapel, replacing the one in deeply into the past. State. Harkins Hall, is located in the right amall incinerator, a student recrea-tion room and a boiler room. Two oil burning boilers and a two-pipe for the province of St. Joseph to found On the three dormitory floors are a new college and presented for that on the three dormitory floors are a new college and presented for that of the province of St. Joseph to found a new college and presented for that of the province of St. Joseph to found a new college and presented for that of the province of St. Joseph to found a new college and presented for that of the province of St. Joseph to found a new college and presented for that of the province of St. Joseph to found a new college and presented for that of the province of St. Joseph to found a new college and presented for that of the province of St. Joseph to found a new college and presented for that of the province of St. Joseph to found a new college and presented for that of the province of St. Joseph to found a new college and presented for that of the province of St. Joseph to found a new college and presented for that a new college and presented for the college and presented for that a new college and presented for that a new college and presented for that a new college and presented for the college and presented for that a new college and presented for the college and presented for room has a wash basin, two 36 rooms for two students Every beds, two desks, two chairs and a closet. On each floor there are four suites of rooms for the faculty mem-

Automatic Elevator

Island architect, designed the resi- room tence hall.

Aguinas Hall

Completion of Aquinas Hall Culminates Twenty Years of Crowded P. C. History

ing the twenty years they have been ing the twenty years one in the providence consigner of the standing. The mellow tradition is a standing. The mellow tradition is a standing to the builds up is lacking at Bill was introduced in January 18, which time builds up is lacking at 1917, and unanimously passed by the time standard Representatives, and in the the Smith Hill institution.

Harkins Hall, is located in the right wing. It is 17 feet high and is placed below the actual first floor back to the foundation. He Order of Governor, making the College a cor-level. It contains eight side altars preachers by Saint Dominic Guzman poration, and formal permission for and a center main altar. There is in 1216, the same tradition that is the conduct of the College was given between the two presistion and go.

 fessional room large enough for four confessionals is in the rear.
 ing in the New World.
 Dominican Fathers of the St. Joseph Actual plans for the creation of Providence College were promulgat.
 Dominican Fathers of the St. Joseph Providence College were promulgat.
 tember ed the drive for building funds, and mally the first meeting of the Providence College were founder and benefactor of the Coll.
 College Corporation was held at his bers, founder and benefactor of the Coll.
 College corporation was held at his bers,

College Experienced Rapid Growth Following Founding growth Albert Casey, O. P., S. T. L. P. C. Chartered in 1917; Opened in 1918 With 75 Students re, president of Thomas Aquinas Col-lege, Columbus, Ohio, was assigned to Providence College Founders Asso.

supervise building plans for the opening of the new college roots of Providence College sink House of Representatives, and in the same week by the Senate of the and a choir loft, two sarristies, and an symbolized by the University of Peru, at the Sacred Congregation, Rome, ber. altar boy's dressing room. A con-fessional room large enough for four ing in the New World.

Providence College Founders Association was organized.

The Corporation set the formal opening of the College for Wednesformal day, September 25, 1918. month voted to place the ment for military and academic pursigning of the Armistice in Novem-

The celebration of Holy Mass September 18, 1919, by the Reverend Albert Casey, O. P., Very formally opened the College. The initial faculty was comprised of nine mem-

College Road Slowly Passing Into Oblivion

Tender Memories Will Always Be Retained By Former Residents

By Charles J. McGovern, '41 old order passeth, giveth to the new Gone the days of Finnegan, Gone the days of Carney's, O'Briens, and the host of other boarding houses the nost of other boarding nouses that gave shelter to Providence Col-lege students in the infant days of this institution. With the building of its first dormitory. Providence Col-lege has come of age in the physical sense of the word.

onger will proctors patrol their appointed rounds at dusk, wending appointed rounds at dusk, wending their way through College Road, down River Avenue, and up Pine-hurst Avenue. Never again will stu-dents climb in the rear window by means of the trellis to evade the proctor

Many Legends

Many and varied are the legends that arose during the days of College Road. There was the night that a prominent athlete raced down Haskins, braving the wintry blasts clad only in his shorts, to pay off a bet.

