DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

RAY L. HEFFNER

President, Brown University

Your career in education has been one of extraordinary accomplishment. As Vice President and Dean of Faculties at Indiana University, where you were responsible for the entire academic program, your development of foreign language and international study programs brought you wide acclaim. You are a distinguished scholar of the Elizabethan period, and you have received a number of Fellowships including the Yale College and Sterling Fellowships and the Guggenheim Fellowship to study Shakespearean tragedy at the British Museum. Your abilities as an administrator, moreover, brought you renown at Indiana University, and are continuing to do so at Brown University in the relatively short period in which you have served as President. Bryant College is honored, indeed, to recognize your accomplishments as an educator, scholar and administrator by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS EDUCATION

ASA SMALLIDGE KNOWLES

President, Northeastern University

Rare, indeed, are accomplishments such as yours in the field of education. Not only have you served as a professor or Dean of colleges of business administration in leading universities, but you also have given the benefit of your knowledge and administrative abilities to numerous institutions including Associated Colleges of Upper New York, Cornell University where you were Vice President, the University of Toledo, where you were President, and now to Northeastern University where you serve as President. In addition you have helped to formulate the course of education through your leadership positions in many educational commissions or boards, both in Massachusetts and other parts of the country. You are a director of private business organizations, numerous professional societies and many civic organizations. For these accomplishments you have received many awards, citations and fellowships as well as membership in a number of professional honor societies. Yours has been a distinguished career in education, and Bryant College is honored to recognize your accomplishments by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Education, honoris causa.

ROBERT E. L. STRIDER

President, Colby College

President of one of New England's leading colleges, accomplished educator, academic authority on the Seventeenth Century, author and civic leader, you are renowned in the field of education. You have served as assistant in undergraduate courses at Radcliffe and at Harvard University, your alma mater, as a member of the faculty of Connecticut College, as Dean of the Faculty at Colby College, and since 1960 as President of that institution. You are a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and you have filled leading offices in numerous commissions on higher education nationally and in New England. Recognizing your abilities as an educator and administrator, Concord College, Nason College and the University of Maine have conferred upon you honorary doctorates. Bryant College is pleased to add to these honors by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

HOWARD W. JOHNSON

President, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Yours has been a distinguished career in the advancement of knowledge in the field of business administration. As an associate professor of industrial management and later as Dean; as director of the Sloan Fellowship Program, and now as President of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, you have brought renown to yourself and this great educational institution through imaginative development of advanced management programs, not only in this country, but also abroad. You have been personally responsible for expansion of the scope and depth in education and research at M.I.T. You also give your time to serve as a member of the President's Advisory Committee on Labor-Management Policy, as a member of the board of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, and several corporate boards. You are a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the American Association for the Advancement of Science; and you serve as a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, the Academy of Management, the American Economic Association and the Industrial Relations Research Association. Bryant College is pleased to honor your accomplishments by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

ERNEST WILLIAM VEIGEL, JR.

Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Rochester Business Institute

Yours has been a lifetime of dedicated service to education. A graduate of the University of Rochester and the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration, you have been responsible since 1928 for bringing the Rochester Business Institute to its present high level as a school of business administration. Although demands on your time are heavy as Chairman of the Board of Trustees and educational consultant to the Institute, you give the benefit of your knowledge also to Drake College where you are Chairman of the Board of Trustees, and to your own students as a teacher of investments. Within your student body you are known not only for service and leadership, but also for your qualities of quiet kindness, understanding and consideration. Indeed, this is an enviable distinction. Bryant College is proud to recognize your leadership in the field of business education by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

R. LUCIEN APPLEBY

Vice President and Treasurer, Bryant College

Your professional career, extending over many years, has been one of devoted service to Bryant College, successively as teacher of accounting, as Secretary and Assistant Treasurer, as a member of the College Board of Trustees, as College Coordinator of a Junior College of Business Administration in the Dominican Republic, and as Vice President and Treasurer, the offices you now fill. You have also given personal time to civic responsibilities as Chairman of the Red Cross campaign in West Warwick, and as a member of the Executive Budget Committee of the United Fund. You have met the call on your professional abilities by serving as a director of the National Association of Cost Accountants, Providence Chapter, and as a member of the Scholarship Committee of the National Office Managers Association of Providence. Yours has been a virtual life-time of dedicated service to Bryant College, and Bryant is particularly pleased to honor your accomplishments by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

CLARENCE HAMILTON GIFFORD, JR.
President, Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company

Yours has been a distinguished career, not only in banking, but also in business, finance and civic and humanitarian fields of responsibility. You have risen to become President of one of the State's leading banking institutions, the Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company, and your abilities have been called upon in service to numerous other financial organizations. You are a member of the Executive Council and of the Advisory Committee on Federal Legislation of the American Bankers Association. You have served as Chairman of the Stockholders Advisory Committee of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston. You are trustee, board member, or officer of numerous corporate businesses. Yet you have found time, also, to give your knowledge to numerous civic and charitable organizations both in Rhode Island and nationally. Bryant College is pleased to recognize your abilities by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS
WILLIAM LESTER KITE
Archdeacon, Episcopal Diocese of Rhode Island

Educator, administrator, civic leader, your accomplishments in the field of religion as well as in the community you serve have brought you distinction. You have been chairman or a member of numerous committees in this country and Canada dealing with finance and general extension of the Church you represent. Within your Diocese of Rhode Island you have been responsible for administering and arranging financing for a new nursing home, and for planning the new Cathedral House and for renovation of the Cathedral of St. John, and you have held high office in other work of the Diocese. You have served in these posts well, finding time also to add to the culture of Providence by assuming the responsibility for restoring six colonial houses on Benefit Street. Among your many distinctions you also have been awarded the Carnegie Medal for life-saving. Bryant College is proud to recognize your service to Rhode Island by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

THE COLLEGE SEAL represents the educational mission of the College and its symbols are intended to convey the significant aspects of this institution. The ellipsoid globe represents the world-wide implications of business in Twentieth-Century America. The quills ringing the globe symbolize the importance of communications in business. In the center stands the torch which can be understood both as the torch of liberty to stand for the free spirit of inquiry or academic freedom, and as the torch of learning. The Archway, which forms a background for the globe, torch and quills, is a College landmark, affectionately remembered by thousands of alumni. In its entirety, the seal recognizes the achievements of the faculty in their continuing search for educational excellence. The Latin motto expresses the purpose of the College, "Educando Dirigere Mercaturam" — "EDUCATION FOR BUSINESS LEADERSHIP."*

THE COLLEGE wishes to announce that beginning with the year 1968, Bryant Commencements will be held the third week in June.
