and Humanities
Committee on Labor and Human Resources
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for your letter of February 11, 1980, on behalf of Providence College/Inti, which has applied to the National Endowment for the Arts for assistance under the Assistance to Literary Magazines category of the Literature Program.

We certainly appreciate receiving your very supportive comments on behalf of Inti's proposal. Their application was considered by the Literature Advisory Panel in January. The Panel's recommendations will be brought before the May meeting of the National Council on the Arts, and Inti will be notified of the decision reached on their request as soon as possible following the Council meeting.

You may be assured that their application is receiving our best attention.

Sincerely,

Livingston Biddle

Dear Senator Pell,

I would like to thank you very much for your recent letter to Dr. Thomson expressing your interest and support for INTI.

Enclosed is a copy of our Hispanic and Luso-Brazilian Literary and Cultural Journal that was just completed at Providence College.

In Quechua, the language of the ancient Inca civilization of Peru and Bolivia, "Inti" means "Sun", it was their "Sun God".

With sincere warm regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