Then there was the morning that the Finnegan A. C. awoke to find a City of Providence tool shed parked on the lawn. Deep secrecy still surand it has never been discovered just how the shed was transported from River Avenue to Finnegan's lawn. Kidnappers Folled

But the legends of College Road are not all humorous. There is at least one of them which shows the great devotion of the boarders. happened one night in November It 1935. The crucial game with State was only a few days distant, and the 1935. was tense. Lookouts campus posted, to signal the approach of any State students who had ambitions to be dognappers, for the State ram had been kidnapped two days before Then, up the drive roared a sedan day, September 25, 1918. A special with a State sticker on the wind-meeting of the corporation in that shield. The lookouts went into action. college Bob Lucy raced from his room, and building and equipment at the dis-standing in the middle of the Road, posal of the United States govern- holding up his pajama pants with one hand, and clutching his bugle with poses, but the provision of the new plan were made unnecessary by the arms. The College Roaders showed the stuff of which they were made Forth from the houses they poured and armed with baseball bats, skis, tennis rackets, and snowshoes, they went to do battle for Alma Mater in defense of Friar Boy, the First. The Providence men made their stand in front of Harkins Hall, and, using their weapons to good advantage, they repulsed the enemy, driving them back to State with bruised bodies. Then the Roaders rested on their victorious arms, for they had isen to glorious heights that night. But the invaders from State had some small measure of success, for although they didn't get Friar Boy, they did take Charlie Gaffney back

Diary of a Boarding Student

By Russ Muenzen, '42 7:15 a. m.

 Automatic Elevator
 My overly efficient atarm clock is the quicterses of the room. As the bed, and nurry downstars thuy awate is a house.
 The set is the quicterses of the sounds that is the quicterses of the room. As the bed, and nurry downstars thuy awate is a house.
 The set is the quicterses of the sounds that is the quicterses of the room. As the bed, and nurry downstars thuy awate is a house.
 They tell, too, about the night that most general impatience to get out most general impatience to get out most general impatience to get out the sounds that in most general impatience to get out the most general impatience to get out the most general impatience to get out the sound the head is a house.
 They tell, too, about the night that most general impatience to get out the most general impatience to get out the sound the head is a house.
 The the general impatience to get out the most general impatience to get out the most general is over and the fifty fellows in a general "bulkers.
 The double looking for his bedroom in the head is the hour.

 ter.
 The dining room floor is of muber while the washrooms and the gour that bars description. As I wan as m.
 Same
 The dining and as I look toward the kitch stription and as I look toward the kitch the unding from noor is of the four that basis description. As I wan- 8 a.m. thalkways are constructed in terrazzo, thalkways are constructed in terrazzo, thalkways are word to the doorway asking the cooks and completely weatherstripped. the undows are wood in the hall I can her the I am back upstairs once more and to the doorway asking the cooks and completely weatherstripped. the undows are wood to the size of the 7:30 a. m

dence halt. Table arm. Least interested. Lunch is over. As I climb the stairs be seen. Never more will the garage i am struck by the complete change developed morning have be-stated by the Rev. Aloxsius B. Beg-ise, O. P. The Rev. Nicholas H. Ser-fore, O. P., is infirmarian. In the case of the state o

tion of the noise caused by the rattle incident of the class-room day. I en-

The windows are wood framework and completely weatherstripped. Aquinas Hall is the first step in a the washroom. I meet several friends a few pleasantires and with an one gin to cat (and can we eat). At my pradual expansion which the college on the way and a sleepy good-morn-hopes to realize with the erection of a science building, and an athletic field room 1 hurry to dress and hasten to house. Oresto DI Saia, prominent Rhode the stairway into the dining force of habit 1 reply knowing full but on necessit! well that my interrogator is not in the 130 p. m. well that my interrogator is not in the 1:00 p. m. least interested.

15 a. m. of dishes there is very little to break ther my room, toos my books on the to Kingston with them, holding him My overly efficient alarm clock is the quietness of the room. As the bed, and hurry downstairs fully aware as a hostage until the game. They tell too about the night that

Lunch is over. As I climb the stairs make that 8:30 class will never more be seen. Never more will the garage

THE COWL, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1939

COMPLETION OF AQUINAS HALL CULMINATES TWENTY YEARS OF CROWDED P. C. HISTORY

(Continued from Page 3) "Veritas" was published by the sen-at the Narragansett Hotel, and in ior class for the first time. December the "Alembic," literary publication, was organized and dis-opened by the Very Reverend John

December the "Alembic," literary publication, was organized and dis-tributed its fart issue. The Very Reverend William D. Noon, O. P., St. M., who formerly held the chair of Theology in the lington, was named president of the College in October, 1921. The same yeekly publication, was issued coinci-tington, was named president of the the Catholication, was issued coinci-latent with the Varsity Football game with R. I State College An In-sieal Club were inaugurated. The first football team of the College the Casholication for Interna-first football and Basketbal schedule. Baseball and Basketbal squads were already active.

