Honorary Degree Citations

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

DOROTHY G. WILLARD

Advisory Partner, Touche Ross & Co.

Citation:

Dorothy G. Willard, you are a pioneer who traveled into areas of public accounting seldom before visited by any of your sex. You received your CPA certificate in 1931 under no ordinary circumstances. Attaining the highest grades among the candidates, you won the gold medal annually given by the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants for outstanding proficiency. Later you were to be the first woman member of the Board of Examiners of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the first woman President of the newly renamed National Association of State Boards of Accountancy. Your work has been marked by an unusual ability to adapt the abstract to the practical. Skilled pianist and world traveler, your interests are diverse. You have been a partner of Charles F. Rittenhouse & Company and now are an Advisory Partner of Touche Ross & Co., CPA's of Boston. Bryant College happily confers on you the Degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, Honoris Causa, with all of its rights and privileges.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

SOL KOFFLER

President, American Tourister Luggage

Citation:

Sol Koffler, no one would dare tell you that the business world is without its romance, you who came here a poor boy from Poland and became an innovator in the field of luggage manufacturing. You founded American Tourister Luggage in Providence on hopes and imagination. Yours was a rare gift which saw the possibilities in revolutionary lightweight construction, blending plastic with fiberglass. When you started out in 1932, you had no job. So, you created one for yourself and countless others. Now you are President and Chairman of the Board of American Tourister Luggage and a Director of the Luggage and Leather Goods Manufacturers Association. Your charitable affiliations are many. Yours has been the heart-warming story of one who builds economic possibility out of ideas. Bryant College with pride confers on you the Degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, Honoris Causa, with all of its rights and privileges.

DOCTOR OF PEDAGOGY

SAMUEL DEWITT PROCTOR

Professor of Education, Graduate School of Education, Rutgers University

Citation:

Dr. Samuel Dewitt Proctor, once the youngest college president in the Nation, you have been a teacher of teachers, an idealist and a believer in our youth. Professor of Education at the Graduate School of Education at Rutgers University, you are a former President of Virginia Union University and North Carolina A & T State University and former Associate Director of the Peace Corps. Here in Providence you will always be remembered as the former Pastor of the Pond Street Baptist Church, now the Second Free Will Baptist Church, and an inspirational leader. Your noble advocacy of human dignity for all people is treasured. Your services as Associate General Secretary of the National Council of Churches in Christ were another measure of devotion to the general good. Your visit among us is a homecoming of sorts, and Bryant College presents to a man it considers a friend and an advocate of a more perfect society the Degree of Doctor of Pedagogy, Honoris Causa, with all of its rights and privileges.

PATRICK L. O'MALLEY

President, Canteen Corporation

Citation:

Patrick L. O'Malley, yours has been the rare ability to combine the talents of salesmanship and marketing with devoted public service in the fields of education, religion and civic affairs. As President of Canteen Corporation, you have been able to participate in one of the fastest growing segments of our economy, that of vending machines. Previously you were associated for thirty years with the Coca-Cola Company, filling the posts of Vice President and General Sales Manager. Your concern with business education is well known. You are a Trustee of Roosevelt University in Chicago and a member of the advisory council for the College of Business Administration at the University of Notre Dame. In addition, you have associated yourself with organizations interested in furthering ethical business practices, such as the Association of Better Business Bureaus International. Bryant College therefore feels privileged to grant you the Degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, Honoris Causa, with all of its rights and privileges.

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

THE MOST REVEREND RUSSELL J. McVINNEY, D.D.

Bishop of the Diocese of Providence

Citation:

Bishop McViney, in an era of confrontation and change, your wise advocacy of progress without violation of our heritage has won for you widespread admiration. Your voice on behalf of social justice and racial equality first was heard decades ago. More recently you have worked diligently for the world brotherhood envisioned by Pope John XXIII. You are the first native to head the Diocese of Providence, Rhode Island. After being ordained in Belgium, you served as a curate, teacher and an editor, before becoming the first Rector of Our Lady of Providence Seminary. In your more than two decades as the Good Shepherd, you have founded many new parishes, expanded the Catholic Charities Fund, enlarged hospitals and conducted inspirational services witnessed by thousands. We at Bryant College can, in a limited way, express our feelings by conferring on you the Degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, Honoris Causa, with all of its rights and privileges.

DOCTOR OF LETTERS

LAWRENCE A. APPLBY

Chairman of the Board, American Management Association, Inc.

Citation:

Lawrence A. Appley, your career is proof that capable management is an art that can be taught by those who, like yourself, understand the relation of human values to corporate needs. This evidence, furnished by you as Chairman of the Board of the American Management Association, strikes a particularly responsive chord in a college such as ours. Perhaps your years of teaching at Colgate University first activated your philosophy. But it deepened as Vice President of both Richardson-Merrell, Inc., and Montgomery Ward & Company. As Executive Director and Deputy Chairman of the War Manpower Commission you were able to test your leadership principles in the crucible of national crisis. And, in fact, in 1946 you received from the President of the United States the Medal For Merit. Your ability to translate your ideas into the literature of management is demonstrated by your authorship of four books on this important subject. Your textbook, A Management Concept, is used currently in a managerial course for Presidents. Additionally, as a writer for television and a frequent contributor to magazines, your literary efforts inspire Bryant College to confer upon you today the Degree of Doctor of Letters, Honoris Causa, with all of its rights and privileges.
