MISS MARGARET LOUGHRAN won the New England Novice Typewriter Championship at Boston Business Show, April 14, 1919. Her average net speed being 74 words for 15 minutes. In addition to a beautiful gold medal she received a silver loving cup to be held by the school for one year.

MR. WILLIAM NAIRN took second prize, a silver medal.

Since this contest was open to thirty-five other contestants from all over New England and limited to those who had had no experience on the typewriter before September 1, 1918, the fact that both Bryant and Stratton Students were winners is a tribute to the thoroughness and efficiency of their training.

WARWICK LACE WORKS
RIVERPOINT, R. I.

March 7, 1919.

Gentlemen:

I consider your bookkeeping course a very extensive and very practical one. Your "actual business" system is thoroughly in accord with actual business. Therefore, a student upon leaving your school, has both the theory of bookkeeping and Practical experience. Because of my training I was able to take charge of the bookkeeping here, although I had never worked in any office before.

Yours truly,
LEONARD L. KERNAN.

March 19, 1919.

BRYANT & STRATTON SCHOOL,
Providence, R. I.

Gentlemen:

Upon graduation, after having spent a little less than eight months in the Commercial Department, I secured through the school my position in the Merchants National Bank of Providence. I have no hesitation in recommending your school to any young man or young woman who is desirous of securing the best to be had in a business education.

Yours very sincerely,
BURTON H. LILLIBRIDGE.

Gentlemen:

The time I have put in evenings at the Bryant & Stratton School, I feel has been well spent. Too much emphasis cannot be laid on the value of the course in Business English and Correspondence taught there. In my opinion, it is the best course I have ever taken in the same.

Respectfully yours,

WAR DEPARTMENT
EDGEWOOD ARSENAL
EDGEWOOD, MD.

February 28, 1919.

Gentlemen:

For over eight months I have held my first position, secured for me by the school at the Edgewood Arsenal and it has been due to the intensive training I received in business principles. My initial salary was $25 a week, but within a short time I rose above others, and I am now paid at the rate of $135 a month.

Very respectfully,
A. E. SILVEIRA,
Asst. Chief Clerk.

February 26, 1919.

BRYANT & STRATTON SCHOOL,
Providence, R. I.

Gentlemen:

Since entering the night school, my salary has been voluntarily tripled and I feel sure that a great deal of the credit for this is due to the training received at your school. It has given me the ability to do my present work more quickly and thoroughly, and has done much toward preparing me for the more important positions which I hope to hold in the future.

Respectfully yours,
EARL FIELDER.

O'BANNON CORPORATION
WEST BARRINGTON, R. I.

May 3, 1918.

Gentlemen:

Having attended both day and evening courses, I find that each has a particularly well balanced teaching organization. I extend my sincere thanks to the school for having placed me in my present position, which is satisfactory in every manner.

Very truly yours,
J. CLIFTON ALLEN.

The fact that Bryant & Stratton training pays is evidenced in the success of its graduates

COMPLIMENTS

From everywhere come expressions of good will from graduates and students who are succeeding in the Business World

ATTLEBORO, MASS.

Thanks to the thorough business training received at your school, I am able to fill, successfully, the very satisfactory position acquired through your Bureau.

BESSIE R. HOFMANN.

WESTERLY, R. I.

I shall gladly recommend your school as being thoroughly up-to-date in its methods.

CARROLL W. HOXIE.

EUGENE DUTEUPLE

HOWARD, R. I.

I think that your school is all that it is said to be, and even more.

EUGENE DESSERT.

PLYMOUTH, MASS.

After being away for nearly a year, I returned to apply for a position. I received a good one with satisfactory salary the same day I made my application.

FRANK C. DUNLAP.

EXETER, R. I.

At times, I am left in full charge of the office and find no trouble in keeping things going smoothly. All of this is due to the energetic efforts of your teachers in preparing students for responsibilities.

EUGENE C. DUTEUPLE.

THORNTON, R. I.

Having completed the combined course, I feel quite certain that the advice I received when I first entered the school has helped me to success.

IDA L. GOLINE.

ETHEL HAINSWORTH

BOSTON, MASS.

Your training has thoroughly fitted me for the position I now hold.

JOHN F. MURPHY.

WEST BARRINGTON, R. I.

I thank you for the personal interest shown me.

IRA B. TOWNEND.

APPONAUG, R. I.

My complete business education received at your school placed me on the road to success.