An original musical control, ence building notaly conduct and "Nancy" was presented in Artic and field house, funds to be raised by pri-in Providence in 1925. The follow-vate subscription. Construction of the ing year, the musical organizations dormitory began in October last gave their first public concert and year.

37 Bourn Street

1143-1155 Westminster Street

ads were already active. in original musical comedy, ence building. library ,chapel and

Providence, R. I.

Providence, R. I.

ished hope and dream for all those interested in Providence College athletics. For they expect it will pave the way to a better future by eliminating many of the difficulties which the enforced separation of the players brought about. This off-campus separation often was the cause of a lack of unity which made potentially good ams look mediocre. And eating always a problem. A few of the boys were fortunate enough to get a good steak on the day of a tough game, but most of them had to go along with the menu of their non-athletic, fellow-boarders; even to the extent that a lot of times the adjectives before "steak" and "game' were reversed. So that many a Friar aggregation was handicapped by some elder, or basketball foroutfielder, or tackle, ward trying to move around with too much "gravy and cream" rolling around inside, or on the other hand almost dropping in his tracks from malnutrition. And although they would probably not admit it at the time, prolonged "bull" sessions, which were very popular in the boarding houses, robbed many of the former P. C. athletes of a good deal of preus sleep.

Consequently, whenever a group of Dominican devotees got together and discussed the sport situation, the evitable supposition would sooner or later be dragged out-"If we only had a dormitory the players could be kept in better condition, they would have a keener spirit, they . and so on into the morning

Now we have the dorm. As can be expected Aquinas Hall will not be a panacea for all Providence College athletic woes. Nor will Rose Bowl elevens and point-a-minute basketball teams automatically roll out of its confines. But the outlook is brighter and we can say with Uncle Henry, "It's only the beginning folks, only the beginning."

Two fundamental requisites for any successful team, anyone will agree, are spirit and true friendship, and again anyone will agree that there is no better way to develop these qualities than by communal life and daily association. Therefore, we anticipate an increase of spirit, of that deepoted desire to triumph over all odds, not only for the accruing per-sonal satisfaction, but also for the sonal satisfaction, but also for the greater glory of the College and classmates. Victory now will mean some-thing more to P. C. teams than headlines in the morning newspaper, it will mean bringing home the bacon to Acquinas Hall, where the sweet strains of victory can be resung and celebrated in unison with classmates Those who hold the athletic future of Providence College close to their hearts are now watching and waiting, and the fulfillment of their fondest hopes rest within the power of the present residents of the Hall. Theirs

In a program announced here by the federal government's department of commerce, that department and state university school and bureaus of busi-ness and research will work together in a voluntary cooperative program that will coordinate the existing ser-vices to business of these units.

A Norwegian shipping line has named one of its vessels "Tulane" in

BOILERS

Furnished by

FITZGIBBONS STEEL BOILERS

Providence, R. I.

ARTHUR T. WHOLEY, R. I. Manager

hy

DUDLEY HARDWARE CO.

124 Dorrance Street

Compliments of

PEMBROKE PLUMBING & HEATING COMPANY, Inc.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.

Contractors Supply Co.

M. A. Gammino

126 North Main Street

Providence, R. I.

comes the realization of a long cher-26 North Main Street

ts Situation Will Be Improved And Developed By New Dormitory Sports Situation Will Be Improved By Charles W. McConnell, '40 With the opening of Aquinas Hall gave their first public concert and the dramatic society presented Shakespeares "Julius Caesar," in the Providence Opera House, as the "pyramid Players," affiliated with the Little Theatre Movement. Dy," in November, 1827, marked the beginning of the first newspaper of the College. An Alumni Ball was held in December of that year. The following year saw the organisation of the College. The following year saw the organisation of the College was announced in Sep-tember of this year. This following year saw the organisation of the College was announced in Sep-tember of this year. This following year saw the organisation of the College was announced in Sep-tember of this year. This fail, P. C. opened its new $500,000 dormitory and thus inaugu-rated a new era.

Center of Attraction

MATTRESSES

by

JUSTICE BEDDING CO.

FRAMES ... DOORS ... SASH

and MILLWORK

Furnished by

L. VAUGHN CO.

LINOLEUM and RUBBER

TILE FLOORS

Furnished and Installed

by

FAIN'S

THE COWL, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1939

The Keyholer

We've been threatening for to toss out another of those things we fondly call poems and now our threats are materializing. Read it

The Beacon Atop the Rock

- They's taken the Beacon from Beacon Hill and Boston's taking it hard.
- the Lodges speak to the Where Cabots and the Cabots speak only to God,
- There's a definite wave of repulsion, for now that the beacon's gone. How are the elite distinguished from the ordinary lower-class throng.

