Dear Senator Pell:

Thank you very much for your recent letter to the President highly recommending Charles E. Reid for appointment to the National Commission on Libraries and Information Science.

The President is pleased that so many qualified individuals want to work in his Administration. We sincerely appreciate your contacting us and offering your personal endorsement on behalf of Mr. Reid. I have shared your letter with the Office of Presidential Personnel for careful consideration.

Thank you again for your interest.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Fred McClure". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, prominent "F" and "M".

Frederick D. McClure
Assistant to the President for Legislative Affairs
