Hello Boys:

I guess you're as surprised as I am to find out I'm still here.

For the past few weeks I've been having it rather easy. No training but easy details, and plenty of waiting.

How is everything at good old Bryant? Too bad I can't help you put up storm windows this year but maybe next year. There is one thing I learned in the army, that is the art of goldbricking, so both of you better watch me pretty close. That is if I ever decide to go back to school. Cliff
