

Try-outs to be Held On March 20

Try-outs for the varsity Baseball Team will begin Monday, March 20, with a meeting in the Student Activities Building at 3:00 P.M. Necessary equipment should be available because workouts will start that day.

The team has eleven lettermen returning who include captains Bill Conaty and Tony DeQuattro. Chris Bedgio, Bill Duffy, Tom Palkavsky, Gary Underwood, Tom Slowey, Kevin Leahy, Gordie Balme, Rich Page, Mikey Kistner, and Len Nicolsi round out the veterans.

Coach Wallace Camper says all positions are "up for grabs" and he expects to see many freshmen out on the diamond trying to win a spot on the club. Pitching has been the weakness of the Bryant squad for many seasons. This year we're hoping to see some freshmen who can fill the spots.

Last season Bryant managed a 7 and 5 record playing against some fine teams in New Haven and Nichols College. This season the Indians will play against local schools in RIC and Barrington College and other strong teams in Nichols and SMTI.

Coach Camper is very optimistic this season and feels that with his returning lettermen and fine freshmen prospects Bryant can have a strong season.

REMEMBER, Monday, March 20, 3 P.M.

Help Wanted!

Progress for Providence, Inc., the local antipoverty coordinating agency, wishes to extend an invitation to Bryant students interested in contributing a few hours of their time each week to a very worthy cause — the uplifting and motivation of alienated and poverty stricken children on the East Side of Providence. Assignments and supervision of College Student Volunteers is provided by the Family Caseworker in the Fox Point Neighborhood Resource Unit.

Progress for Providence staff links up socially and culturally deprived inner city neighborhood children with College Student Volunteers on a one-to-one basis. The College Student Volunteers act as role models, tutors, friends, hopefully achieving a widening of the mental and social horizon of the child assigned to them. The one-to-one relationship provides companionship and enrichment to the individual child as well as a sense of accomplishment and satisfaction to the College Student Volunteer. Each student participating as a College Student Volunteer in our program will have an opportunity to assist an individual child, to contribute to the full extent of his capabilities, and participate as a Volunteer in the War on Poverty.

It cannot be stressed how worthwhile a program this is.

Council and Bryant Students

By Paul Pietras

The World Affairs Council is a non-profit, non-partisan organization for the purpose of student and adult education in world affairs. Recently the World Affairs Council has opened a new office representing the Rhode Island area on Benevolent Street in the Bryant College faculty house. The director of this organization is Mrs. Majorie Vinal and the headquarters secretary is Mrs. J. Edwin Ring. Membership in the World Affairs Council provides a very broad student education program on world affairs, school forums with name speakers, films for assemblies, adult meetings, resource material, television programs, and weekly radio programs and group trips to the United Nations.

Being situated on the Bryant College campus, the World Affairs Council has evoked interest in several of our students. Howard Duckworth has appeared on several radio programs in which informal discussions on world affairs are presented and just last week Martin Tonnolly served as tour director for 43 Pilgrim High School students in Warwick on a World Affairs Council sponsored trip to the United Nations.

At 7:30 a.m., on Sunday, April 2 and 9 there will be an informal discussion to be presented on WJAR radio. The name of the program is appropriately entitled the World Affairs Council Program. Interviewed will be Dr. Zygnunt Nagorski who is Special Assistant to the President of the Foreign Policy Association in New York. Dr. Nagorski has had much experience in the foreign service and will discuss such issues as the C.I.A., the Western Alliance and DeGaulle. Mrs. Majorie Vinal will serve as moderator of the program and the following Bryant College students will be on the discussion panel: David Daw, Howard Duckworth, James Gibney, Chester Howard, Harry Sullivan, and Martin Tonnolly. Since world affairs play such a vital part in today's environment the program should be well worth listening to.

Volunteers are actively engaged in the prevention of juvenile delinquency by simply being a friend to a deprived youngster; by being a model that youngster can look up to and with whom he can identify. The therapy of friendship is extremely effective in changing human behavior. Someone expressed it very well when he wrote: "In the year 2000—not too many years from now—it won't matter what my bank balance was today, the kind of car I drove or what sort of house I lived in. But the world would be better because I was important in the life of a child.

Miss Bryant 1967

The Planning, Preparation, Competition, and the Crowning of the Winning Candidate

By Bob Goudreau

After many weeks of rehearsals and nervous tension, the judging of the seventh annual Miss Bryant Pageant, sponsored by Phi Sigma Nu and Sigma Iota Xi, was held last Thursday evening, March 9, in the Bryant College Auditorium. The program consisting of evening gown, bathing suit, talent, and question-and-answer competition, was analyzed by five very capable judges.

