New Library Added To Bryant Campus

Winners of Memorial Awards Announced Today

Book Collection Expected To Reach 10,000 Volumes

Another part of the gigantic expansion program that the college has undertaken over the past two years has become a reality. The latest addition to make its debut is the Henry L. Jacobs Library Building.

This beautiful two-story edifice at 88 Benevolent Street, between Hope and Brook Streets, has four large classrooms, a teacher's lounge, and a spacious library. The walls and ceilings are painted in soft pastel hues with blonde woodwork completing the decorative scheme throughout the building.

The classrooms were put to immediate use at the beginning of this semester, but the mountainous job of cataloging and shelving all the new books purchased will necessitate a delay in the formal opening of the library. However, once the shelves have been adequately stocked, the doors will swing open for business between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. daily, and 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 a.m. on Saturday.

The library will be headed by Miss Dorothy E. Keith of Fall River. She is a graduate of Simmons College Library School, and a member of the Massachusetts Library Association.

A collection of business literature and reference material totaling approximately 3,000 volumes will be shelved by opening date, and will be available for distribution to all students—without charge—upon application. One complete section of the library will be devoted to reference books on all phases of Business, Commerce, and Industry, but owing to student demands, these books will remain in the library at all times.

While the college will make annual appropriations to the library fund, initial contributions for the purchase of books were received from the Student Senate Library Fund . . . $2200; Bryant College Board of Trustees . . . $5000; and from appropriated college funds.

Faculty members will make donations from their private collection from time to time, and student organizations desiring to contribute books or magazine subscriptions are asked to contact the college secretary in the Administration building. Each book purchased from library funds, or donated by individuals or groups will bear a "book marker" listing the donor's name and/or organization.

The ultimate stock of books available to students, exclusive of reference material, will be 10,000 volumes costing approximately $40,000.

In reply to administration requests, the heads of all departments have submitted lists of helpful reference material which should be included among the books, and every source of supply will be canvassed to procure them.

The library will serve two primary purposes: (1) To serve you, the student, and (2) to serve as a stepping stone toward a goal of future creditation.

Graduate Record Examinations Will Be Administered at Four Nationwide Sessions During 1955-56

PRINCETON, N. J.—The Graduate Record Examinations, required of applicants for admission to a number of graduate schools, will be administered at examination centers throughout the country four times in the coming year, Educational Testing Service has announced. During 1954-55 more than 9,000 students took the GRE in partial fulfillment of admission requirements of graduate schools which prescribed it.

This fall candidates may take the GRE on Saturday, November 19. In 1956, the dates are January 21, April 28, and July 7. ETS advises each applicant to inquire of the graduate school of his choice which of the examinations he should take and on which dates. Applicants for graduate school fellowships should ordinarily take the designated examinations in the fall administration.

The GRE tests offered in these nationwide programs include a test of general scholastic ability and advanced level tests of achievement in sixteen different subject matter fields. According to ETS, candidates are permitted to take the Aptitude Test and/or one of the Advanced Tests.

Application forms and a Bulletin of Information, which provides details of registration and administration as well as sample questions, may be obtained from college advisers or directly from Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, N. J., or P. O. Box 27896, Los Angeles 27, California. A completed application must reach the ETS office at least fifteen days before the date of the administration for which the candidate is applying.

Harriet E. Jacobs Memorial Awards

The Harriet E. Jacobs Memorial Award, the income from a fund of $25,000 given by Dr. Henry L. Jacobs, President of Bryant College, in memory of his late wife, to a member of the Executive Secretarial Junior Class who throughout her freshman and sophomore semester maintained a high scholastic record and who is a person of excellent character in need of financial assistance is announced by the college.

The candidates for this award are recommended to the Committee on Scholarship Aid by the Dean of the School of Executive Secretarial Training in co-operation with the members of the faculty of the School.

This year's recipients of $150 awards are:

Ruby A. Johnson
Augusta Ann Schelter
Maureen Boyle
Vivian Franks
Dorothy Jenkins

Congratulations!

