Alumni Charge

Steven H. Townsend '76 B.S., '80 M.B.A.

On behalf of the Alumni Association of Bryant College, I would like to congratulate each one of you on this memorable occasion, Commencement 1984. This should always remain for you a day of achievement and recognition.

Many of you will now embark on new careers while others will continue to advance their academic training. In either case, you will be leaving the College. However, your relationship to the College will only change slightly. Instead of being part of the Bryant College student body, you will now become an integral part of another vital component of the College – the Bryant College Alumni Association.

The Alumni Association is comprised of 25,000 graduates who span classes dating back to 1900. As alumni, we have certain obligations to the College. One of the most important obligations we have is to represent the College with as much integrity and professionalism as we can to our associates in business and in the communities where we live. We do not bear this obligation alone since it is shared equally with faculty, administrators, and students. All our accomplishments will only further the fine reputation the school has developed.

The Alumni Association has been organized to provide a vehicle for you to stay in touch not only with the College, but with your classmates as well. The Alumni Association operates through an elected Executive Board with planning and administrative support provided by the College's Alumni Relations Office. Programming and planning for specific alumni events is done through local alumni chapters around the country. Without a doubt, our association is an important resource to the College. Our alumni serve on various College committees, curriculum advisory councils, and even on the Board of Trustees. Through us, Bryant College has kept abreast of changes in the business environment.

In addition to being a resource and an integral part of Bryant College's excellent reputation, we also contribute a substantial portion of money to the Bryant Fund. Through our support, Bryant is able to retain and advance its reputation as a leading business institution by attracting quality faculty, administrators, and students. It is in all of our best interests to see these efforts continue.

I would ask that each of you consider the pride, friendships, and knowledge gained through your association with Bryant College and make a personal commitment to insure that future classes will depart with the same sense of pride and achievement that I know you are all experiencing today. Take an active part in your alumni association and local alumni chapters. Individually we cannot hope to fulfill such a large commitment, but collectively, think of what we can accomplish. By pooling our knowledge, energies, and financial resources, we can insure that Bryant College will remain a leading business institution and that we as alumni will continue to enhance its reputation as we make a name for ourselves in the business community.

Congratulations to each and every one of you, and please stay in touch!

Academic Heraldry

The history of academic dress worn today dates back to the universities of the Middle Ages. A statute of 1321 required the wearing of gowns by all scholars and clerics. Probably the warm gown and hood were practical in the unheated buildings.

Students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence until after the Civil War. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1895. While the academic costume code has been modified over the years, the general characteristics of the initial requirements still prevail. The uniform system of academic heraldry serves to indicate the level of degree, the field of study in which it was earned, and the institution by which it was granted. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve and can be worn open or closed. The gown for the doctor's degree has bell-shaped sleeves with black velvet facing down the front and three bars of the same across the sleeves. However, these facings and crossbars may be in the color distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. At Bryant College, the president and the honorary degree recipients wear gowns especially designed and trimmed in the College color of gold.

The academic hoods are lined with the color of the university granting the degree. The border of the hood is in the color of the discipline in which the degree was earned. For example, colors associated with different subjects include: light brown (or sapphire blue) for commerce, accountancy, business; copper for economics; light blue for education; peacock blue for public administration; purple for law; and white for arts, letters, humanities.

The length of the hood varies slightly for bachelor's, master's and doctor's degrees. Today, the hood for those receiving bachelor's and master's degrees has been replaced by the mortar-board or caps with long tassels in black or in the color appropriate to the subject. It is often the tradition of the candidates for degrees to wear the tassel on the right front side before the degree is conferred and to shift it to the left when the degree is awarded.

Harriet C. Jacobs Memorial Mace

The College mace is carried at Commencement exercises and at other College celebrations. Crowned in gold, the mace has the two dominant emblems of the institution: the seal of the State of Rhode Island and the seal of Bryant College.

The Bryant seal represents the educational mission of the College and its worldwide implications. The central symbol is an ellipsoid globe with quills on each side to signify the traditional emblem of communication in business. In the center, behind the globe, is a torch symbolizing liberty, the spirit of free inquiry, academic freedom, and learning. The Archway, forming the background for the globe, torch, and quills, is a College landmark affectionately remembered by thousands of alumni. The Latin motto expresses the purpose of the College: "Educatio Dirigere Mercaturam" – Education for Business Leadership.
