Dear John:

In response to your letter of May 20, we are of course delighted that President Bush has nominate two APSA members for terms on the National Council on the Humanities.

Michael J. Malbin and Harvey C. Mansfield, Jr. are well known to the profession and certainly are qualified to be members of the Humanities Council. Michael Malbin is a distinguished analyst of legislative behavior; and Harvey Mansfield, Jr. is very accomplished scholar in the field of political theory. Both have records of distinguished service and scholarship; both will be able to discharge the responsibilities of a Council member with intellectual rigor and good judgment.

If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Rob
