Jeremiah C. Barber Scholarship Campaign Launched

Bryant Alumni Council President Raymond H. Hawksley announces that at its November meeting the Council voted to launch a Jeremiah C. Barber Scholarship Fund Campaign with a goal of $3,000. Jeremiah C. Barber was associated with Bryant for fifty-one years. Affectionately known as "Jerry", he taught Law and was Dean of Students. He helped innumerable young people with a combination of fatherly benevolence and strict adherence to the highest business principles. This fund will be administered solely by the Alumni.

Chairman of the Barber Scholarship Fund Committee is Raymond W. Hartley. Ray operates an advertising agency with offices at 255 Main Street, Pawtucket.

Contributions from $1.00 to $10.00 are solicited—see the last page of the Bulletin.

The names of all contributors will be printed in the May Homecoming Program.

THOMAS R. GRANT '51 elected President of the newly-formed Bryant Alumni Club of Pawtucket and a member of the Bryant Alumni Council. Tom is with the investment firm of G. H. Walker and Co. of Providence.

President Jacobs Presented Plaque

At the President's Christmas Party for members of the Administration and Maintenance Departments, a plaque was awarded to Dr. Henry L. Jacobs by Professor George A. Richards commemorating the opening of the Henry L. Jacobs library at 88 Benevolent Street.

This bronze plaque which measures 9 by 16 carries the following inscription:

*In Honor of

Miss Norma Slocum '52 acted as Secretary pro tem.

Guest speaker was Dean Elmer C. Wilbur of Bryant College who traced the development of the Institution from its early days.

A general meeting was held on January 17 at the Garden City Recreation Hall in Cranston.

Know Your Faculty

Prof. Priscilla M. Moulton

Professor Priscilla M. Moulton is Assistant to Dr. Henry L. Jacobs and Supervisor of Secretarial Studies at Bryant College. Born in Lewiston, Maine, Miss Moulton graduated from the Lewiston High School and attended the Auburn Maine School of Commerce for three years. She then taught business subjects for five years at the Edward Little High School in Auburn, Maine. She received her Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Education from Boston University in 1947 and 1948 respectively.

While attending Boston University, Miss Moulton worked as Graduate Assistant to the Chairman of the Business Education Department. She has taught extension and summer courses at Boston University and at Columbia University. She is a member of Pi Lambda Theta and Delta Pi Epsilon, both national honorary fraternities. She is Membership Chairman for the state of Rhode Island of the United Business Education Association (the National department of N.E.A.) and of the Eastern Business Teachers Association. She is a past Treasurer of the Providence Plantations Branch of the American Association of University Women.

Miss Moulton has brought to the college some distinguished speakers including the heads of the business education departments of Boston University, Columbia University, and New York University. She is also responsible for visits to Bryant of the leading experts in the field of shorthand and typewriting. She conducts a "Job Clinic" for secretaries in which prominent business executives visit the college every spring to discuss with students the qualifications emphasized by businessmen as being the most desirable in new employees.

She has supervised IBM workshops in which business teachers of Rhode Island high schools learn how to operate the electric typewriter. Miss Moulton also arranges and attends to the details of many College social functions including the annual Mother-Daughter Tea.

The former Mrs. Evelyn Cummings '34 now Mrs. Umberto Stanghellini, of Riverside, R. I., was appointed Secretary of the Bryant Alumni Council replacing Mrs. Thomas J. Hoey of North Attleboro, Massachusetts, who has served as Secretary since the formation of the Council. Mrs. Hoey was given a vote of thanks. Mrs. Stanghellini maintains her own slip cover business.