President Receives Freshmen At Informal Tea

Doctor and Mrs. Henry L. Jacobs entertained at an informal reception for all incoming freshmen on Tuesday afternoon, September 13, from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the college auditorium.

President Jacobs was presented to the guests by Donald Slate, president of the Student Senate.

During the reception, President Jacobs stated he "hoped the students would feel free to go to their instructors concerning their problems at all times, also, to remember that friendship is a two-way street."

Among those attending, in addition to the freshmen, were members of the faculty and administration; the Vigilantes who acted as hosts; and parents of the freshmen.

Refreshments were served under the direction of Mr. Falcione, Food Manager for the College. Delightful dance music was furnished by Ed Drew and his orchestra immediately following the reception.

Dr. and Mrs. Jacobs greet freshman at President's reception.

Delta Omega Announces Fall Semester Program

The program for this semester of the Delta Omega Society is as follows:

3 dinner-speaker meetings:
Tuesday, Oct. 25, 1955
Tuesday, Nov. 22, 1955
Tuesday, Jan. 17, 1956

These meetings will feature after-dinner speakers. These speakers will speak on subjects of interest to business to students who will be entering the business field. The topics include: Human Relations, Opportunities in Business, and other topics deemed of interest to the members.

On Oct. 6, at 7 P.M. the Society will hold a reception for all people interested in joining the society. There will be coffee and doughnuts, preceded by a short talk explaining the operation and aims of the society. Although freshmen are not eligible to join the society this semester, they are welcome at this reception to learn about the society and the requirements for joining the society in future semesters.

Frosh Dance Held

Dancing under the stars was one of the featured attractions at the annual freshmen dance. The dance signaled the beginning of the social program that was planned by the Administration for the Frosh.

Music was provided by Tommy Masso and his fine orchestra. The setting of the dance—under the beautiful maples which were gayly decorated with many brilliant Japanese lanterns — was a picture which brought back Frosh memories to many of the upperclassmen who were in attendance. The Frosh all voiced their approval of the good music and the good time that was planned solely in their behalf.

The committee in charge of the Frosh program is to be commended for a job well done.

WELCOME

This being the first issue of the ARCHWAY this semester, I should like to extend a warm "Welcome Home" to all Bryantites, and an especially warm and hearty "Welcome" to the newest members of our family, the Freshmen.

Now that Freshman Week is over we can all relax and settle down to the serious business of school. The obvious rule of success is a good start and steady progress. So, Freshmen, now that you've had your fun why not get down to the serious business of studying—the business you're here for. Don't let time catch up on you and find you still with too many things left to do.

Recall the fable of the hare and the tortoise, and you will see that persistent plodding oftentimes wins out over intermittent spurts of speed.

This goes for you, too, upper classmen. Remember last semester and try to improve upon it this semester.

Good luck, Frosh. May your days at Bryant be happy and memorable ones.

E. S.

Veterans Corner

By FRANK RONDO

This is the first in a series of articles designed to inform Bryant veterans of all benefits and information released by the Veterans Administration.

Veterans of the Korean conflict who lost their WWI or WWII G.I. term insurance because their policies expired within 120 days after their discharge may now apply for replacement of that term insurance under a new law. The new act is Public Law 194, 84th Congress.

Under this act, veterans whose G. I. term insurance expires after April 25, 1951, whether while they are in active service or within 120 days after discharge may replace such insurance within 120 days after discharge or within 120 days after July 29, 1955, whichever is later. They must file application, meet good health requirements and pay the premium at their attained age in order to qualify. Previously, only those G. I. term policies that expired while the policyholders were in active service after April 25, 1951, could be replaced within 120 days after discharge.

No provision was made for the replacement of term policies that expired within the 120 day period after discharge. The new law adds the latter period for replacement. In addition, the new law grants another opportunity in which to apply for replacement to those persons whose term policies expired while they were in active service after April 25, 1951, but who failed to apply for replacement within 120 days after July 29, 1955.

Detailed information may be obtained from any VA office or by writing to the District Office where the veterans' insurance records are maintained.

