Interview questions for student program coordinator positions at the GLBT Center

Why are you applying for this position?

What do you hope to accomplish as a program coordinator at the GLBT Center?

What qualifications, skills, or strengths do you have that will be most useful in this position with the GLBT Center?

If I ask your friends and family what your biggest weakness is, what would they say?

What do you do to increase your awareness of diverse perspectives and cultures in the GLBTIQQ community?

How would you approach an interpersonal conflict with a coworker or a student who regularly attends Center programs?

How would you go about increasing participation from students in Center programming?

Do you have any questions?

What do you think are important issues impacting GLBT students at the University of Rhode Island?