So they quickly dispatched a rider to carry their tale of woe;

Up to the floor of the Senate did the harried messenger go. He demanded an investigation by a committee of great renown. must find that stolen beacor They must

- be it in city, village or town,
- Now the committee investigated as

Now the committee investigated as a good committee should. They looked all over New England; they even tried Lincoln Woods. But nary a trace of the beacon, not even a stray gleam of light

Could the good committee uncover, there wasn't a thing in sight.

The Senate came down to Providence. the city of seven hills, Where the Colonial fathers had founded a metropolis given to thrills.

And here they found the beacon, he object of all their search Perched up atop Aquinas, like a bel-fry on a church.

It seems that the College fathers knowing well the familiar name Given by students to Aquinas, had de-cided it was a shame.

So they got the beacon from Boston, they took it out of hock, They'd give the students reason to call the dorm "the Rock."

How it's set atop Aquinas, its gleams shine through the night Like a jewel reflecting its setting; it rivals Point Jude in might

It guides the returning student as homeward he plods his way After an exhausting round of classes to end a perfect day.

The burning light atop the hall retime when from his home he'd

The family always left a light aglow turned to get some sleep.

Now Beantown folk can rest in peace, the beacon's safe at last;

minds the lad of home; Of nights long dimmed by passing to guide his erring feet As from a night of revelry he re-50 Borden Street MEDICINE CABINETS

SUPERIOR GLASS CO. 56 Charles Street

Providence, R. I.

living on the Rock

By ED DUPRAS, '40

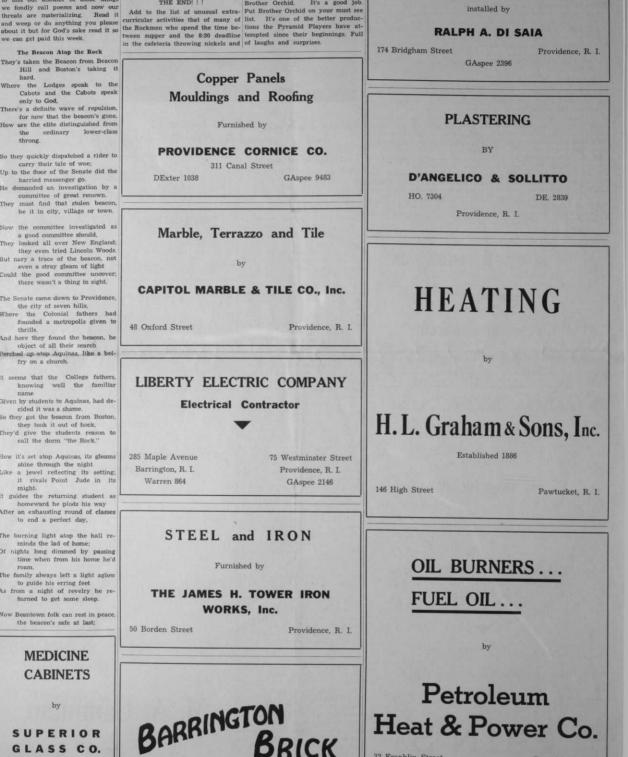

THE END! !!

Orchids to Dennis Izzi, the Freshman artist, for his swell sign for Brother Orchid. It's a good job.

dimes into the nickelodeon. Of course directed thrown charge of the aeronautics course at into the machine and the records Butler University. Resp acomin' without more money.

Monarch Weatherstrips and Screens

installed by

32 Franklin Street

GAspee 9166

Providence, R. I.

Regarding All-American Teams

Comes the first week of December, time for sports writers all over the countryside to crawl out on the proverbial limb once again to furnish the American sporting public with their long-thought-out and carefully-con-sidered selections of the nation's out-standing football players for the season just concluded. A sturdy and courageous lot, these sports scribes. Show me another group of men in this broad land of ours—outside of Joe Louis's opponents-who are ever willing to lead with their chins. Or maybe it's just their way of show ing the authors of these various ar-ticles set forth from time to time condemning All-American teams that they don't give a hoot what anyone else thinks. Nevertheless, my wholchearted sympathies are with them during these most trying of all times as they would be with anyone who keeps coming back for more pun-ishment as is meted out each year to the honorable sports scriveners. But lest I be misunderstood on such a vital topic, Fil make clear richt now wy stand on the matter. right now my stand on the matter. I think all criticism of the selec-tions unfair, yet I would not hold the 'all-teams' up as being in fallible. I simply accept them as annoise. I simply accept inten as a necessary evil and I would ask the American sporting fan to do likewise. After all, you ask for them; and I ask you, is it proper to bite the hand that feeds you?