A new law which grants waiver of GI insurance premiums to those servicemen of the Korean conflict who could not apply for waiver during a certain period of the conflict because they were prisoners of war or in a missing status, is now in effect. John L. Reavy, manager of the Providence VA Regional Office, said the act is Public Law 193, 84th Congress.

Under the previous law, veterans with World War I or II GI Insurance who were in active service after April 25, 1951, were required to apply in writing for waiver of premiums if they wished to retain their insurance at no cost or at reduced cost. Some policyholders in service after April 25, 1951, were prevented from making written application for waiver because they were missing or prisoners of war.

For term policies covered by law, the retroactive waiver is automatic and the entire premium is waived. For permanent plans of insurance covered by the law, such as ordinary life, 20-pay life, 30-pay life, and the endowment policies, only the pure insurance risk portion of the premiums may be waived. However, this waiver is not automatic. Eligible permanent plan policy holders are required to file application for it within 120 days after July 29, 1955 or within 120 days after their return to military jurisdiction, whichever is later.

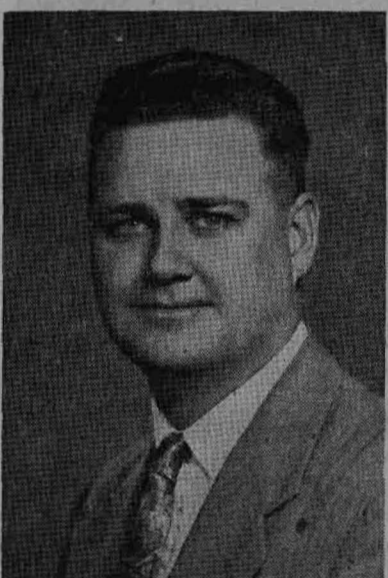

If any veteran has any personal question that he wishes information on, please put the question in writing and put it in the ARCHWAY mail box in the bookstore.

New Teachers Join Faculty

Because of increased enrollment, twelve new members have been appointed to the Bryant faculty. The new faculty members are:

Ralph C. Taylor, a native of Minnesota, has been named assistant professor of English. He was graduated from Phillips-Exeter Academy and Brown University with a Ph. B.; while at Brown he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Professor Taylor also attended the Boston University School of Education, the New Paltz State Teachers College, and the University of Massachusetts. In addition to seven years of business experience in advertising and sales promotion, he was superintendent of the Colorado Military Academy, head of the English Department at the U. S. Military Academy Prep School, and assistant professor of English at Norwich University. He is also the co-founder of the R. I. League for Creative Writing.

Abram V. Honan of New York City has been named instructor in Economics and Finance. Mr. Honan is a graduate of Hofstra College, where he received both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Business Administration. He is also a graduate of the American Institute of Banking, and has had fifteen years of executive experience in commercial banking in New York State.

Students Desire More Exams

Edmond, Okla.—(I.P.)—A survey taken among approximately 300 Central State College students concerning examinations, teachers, absences, and various other questions confronting students here, by a faculty study committee, reveals the following facts:

Seventy per cent of those questioned thought that at least 3 to 9 tests should be given during a semester before a semester grade was given. Fifty-seven per cent thought that from 4 to 9 or even more tests should be averaged together to estimate a final grade. Sixty-nine students thought that "pop" quizzes should be given while 272 disagreed.

Two hundred and eighteen students considered true-false tests were not adequate type tests to measure the knowledge of a subject, yet 69 students thought they were quite adequate. One hundred and ninety-one students felt that tests frequently given had been written for past classes rather than for the current semester, while one hundred and thirty-six students stated that all tests appeared to be current.

Some of the suggestions offered by students were that all true-false questions be eliminated because they were sometimes presented in a tricky manner; study sheets should be given stating the material a test will cover; tests should be given frequently so the students will become familiar with the type of test the teacher gives and will have a better understanding of what to study.

Many students stated that they have the tendency of putting their studies off until the last minute and if only one test is given, this can be very harmful to a student's grade. The survey seemed to reveal that if the instructors would give more tests the students would study for each individual test and thus keep his studies up-to-date.