The event was avidly supported by all sponsoring fraternities and sororities, and the spirit was very enthusiastic. The candidates were as follows: Lynda Sjoblad, Kappa Tau; Gail Cunningham, Alpha Theta Chi; Dianne Malchiodi, Chi Gamma Iota; Judith Michalowski, Sigma Lambda Pi; Sandra Holmes, Alpha Omicron; Bonnie-Jean Stetson, Tau Epsilon; and Dianne Coin, Beta Iota Beta.

Finally at ten o'clock, Friday night, at the Sheraton Biltmore, Phi Sig's President, Dave Benvides, announced that the deserving winner of the title of Miss Bryant for 1967 was Lynda Sjoblad, representing Kappa Tau Fraternity.

Now, the entire student body is standing beside her and wishing her the Best of Luck in the Miss Rhode Island competition, and who knows, the Miss America for 1967 may hail from the Bryant Campus.

Statement of Platform:

It is almost inconceivable that we have now come so close to becoming Seniors and that when we return in September we of the class of 1968 will be the Senior Class. The past 3 years have passed by swiftly, but not without our class contributing its share of achievements. If elected Senior Class President, I want to:

Plan a dance our Senior year. Increase class participation in any possible way.

Compile a list of suggested improvements in the college.

Assist any senior in solving his problems in any way possible.

Plan a class picnic.

Make sure the class is properly represented in the Student Senate.

Statement of Platform:

We the candidates for the class of 1968 state our platform as follows.

This election is the most important one that will face our class in its history. The officers you elect will have to make decisions which will affect the whole class. The class gift, the prom, class day, and graduation are some of the activities that the officers will be responsible for. Therefore, you the members of the class should elect officers that are experienced in organization procedures.

The officers will also have to be goodwill ambassadors. They will be representing the entire class in various events during our graduation period. Whether the class is looked on by other people as being favorably or unfavorably organized will depend on how they conduct themselves.

We feel that we are capable of fulfilling the obligations of class officers and would appreciate your vote of confidence in us. Thank You.

Statement of Platform:
 We, the candidates seeking election for the offices of the Junior Class, state our platform as follows:

Our platform will not be one of false promise and trite statements, such as establishing class unity and class spirit, because the students are associating themselves more with the college itself because of the improvements that have been made.

The goal which we strive to obtain is a practical one. This practicality can be achieved through diligence and perseverance toward strengthening the financial situation of the Class, joining in support of movements on campus (for example, later female curfews), and communicating with the administration.

Statement of Platform:

As class representatives we pledge to make the class of 1969 the greatest class to have ever attended Bryant College. With your help and our ability, we promise you definite action on the following problems: extending the girls curfews, a fund raising campaign to replenish our depleted treasury, try to find an alternative answer to the parking problem, and set-up a system of communication between the officers and the student body through which the student body may express their ideas for a better junior class.

The brothers of K.T. want to congratulate Phi Sig and SIX for their very successful weekend. The brothers also want to thank Lynda Sjoblad for her fine representation for the fraternity.

On the sports scene K.T. won its second basketball game against AO by a score of 59-26. The fine playing of the starting five Jim Perry, Dave Greenblatt, Mike Raysor, George Lasher, and Stu Springer proved to be too strong for AO's big five. Later on in the game there was more support on the K.T. side by Dave Sgorbati, Vinny Smedes, Lenny Nicolosi, Al Palumbo, Rich Sardella, Tim Moore, Pete Tatarzewski and Stu Moscov which proved disastrous to the AO boys. The AO captain tried every man in his inventory, but it proved worthless as the score of the game showed in the end. Our illustrious coach Jack Minnehan was quite confident of a win in this game and proved this by coming to the game with his usual cigar, except it was already lit when he arrived at the game. As far as bowling goes, the team came back last week with a win of three out of four points from Beta. The team consisting of Rudy Nicoletti, Eric Marquart, Dan Coscina and Jeff Hodgdon are still confident of a winning season. The team is also assured of this confidence by its terrific back-up squad consisting of its new members Jim DeMeo and George Lasher.

The seventh annual Miss Bryant Pageant sponsored by Phi Sigma Nu and Sigma Iota Xi was a tremendous success. Congratulations to all of the candidates for doing such an excellent job in the evening gown, bathing suit, talent, and question-and-answer competition. Also, thanks to everyone who devoted his time and effort which resulted in an enjoyable and successful weekend. Most of the credit is due to Pres. Dave Bonavides and V. Pres. Bob DeCesaris for their diligent efforts to planning and coordinating the entire weekend.