The pickers of All-American teams A pretty much the same as udges of a bathing beauty ti find themselves. While choices directly concern the "Silp" Barnini, fiery gridiron star, are in Judges contest "Slip" Barnini, fiery gridiron star, contestants themselves, it's the gal-lery that does the squawking. So you can easily see what a disheartening occupation sportwriting can become game. Both are hard workers and occupation sportwriting can become when the question of All-Americas is no All-American selection this year, offensive threats, Ed Takes the Step Congratulations to Coach Ed rotty who embarked on his matri-Ed Crotty monial career last Friday. The popular young mentor was married by the Very Reverend John J. Dillon, O. P., President of the College to a girl from his native nutmeg state Ed is expected back from his his honeymoon to resume his duties with the basketball squad.

Press Box Splinters

If Coach Ed Leahy's Boston Col-lege Eagles are not the recipients of a post season invitation to represent this section in one of the "bowl" games there's bound to be plenty of ruckus raised around these parts by their ardent supporters. And they will have every reason to feel slighted for when a team can do as thorough a job as the Eagles did on the Holy Cross Crusaders last Saturday, they rightfully deserve recognition as a sectional leader. They have been tabbed by the experts as They gam representative of the nation's best urgh University has quite a siderah idea for its mascot. One of its circles. Pittsburgh cheerleaders is dressed up for every game in a panther costume which

Blackstone Valley Club

Diacksionie Valley Club The Biacksione Valley Club will hold a roller skating party next Wed-nesday evening at the Fairlawn Rolt-hands of these two clubs, however, J. Silva, '40, heads the committee ar-ranging the affair. Admission will be $50 a couple.

Regular Drills For Hoopsters Are Resumed

Enthusiasm of Squad at High Pitch; Team Loses One Regular

The Providence College varsity asketball squad will swing back into regular practice sessions tomorrow with the return of Coach Ed. Crotty from his honeymoon. Informal work-outs have been held this week under the direction of Co-Captains Joe Kwamiewski and "Slip" Barnini.

With prospects for a successful season considerably brighter this year, the enthusiasm of the squad is at a high pitch. Only Capt. Elt Deuse is missing from the first five of last year. Together with the four re-turning regulars Coach Crotty has several other experienced men and also several outstanding members of last year's freshmen squad to work with. The fire and aggressiveness that these reserves and sophomores have shown has left the battle for starting positions wide open.

The four regulars from last year who are being hard pressed for their positions are Co-Captains Joe Kwas-niewski and "Slip" Barnini, Bill Murphy, and Steve Fallon. Kwasniewski has been a regular for the past two years. He is one of the best marksmen on the squad but shines brightest on the defense. His defensive play has been brilliant and he has been responsible for checking many of the high-scoring players in New England when the question of All-Americas is brought up. But what I started out to say was that the COWL will make of the defense and yet are distinct

"Lefty" Fallon, the fourth member Letty Failon, the fourth member of the starting club last season, ap-pears to be in for a great season. Steve will undoubtedly be the offen-sive star of the team this year. He has an eagle eye for the basket and his one-handed southpaw shots remarkably consistent. Fallon is shots are ceiving plenty of competition but he should be at a forward post when the whistle blows for the Friars' opener with the Greyhounds of Assumption Colloge on Jan. 6.

Pushing the regulars to the limit nd battling for starting positions are teryle Sacks, Jimmy Leo, Paul Beryle Sacks, Jimmy Leo, Paul Sweeney, and Joe Juges. Leo and Sacks are the leading candidates for Path the other forward position. Both have good eyes for the basket with Sacks a bit more aggressive than his rival Paul Sweeney and Joe Juges, the best ball handlers on the squad, are in line for considerable duty. Both are rangy and play a hard steady

Vin Nugent, diminutive Friar halfthe second best team defensively and the third best offensively in the coun-and may make his presence felt bethe third best offensively in the coun-try. And after all, competitors in the "bowl" games are supposed to be forward from La Salle Academy, is an excellent dribbler and has had considerable experience in local amateur cheerleaders is dressed up for each game in a panther costume which lent defensive team. However, Denore consists of seven layers of deerskin becoming a great team they will have and a leopard covering. The entire to develop a scoring punch. Because regalia weighs 40 pounds. Who says of their defensive strength they the football players do all the work? The squad shapes up as an excel-lent defensive team. However, before ical State title an interesting one. Their rivals, R. I. State and Brown

A special course for the college's maids and porters has been announced by Byrn Mawr College. The democrats have been invited to hold their 1940 convention in the famed football Rose Bowl stadium in California.