Frederick J. Gaucher of Woonsocket, R. I., a graduate of La Salle Academy and Providence College, will teach accounting. Mr. Gaucher earned his Master's Degree in Business Education at Boston University.

Mrs. William R. Drugen, of Wakefield, Massachusetts, a graduate of Boston University, has joined the faculty as an instructor in English.

Robert A. Paul, another graduate of Bryant College will be an instructor in accounting. While at Bryant he was president of his fraternity, Beta Sigma Chi, and graduated with honors. Mr. Paul did his graduate study at the University of Ontario.

Richard A. Bruno of Somerville, Massachusetts, has been named instructor in accounting. Mr. Bruno received both his Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Business Administration at Boston University. He comes to Bryant after several years in the accounting field.

Donald P. Ryan, a native of Ottawa, Canada, now practicing law in Providence, will teach business law. He is a graduate of Boston University and Boston University Law School where he was a member of the Law Review.

Miss Eleanor Fayerweather has been named instructor in the Retailing Department. Miss Fayerweather, a member of the faculty of the R. I. School of Design, will teach "Fashion in Apparel." A graduate of the Massachusetts School of Art, she was head of the Art Department of Choate, art supervisor of Hingham schools, and an instructor in adult education at the Brooklyn Museum in New York City.

David M. Espey, Jr. of Bayonne, New Jersey, has been named instructor in Accounting and Economics. He is a graduate of the New Jersey State Teachers College and received his Master's Degree in Business Administration at Seton Hall University. Mr. Espey served as an executive in the accounting field before coming to Bryant.

Clarissa M. Hayfield of North Scituate, R. I., has been appointed instructor in the school of secretarial science. She is a graduate of the teacher-training school of Bryant College, and received her Master's Degree in Business Education at Columbia University.

Richard A. Bruno of Somerville, Massachusetts, has been named instructor in accounting. Mr. Bruno received both his Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Business Administration at Boston University. He comes to Bryant after several years in the accounting field.

Administration Notes

ELIGIBILITY TO HOLD OFFICE

I wish to call your attention to the following ruling of the Administration:

"A student on probation is not eligible for appointment or election to any office in any student organization. If a student is placed on probation after being appointed or elected to any office, he may be required to resign by the Dean of the department."

"A student on probation may not take a part in an extracurricular activity without written permission from the Dean of the department. He is also subject to the academic rules pertaining to probation in the department in which he is enrolled."

It is suggested that you incorporate the above in your bylaws. The above regulations do not apply to participation as a player in intramural sports.

USE OF BARN STUDIO

The Barn Studio is open for afternoon or evening meetings to all student organizations on campus. To avoid conflicting engagements it is required that you schedule your meetings through Miss Mary Henry on the second floor of the Administration Building not later than Friday noon of the week previous to your engagement. It will then be posted with the regular bulletin notice for the week.

Greek Letter Council Sponsors Dance

A dance sponsored by the Greek Letter Council to raise money for the neighborhood children's Christmas Party was held Saturday, September 17, in the Auditorium. Music was supplied by the "Manny" Allen Quartet.

The gifts purchased from the net proceeds realized of $140 will make the little ones beam with elation when the Yuletide season approaches.

The new officers of the council for this semester are Martin L. Bernstein, President; Matt D'Antunano, Vice-president; and Marsha Glickman, Secretary-Treasurer.

Sports Whirl

By JACK HALL

Among the intramural sports programs offered here at Bryant are the bowling leagues. There are two leagues: one for girls and one for men. The girls bowl on Tuesday afternoons at 3:00 at the Casino Recreation Alleys on Pine Street in Providence. The men bowl on Wednesdays at the same time and place.

Each fraternity and sorority has a team and any independent teams would be welcome. Any interested independent group should contact either Joe Trepani, the Student Athletic Director, or myself as soon as possible. Each team must submit a roster which is limited to ten names, and $10.00 as a fee to be returned at the end of the season, unless team violates a league ruling.

The members of the winning team in each league are awarded trophies presented by the college. Trophies donated by the proprietor of the bowling alleys are awarded to the outstanding bowlers in both leagues.