Last Sunday a party was held for the recently graduated, Mike Benjamin. Almost everyone attended the occasion to show their appreciation to Mike. While Mike was a member of Phi Sig, he was voted Best

The brothers of ALPHA OMICRON would like to congratulate Robert Shapiro for receiving the award for the Best Brother of the Year. Bob — you really did a good job. (Bob, you haven't paid all the brothers who voted for you yet.) The A. O. Good Guys put on a good showing at the basketball game against K. T. At half time we were only 12 points behind, but we were still in there fighting. Good game, guys. We all want to thank Sandy Holmes for doing a great job as our candidate. We all love you, Sandy. Saturday, we had a great time at the Blue Moon Hotel. After playing three hours of thumper, everyone was in great shape — especially Stan (The game of the name is? ???) Congratulations to John Hanhauser and Vinney (OSWAUG) Osowski on their recent pinnings. Well, there go two more P.W.'s. (Todd, what were you doing in the corner with you-know-who at the Pledge Formal????) J.G. — what are we going to do with you??? Five guesses. Wayne — get your piddle yet??? Maybe next year, Sea Gull — still taking the LSD pills??? Dwight — When are you stealing the station wagon??? Bruce — how's Maida??? Gomer — Are you going thirty miles out of your way??? Jules — SIC'ER to everybody.

Chi Gam is proud to announce the names of their new brothers. They are Andy Blanchard, H. B., Frank Kohanski, Albert Guercia, Artie Morris, Jack Baker, Gary Kazangian, Jerry Campanella, and Bob Williams. These pledges made it through the hazards of pledging in fine style. After Hell Night the pledges refused an offer to go out and have a fish dinner on the frat. The brothers would like to thank Frank Kiernan for his fine job as pledgemaster. Formal initiation took place last Wednesday and a fine time at the El Morocco was had by everyone.

The brothers would like to congratulate Bruce Broadbent on his upcoming marriage to Andy Dienes. The brothers held a bachelor party for Bruce at the El Morocco supper club on Wednesday night. It turned out to be one good night which will lead to many more.

Congratulations to Dianne Malchiodi for the fine job she did in the Miss Bryant Pageant. Our best wishes go out to Charlie "Trees" Motta of his recent engagement.

Tony D'Uva, how was the floor Friday night? They say only a little dab will do ya. It's better than greasy kid stuff.

We would like to congratulate Phi Sig and SIX on doing such a fine job on Miss Bryant. Our thanks to our candidate, Dianne Coia, for doing such an outstanding job. We are all proud of you, Dianne.

SIB is now making plans for their pledge formal which will be held at the Colony Motor Inn on April 7. Thank you R. R. All are anxiously awaiting the formal induction of the pledges — an exciting and memorable event for all.

The four new members of SIB's bowling team have really proved themselves. We all wish to congratulate Galloping Gage, Slugger Stein, Groovy Gorman, and Rockin Robinson on their recent overwhelming victory.

SIB's basketball team is right there again this year. Their standing is now two wins and no losses. All signs point to another successful season.

By the way, Collie, how's LSU? The spaghetti supper was great!

We should also like to congratulate Phyllis Correia and Joe Cerasa on their recent pinning. Best wishes from all the sisters.

First a note to Phi Sig and SIX: You really put on a fine week end and I am sure it was enjoyed by everyone who attended. Andrea: We are glad that you are recuperating and just remember that you are our Miss Bryant and we all love you very much.

Well, the THETA girls are all through selling candy and being Kelly girls, and we are now looking forward to our Pledge Formal. The formal will be held on Friday, April 7, with our brothers; and it will be a "full length affair." So let's start working on dates girls, so we can all be together.

On the sports scene: We are still in first place in bowling, but we will have to get going to keep that first place and win that trophy. As for our basketball team, I think we are going to have something to be proud of this year. Just keep up the good work, girls. You know we will be out there cheering for you.

Well, I suppose everyone is looking forward to our "long" Easter vacation!!!! All the sisters want to say that we hope you all will have a great weekend.

Job-Placement Interviews

By Marvin Friedman

Next week, several companies will have representatives at the Placement Office to interview seniors. Included in this group is the Star Market Company which will have its interviewer talking with management and marketing majors. Also on Monday, a representative from the Campbell Soup Company will be here.

On the following day, Investors Diversified Services will discuss future employment opportunities with management and marketing majors, while the Marlin-Rockwell Company will provide information about its company to Accounting majors.

Burroughs Corporation and the W. T. Grant Company intend to have their representatives here on Wednesday to talk with all graduating seniors in the Business Administration Department.

The following Wednesday, March 28, an interviewer from the Retail Credit Company will discuss Job-placements with students interested in the field of Management. All Business Administration seniors are also invited to talk with the representative from Grace Holmes.

The Friendly Ice Cream Corporation and the Phillips Petroleum Company plan to have interviews here on Thursday. They will be interviewing accounting, management, and marketing majors.

On March 30, the F. W. Woolworth Company has scheduled interviews with management and marketing majors. Stop & Shop and Proctor and Gamble are two more companies that will interview seniors for possible positions in their firms on Friday.