Co-Captains

Co-captains Joe Kwasniewski (left), of New Nilford, Conn. and "Slip" Barnin of Pittafield, Mass., pause during practice to taik over plans for the coming season. "Handbome" Joe Will more than likely be moved over to the pivot past vacated by Elt Deuse. "Peppery Slip" is back again to hait the scoring aspirations of opposing forwards fram his guard position.

Intra-Mural Shots By Harold Rich

Intra-mural basketball at Providence College, instituted as an organ-ized system last year, will get under way next Monday and Tuesday eve nings when eight class teams, co prising lightweight and heavyweight aggregations, inaugurate the 1939-40 championship race which will be ontested over a two-month period. Last year the intra-class activities proved very successful in spite of the fact that they were newly-organ-Not only did the various quintets perform very creditably, but the great amount of interest mani-fested by the students in the form of active competition enabled the di- top of the heap in the regular league all-important reward that is resultant ers in their division. The present ju of success in such a type of sports program, namely, widespread student participation in athletics. Attesting to the competitive spirit which pervaded the class squads are the many close contests which were staged. Incidentally, one of the most exciting climaxes ever witnessed in Harkins Hall was the championship playoff for the heavyweight diadem between the Sophomores and Juniors. The tilt, nip-and-tuck affair from start to finish, was decided after the regu-lar playing time had expired. Jim Begley, brilliant Junior forward fouled in the act of shooting almost simultaneously with the sounding of the final whistle, stepped to the charity ribbon and broke up a 24-24 deadlock with the second of his two allotted tries.

Candidates aspiring to positions on (Continued from Page 1) their respective class fives were sent (Continued from Page 1) through preliminary drills at the for slugs. No doubt some of more through preliminary drills at the for slugs of such an institution. The abundant in that sector of the ab-domen which houses their victuals, nothing and now owns a bank full the players displayed signs of mid- of it. Bingos and bank nights at season form

Murphy, senior lights and heavies, respectively.

"Slip" Barnini, of "we can't miss" fame, is imbucing his charges with that "never say die" spirit. This year "Slip" has a fighting group of performers among when are sumhered the slow inmiss whom are numbered the slow, immovable type, who shake the Fair-banks around the 200 mark, and another combination which possess-es an abundance of speed and deception. Because of the prevailing setup, Barnini will introduce a little gridiron strategy in his court proceedings. The former quintet will start all the contests and will concentrate on defense with the in-tention of softening the opposition, while the speedsters will be sent into the frays with instructions to hit the jackpot.

When asked for a statement as chances of victory, Barnini refused to comment, referring your correspondent to the team ager, Ernie Dupre.

Striking a high note of optimism, Dupre said, "After walking through our schedule, we expect an invi-tation to the Weed Bowl, somewhere in Iceland.

The junior heavies, who last year past carried the sophomore banner to the ers in their division. The present juniors, who placed four men on the all-league teams last year, have a wellrounded quintet which comprises fine ball handlers, accurate shooters and the physical assets, speed and height, The third year men will probably open the campaign with Jim Clifford and "Sonny" Terrace at the for-wards; ambling Amby Reynolds, center, and George Sarris and Rudy Zebora, guards.

The senior lights are expected to be up near the leaders in the light weight division. The group, which won the pennant last year as men bers of the junior five, includes Bill Riley, Joe Lacey, and Tom Fitzpat-rick, all Intramural performers, and George Carroll, Jake Edmonds and Joe Lennon.

Nickelodeon

Although short on wind and president of such an institution. The e players displayed signs of mid-ason form. diffus at the local theatres will certainly The mentors who will hold sway flourish under this system. When we The mentors who will hold sway flourish under the second this season are "Slip" Barnini and Beryl Sacks, freshman lights and to get the winnings home. Or we heavies, respectively; Jim Leo, sophomore down the wheelbarrow and help heavies; Paul Sweeney, junior far in its popularity as to have a lights; and Harry Speckman and Bill city named after it—Slugville or Murphy, senior lights and heavies. Slugtown. The uneducated would probably think it was a city where lived only prizefighters. The modern utopia is being born in the Providence College cafeteria. Woe to the day that such a practice is universal. May it never come while we live on this earth. bad as it is. May the Almighty take in hand the straying children and lead them once more to the straight and narrow path.

scholastic averages of Lafay the scholastic averages of Lang-ette College students who come from public schools are higher than of those who come from private schools.