Although the bowling alleys are in the heart of the city, parking does not pose a problem. There is a parking lot next door, where the bowlers are allowed to park free of charge.

The season will start the first week of October for both leagues. Everyone is looking forward to another successful season.

See you there!

Society Sketches Chi Gamma Iota

Chi Gamma Iota fraternity was founded on September 10, 1945, by Mr. Adrean Herklots and Professor Walter D. Harris primarily for veteran students attending Bryant.

On February 18, 1948, Chi Gamma was granted its charter as a social fraternity by the State of Rhode Island. It was decided then that the official fraternity colors were to be grey and maroon.

Since 1945, the membership enrollment has steadily increased with veteran and non-veteran members until today their alumni roll totals approximately 300 brothers. Today's "On Campus" membership roll numbers 45 brothers.

With the continual increase in membership, additional advisers were needed to assist Professor Harris. The brothers unanimously selected Dean Elmer C. Wilbur, Professor Warren Babcock, and Professor Earle H. Messer.

Chi Gamma recently celebrated its 10th birthday at a gigantic Birthday Ball at the Elk's Auditorium in downtown Providence. Music for this successful event was supplied by the Manny Allen Quartet. The ball was the unofficial start of the social season for the year at Bryant.

Phi Upsilon

Phi Upsilon, sister sorority to Chi Gamma Iota fraternity, was officially proclaimed a sorority of Bryant College on April 4, 1951.

Although Phi U is the youngest sorority on the Bryant Campus its achievement record is one that the sisters can take great pride in. During the past four years, Phi U has been active in many worthwhile charitable projects and has an outstanding record for their annual social functions.

Phi Upsilon holds the distinction of having three of its sisters acclaimed Campus Queens in the past two years.

The sorority colors are pearl gray and forest green, and the sisters have chosen the camellia as their flower.

The progress of Phi U, has been outstanding on the school campus during its short existence and we hope their steady progress is only a beginning for greater things to come.

NEXT WEEK: Phi Sigma Nu and Sigma Iota Chi.

"Office Management" Magazine Publishes Two Articles by Bryant College English Professor

Last June, this magazine, which has national circulation in business and business education circles, published "Emphasis—A Key to Thought and Action". Sometime this winter, publication date to be announced, they will publish "Attention Letter Writers." Both of these articles were authored by Professor Louise Halsted Cronk, and both were originally presented as radio talks on Station WPRO's "Bryant's View" Series.

Enrollment Begins in Evening Division

Registration for Evening Division Classes began Monday, September 26, South Hall, I Young Orchard Avenue. Fifty-five courses in business are offered this term to adults seeking to further their business education by evening study. The evening curriculum includes courses in Accounting and Mathematics, English, Business Economics, Business Law, Management, Marketing, Psychology, Sales and Advertising, Transportation, Shorthand, Office Practice, and Typewriting. Bachelor's degrees, diplomas and certificates may be earned in the Evening Division at Bryant College. The faculty, with few exceptions, is the same as that of the day school.

Sports Program Underway

By LARRY DELAHUNTY

The Bryant Athletic Field on Pitman Street will be open on Saturdays (beginning Sept. 17) from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on weekdays as follows: Mon., Wed., Fri. from 3:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.; Tues. and Thurs. from 3 to 6 p.m. In charge is Ken Cedergren who lives at 95 Benevolent Street—Telephone MAnning 1-5116.

All Bryant students may use the facilities available. There is a badminton court and horseshoe pitch. The field is big enough for two touch football games at a time and footballs will be available on Monday, Sept. 19, in the field-house. A volleyball court is under consideration.

Basketball

Beginning Monday, Sept. 19, the Bryant gym will be open for basketball practice during the afternoons except on Wednesdays. Teams which want to practice as a unit will have to make definite reservations with Coach Joe Trepani through Miss Mary Henry in the Administration Building (second floor). Individuals may practice in the gym provided there are no scheduled reservations which interfere. Note: Team reservations must be made a week in advance.

