Antipodes, the official journal of the American Association of Australian Literary Studies, is published by the Association twice a year, June and December.

- Essays on any aspect of Australian literature and/or culture are invited; comparative studies are especially encouraged. The essays should not exceed 5000 words and should conform to MLA style.
- Submissions of short fiction, parts of novels, drama and poetry by Australian writers are invited.
- All U.S. submissions should be accompanied by a return, stamped envelope. International postage coupons are requested in order to return overseas mail.
- Antipodes publishes only fiction, poetry, articles, and interviews that have not appeared in other publications. All material is subject to editing to conform with Antipodes' style. Antipodes does not accept submissions by fax or email.
- The editors and publishers of Antipodes assume no responsibility for contributor's opinions.
- Antipodes is indexed in the annual MLA International Bibliography and AustLit Gateway (www.austlit.edu.au).
- Copyright of fiction and poetry lies with the authors. Permission to reprint critical material must be obtained from Antipodes, and full credit given.