Beloit College has abolished mid-

Athletic Board Retains Entire Coaching Staff

Devore, Crotty and Quirk Reappointed as Varsity Head Coaches

Renewal of the contracts of the Providence College athletic coaches was approved by the athletic council semi-annual meeting on Nov 28, it was announced last Tuesday by the Very Rev. John J. Dillon, O. P. president of the college.

The reappointments inclu Football Coach Hugh J. Devore include West Orange, N. J.; Edward J. Crotty of Danbury, Conn., basket-ball coach, and Dr. Arthur L. Quirk of Providence, baseball mentor. Joseph A. Dulkie of Lowell, Mass., Anthony G. Pariseau of Attleboro, Mass., and Crotty will continue assistants to Devore.

Devore, captain of the Notre Dan grid team in 1933 and an assistant Jim Crowley for three years at Fordham, was appointed head coach in January 1938 on a two-year con-tract with an option for the third

Crotty came to Providence College as assistant to Devore shortly after the head grid mentor's appointment and last year was appointed head basketball coach. Dulkie also joined basketball coach. Dunkie also joined the football staff in 1938, and Pariseau, captain of the Friar eleven last year, was made freshman coach start of the campaign just at the

Dr. Quirk took over the position racated by John J. Egan, major league star and scout, after the latter's resignation early in 1938. Since taking over the duties, the present Friar mentor has had two successful teams.

The Rev. Edward H. Schmidt, O. ., who has been acting director of athletics during the illness of the Rev. Robert G. Quinn, O. P., Friar athletic director, will continue in charge of the department until Father Quinn's return. Father Quinn is recuperat-ing at the home of his parents in Boston following a six-weeks illness.

Frosh Hoopsters Continue Practice

The Providence College freshman hoopsters have been going through their paces under the direction of Head Coach Ed Crotty during the past two weeks. Thus far the can-didates have performed well in their preparatory drills and have shown signs of developing into a fine aggre gation.

Leading in the quest for first string Leading in the quest for first string positions are Frank Mahoney of New York City: Ed Duges, Jackson Heights, N. Y.; Bob Reilly of Brook-lyn, N. Y.; Chet Zubek of Adams, Mass., and Ed Roth of New Haver

The remaining candidates include Ed Budnowski, Ben Audnick, Bill Kowowski, Joe Karshner, Bill Lee Johnny Dunn, Ed Zenobia and Ed Sternis

Benny Sudnik, a member of the 1938 Central Falls high five was runner-up to Pawtucket high for the state championship, is also mak-ing a strong bid for a starting berth

Testimonial Dinner Tendered Student Who Won Degree Despite Illness

Praise and Commendation From Professors

August W. Ricci, '39, who fought undaunted through an attack of in-testinal tuberculosis and continued to testinal tuberculosis and continued to study for his Ph.B. degree even while recuperating in a state sani-torium at Wallum Lake, was hon-ored by his former professors at a testimonial dinner in his honor Charles street restaurant last Tuesday evening.

The principal speakers of the evening were the Rev. Dominic L. Ross, O. P., professor of French, and the Rev. Jeremiah T. Fitzgerald, O. P.,

Rev. Jeremian T. Fitzgeraia, O. P., vice president of Providence College. Entering P. C. in 1934, Ricci had completed three and a half of his four year course when he was stricken with the malady in the middle of his senior year. Sent to Gay lord Farms in Connecticut to recu Sent to Gayperate, Ricci seemed on the road to recovery but suffered a relapse when he returned home.

During his recuperation at Wal-lum Lake, Ricci was tutored by the Rev. Paul C. Perrotta, O. P., pro-fessor of philosophy. After he passed his oral examination, the Very Reverend John J. Dillon, president of the college, presented him with his degree

This psychological lift seemed to This psychological lift seemed to The committee in charge is made have a beneficial effect on Ricci and up of George Terrace, '41, chairman; his health soon improved. Last sum-Albert Carnevale, '42, John Flynn, mer he went to Boston where, after '42, James Clifford, '41, and John a new diagnosis was made, he was of the committee are Matthew operated upon and a section of his Reynolds, '41. Ex Officio members intestine removed. He returned Malencyck, '40, Frank Flanagan, '41, home after the operation and rap-vice president, Joseph Reynolds, '41, August W. Ricci, '39, Receives idly gained his former health and Praise and Commendation weight.