Schedules of matches between independent teams and also for inter-fraternity and inter-sorority matches are now being made up for the basketball season and will be posted on the bulletin boards as soon as all interested players have signed up. The winners will receive trophies.

Bowling

The bowling season will get underway at the Casino Bowling Alleys about the first week in October. Organization meetings are being held for all those interested. Watch the bulletin boards for notices. There will be organized matches between independent teams and for inter-fraternity and inter-sorority bouts. The winners will receive trophies.

Tennis

The FALL TENNIS TOURNAMENT MATCHES will be posted on the bulletin boards so that all desiring to compete may sign their names. Games will be played at the convenience of the competitors but all matches must be over by a definite date which will be posted.

Vigilantes Whip Frosh in Softball Game

Heavy slugging by "Ozzie" Van Patten, Barry Fellman, and Jack Hall, combined with the incapability of four poor-sighted umpires enabled the Vigilantes to emerge victorious in the Annual Freshman-Vigilante Softball game at the Bryant College Athletic Field last Friday.

The Freshman squad, not to be denied a victory, fought a heroic and gallant battle. But, because they did not possess the physical prowess of the Dodgers, nor the "luck" of the Yankees, they went down to defeat.

The game did uncover some hitherto un-noticed and un-realized ability in Dick Gayer—a member of the Freshman squad. If Bryant were to field a track team, Dick would be our nominee for the relays. The ability he showed in running the base paths and the ability to elude the tags of the entire on-rushing Vigilante squad in a rundown would surely bring track and field honors to Bryant.

Gayer's sparkling play was typical of the entire freshman team, but unfortunately these sparks did not burst into a roaring flame of clutch hitting.

As a consequence for the defeat, their "liberation" deadline was extended to Saturday when they were officially "un-capped" at the traditional Liberation Dance.

The Record Roundup

By GUS DICOMITIS

"Hot off the press" is a delightful way of telling you that the musical world is really going "full speed ahead" to bring you the very best in recorded music . . . Our purpose is to let you in on "What's happening" and "What's the best in listening pleasure." . . . First of all, during the past few weeks, Columbia has brought back the velvet touch of Benny Goodman, in two albums entitled "The Goodman Touch" and "B. G. in Hi-Fi". (B. G. is a musician who never forgets and refuses to grow old.) The best that the swinging groups of the Goodman trio, combo and quartet, have recorded are presented for your listening pleasure. Heard with Benny on these funny, but fine tunes, are some of the best side-men in the business. Jimmy Rowles, piano; Tom Remersa, drums; Harry Babasin, bass; Teddy Wilson, piano; Jim Crawford, drums; Ernie Felice, accordion; Jake Porter, trumpet; Red Norvo, vibes; and many, many, names that are now a part of musical history.

The Goodman touch is a tasty treat . . . a sprightly seasoning that accents musical delight . . . and the special flavor that it gives to jazz is a basic ingredient in every collector's cuisine. Some of B. G.'s finest performances are in this collection, but nevertheless an appealing assortment of favorite tunes is dished up in B. G.'s truly inimitable fashion.

B. G. in Hi-Fi, means just that. For the benefit of all hi-finatics this album is one of the finest discs of old featuring recording skills that help to give a fine performance and produce a richer, fuller, sound. Try it, you'll like it . . .

Turning to another phase of music, how about the fabulous era of swing bands featuring the sax of Sam Donahue, (currently heading the Billy May outfit) and some dizzy sounds from yesteryear. Sam played with such orchestras as Tommy Dorsey, Gene Krupa, Sonny Burke and other topflight maestros of the last decade. Backing the fat Donahue horn on each of these fine waxings is an orchestra hand-picked by Sam. These sides were recorded back in 1946-47 in New York, and as such fall into the jazz classics category—such gems as: Moten Swing, Constellation, Suicide Leap, Saxa-Bogie, and Robbins' Nest. Give 'em a listen, I know you'll be back for more.

From Hollywood, the film capital of the world, Paul Weston presents "Film Music." Percy Faith and his very fine group play such catchy tunes as "The Fiddling Bullfighter" and "Land of the Pharaohs."

In the classical field, the Philadelphia Orchestra, Eugene Ormandy conducting, play "Waltzes by Waldteufel." Rhode Island's Leonard Pennario entertains on piano thru such back-breakers as "Prelude in C Sharp Minor," "Opus 3 No. 2" by Rachmanioff. The Pittsburgh Symphony under the direction of William Steinberg play the four movements of Prokofiev's "Classical Symphony, Opus 25."

Cha-cha, mambo, tango, no matter which you prefer, can be heard on any long play featuring orchestras of Belmonte, the Al Romero quintet, Chris Powell and his quintet, Perez Prado, the Granddaddy of the mambo, Tito Rodriguez and many more fine musical groups entertaining you with such tunes as Unchained Melody mambo, Ol' Man River mambo, Mr. Pogo mambo, Muskrat Ramble mambo.

Most writer's spend literally half their lives covering the jazz beat with a typewriter, but much is spent on Duke Ellington. Duke is so unique and so separate in stature that one can forget to keep open that separate pigeon-hole for him alone. It's like walking down 34th Street, admiring all the impressive buildings, and then awakening with a start to find that one has overlooked the Empire State Building. Why not give a listen to "Ellington Plays Ellington, Masterpieces by Ellington" uptown, or the liberian suit. You'll enjoy every bit of fine musical tidbits . . .

Now here's a chance for you to win a record. If you can identify the Director of the orchestra and the company which produces the album, then get in touch with me, with the right answer of course, you'll win a 45 r.p.m. record . . . here's the clues:

"We're off on a midnight sleighride with the doodletown fifiers as it's April in Paris because of Rain. But you have to sit down, relax and think along the moonlight on the ranges for hearts are young."

See what you can do? Anyone can try . . .
See you soon with more fine tunes,

GUS

"Friends, how would you like to have a hog for dinner? Just think, a large table of fine food, nice guests, and a hog! Many people have hogs for each meal. One family I know has a hog in the nursery . . . after all, you are entitled to a hog, so if you're interested in having a hog. See Bob & Fred's Surplus Store for the finest hogs. If you live out of town, send a card to: Hogs, Bob and Fred, Surplus Store or send a card to the station to which you are listening.

SUGGESTION DEPT.

ARE you in the mood to sleep?? If not, here are some suggestions: Call the neighbors and start a con-

Take our dog for a walk, or else you'll never sleep.

Walk your dog up and down the bed.

Misery loves company. Sing to the top of your voice and keep the neighbors awake.

Try leap-frog, it's good and tiring or better yet, give up the project and spend the night discussing high politics or just dogs.

I guess this wraps up a lot of nonsense for this first installment, I hope you enjoyed reading this honky tonk junk as much as I have writing it.

A final word: Welcome Joe College and Jane Coed, have a ball!!!
Sincerely,

GUS

Liberation Dance Attracts Capacity Crowd of Freshmen

At approximately 9:30 Saturday night September 24, a loud whoop of joy could be heard echoing around Bryant campus. And why not! Inside the Bryant Gym, Senate President, Don Slate, had just read to the hundreds of milling freshmen the "Emancipation Proclamation" which goes as follows:

"Be is hereby known, to all men, by these presents, that the Freshman Class of 1953, having faithfully fulfilled all their obligations, and having duly served their term as neophytes on said campus of Bryant College, and having fulfilled these obligations in the true and proper spirit of incoming Freshmen, have, by the power and official capacity which is vested in me, been liberated from all further incumbrances and duties which might be placed upon them as Freshmen. With my seal set this twenty-fourth day of the month of September, in the year of Our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-five."

Thus, the end of "Square that Beanie!" or "Thirty demerits for insubordination!" or "Report to court at 2:30!" and those "Jeepers-they're-always-around Vigilantes!" for another semester.

But although these poor, worn-out underclassmen think they can relax after this long and hearty welcome from their upper mates, they're in for a surprise. Mr. Calendar reminds us that "Help Week" and all the sorority and fraternity rush parties are peeping at us around the corner; and the Frosh will be "busier" than ever. Who said peace for the rest of the semester???