With the determination shown in this trying period of his life, Ricci can be well expected to follow his career, which is teaching, with great success.

Honor Society

(Continued from Page 1) Chandler at the Boston meeting, is a of the national executive member committee, the governing body of the DES

The name DELTA EPSILON SIGMA was selected as representing the first letters of the Greek "Dei Epitattein Sophon," quoted from Aristotle by St. Thomas Aquinas in Aristote by St. Inomas Aquinas in the latter's "Summa Contra Gen-tiles." The Latin translation, "Sapientis est ordinare," will be the motto of the society.

DANCE PLANS COMPLETED BY NEW HAVEN CLUB

Plans for a dance to be held Dec. 27 at the Baybrook Inn, West Haven, Connecticut, by the New Haven Club, are completed, it was announced by Matthew Malenczyk, '40, president of the club.

The committee in charge is made

College Quarterly Marks 20th Year

(Continued from Page 1)

Art of Worry," an essay by Thomas J. O'Rielly, '35, from the issue of December 1932, and "World Beyond," a narrative by Charles E. Sweeney, '41, from the issue of May, 1938. Owenny, '41, from the issue of May, 1938. Owenny, 1938. Short story will represent the cur-rent staff: "Dance of the Years," by John T. Hayes, '40.

Founded 1920

The Alembic, instituted in Decem-ber 1920, as established, according to ber 1920, as established, according to an editorial appearing in a subse-quent issue, "to give the budding lit-erary genius an opportunity to ex-press his thoughts and see how it all looked when set in cold, cruel type." Undergoing a series of changes dur-ing the first fifteen years of its life with regards to editorial policy format and literary content, the Alembic as both literary review Alembic as both ilterary review and newspaper for Providence College students. With the founding of the Cowl, student newspaper, in 1935, the Alembic emerged as a purely lit-erary publication, no longer obliged to carry campus news as well as stu-dent literary contributions-

Since this date, the Alembic, free to pursue its original plan to include only such matter as had direct lit-erary interest, dropped its policy of covering student social, scholastic, and athletic activities. Again the format underwent a decided change, the Providence College colors of the secretary, and Charles Conlon, '40, trene

As in previous years, the commit-tee extends an invitation to the student body.

Literary Clinic

A notable addition to the Alembic's A notable addition to the Alembic's curriculum was the establishment two years ago of the Literary Clinic, a group composed of Alembic staff members who criticize aspiring writers' contributions and whose principal aim is to give constructive suggestions to all prospective writers. A protocommunication of the Alexandree Another innovation in the Alem-bic's activities has been the conducting g of a special course in the chnique of magazine editing given by staff members. The first of these lectures was given Tuesday with an-other to be given this afternoon. Students interested in the technical as well as the literary aspects of publishing a literary magazine attend the black and white being adopted for the cover design suggested by James E. MacDonald, B. A. I. D., late of the college drawing department. The Alembic has pursued the path out-lined for it by its founders since that date with only minor changes in ap-progress which it has been making pearance. "The Alembic has grown with the college and will, we all hope, con-tinue to expand and grow with the School of Dentistry

The University of Buffalo

A four year curriculum completed in three calendar years, by means of the quarter plan. (Four quarters of eleven weeks each to the school year.)

The dental and medical schools are closely affiliated, instruction in the basic medical sciences being under the supervision of the medical faculty. Clinical practice of dentistry, in all its varied aspect, is super-vised by the dental division, and there is an intimate association with the clinics of several hospitals. Periods of internship in two general and one children's hospital during the senior year, offering unusual experience in clinical observation, diagnosis, and treatment of dental conditions.

Next regular session will start the first week in July, 1940. For further information address

THE SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY 25 Goodrich Street Buffalo, New York

(ADVERTISEMENT)

D

al Mildnes BETTER TASTE

IS CHESTERFIELD'S RIGHT COMBINATION

GARETTES

TERFIELD

THEY REALLY SATISFY

of the world's best cigarette tobaccos

When you ask for Chesterfields you're buying something no other cigarette can give you at any price . . . the RIGHT COMBINATION of the world's best cigarette tobaccos. All over America millions of smokers find that Chesterfields give them a cooler, better-tasting and definitely milder smoke.

"Any All-American Selection," says GRANTLAND RICE, says ORCE right combination to five top performance all the time." That's just what Chesterfield with that's just what Consterned with its milder better taste does . . gives more smoking pleasure in each and every one smoked.

Make your next pack