Bomb Scare Empties Bryant Classrooms

By Steven Sellers

Students, faculty and staff of Bryant College experienced an unexpected respite from the usual college fare Wednesday morning when the Unistructure of the school was evacuated. Cause for the evacuation was the statement of an anonymous caller who contacted the College Switchboard informing them that an explosive device had been placed within the building. The call came in at approximately ten-thirty in the morning and members of the Bryant community were evacuated shortly thereafter. The Smithfield Fire and Police Departments responded to the College immediately. A search of the College by Police, Fire and Security personnel revealed nothing of a suspicious nature. Meanwhile, College personnel and students milled outside the structure speculating as to what had happened.

At 10:55 a.m., the signal to re-enter the building was given. Thinking that things had returned to normal, students and staffers returned to their activities only to be ordered out of the building again by officials.

The caller apparently contacted the College again at approximately 11:00 and restated the earlier message. Whether the second caller was the same individual who called the first-time is not known by The Archway at this time.

Chief of Security at Bryant, Robert Gardner, directed searches of College facilities into the afternoon using his staff and maintenance personnel. Tom Scott, Vice-President for Business Affairs, told The Archway that the bomb scare is under investigation by the Security Department. He declined to comment as to whether the caller was male or female and as to the actual content of the threat. In addition, it is not certain to The Archway as to whether the call was made via an outside line or an internal telephone.

Scott did comment on the rapid nature in which students and staff vacated the premises when the fire alarm was sounded. He was pleased that no one was foolish enough to remain in his or her class when a danger may have been present.

Just prior to the alarm of the bomb scare, power failed at the campus for a few minutes. Raymond Quinlan, Director of the Physical Plant, told The Archway that the power failure was pure coincidence and unrelated, so far as he knows, to the scare.

In keeping with the confused atmosphere of the College this day, classes were later announced as being held as usual for the remainder of the day. This announcement contradicted the earlier suspension of classes. By the time the announcement was made, however, many students and faculty had already left the building or the campus. Thus, the day continued as it had started—in confusion. Some classes were held, but only on a hit-or-miss basis.

Next week, The Archway hopes to run a follow-up story to the bomb scare; its implications and relevant news as more information becomes available.

New Management Bolsters Brycol

-By Steve Sellers

The summer of 1977 will be remembered as hot and long for this year's BRYCOL staffers. During the summer break, V. Carol Kerr, the newly-elected President of BRYCOL for this year, was suspended by the College due to academic reasons. As a result, the ship of BRYCOL was in danger of continuing into the next year without a rudder. September saw two individuals come to the forefront to bail out BRYCOL and maintain its long record of quality student services. Carol Grills and Jon Joslow pitched-in, along with many other loyal "BRYCOLers" to ready their organization for the fall.

Carol Grills, a past member of the Board of Directors, was elected to the post of President for the organization early this September to fill the vacancy left by Carol Kerr. Jon Joslow, a former ARCHWAY editor, was also appointed by the BRYCOL Board of Directors to serve as Executive Director. Mr. Joslow was instrumental in handling BRYCOL's financial matters while Miss Grills attended to areas such as entertainment for the popular "Country Comfort", the mixology course and other planned activities.

Students of the College can look forward to some new BRYCOL attractions. Mixed drinks will be offered by the organization on Parents' Weekend to enliven the many festivities of that weekend. Also, BRYCOL anticipates the creation of a dry-cleaning service for students, faculty and staff. Details on this are still uncertain.

Both Miss Grills and Mr. Joslow conveyed a sense of certainty regarding the future of BRYCOL and its ability to deliver services to Bryant students. Miss Grills described the transition this fall as new President as "an experience", reflecting upon the many late night and early morning meetings with Jon and the Board of Directors in ironing-out the elements of a successful start for the autumn term. Until recently, the "Country Comfort" had been staffed by members of the Board of Directors of BRYCOL. Since that time, thirty employees have been hired to perform the many tasks involved in that operation. Mr. Joslow is in the process of devising new procedures and policies for employee accountability and responsibility, thereby strengthening all of BRYCOL's operations.

As Miss Grills takes over the controls of BRYCOL's endeavors, she related to THE ARCHWAY her appreciation to all the staffers of the organization and applauded their long hours and effort.

Mr. Joslow said he regards his position as a temporary one, necessitated by numerous financial and structural duties which were revealed as the fall approached. Once these needs are satisfied, said Jon, his role will be one of an advisor to BRYCOL if such assistance is needed. He expressed his faith in Miss Grills to continue the successful trends of the organization with which we are all so familiar.

After a rocky start, it seems the Bryant's Student Service organization is well on its way to another prosperous year (profits since the Orientation Weekend

Bryant Dorms To Be Renamed

Courtesy of Public Information

The Board of Trustees of Bryant College has voted to name the dormitories on the Smithfield campus after those individuals for whom many of the structures on the Providence campus were identified. According to Dr. William O'Hara, President, "In so doing, we are renewing Bryant's ties to its proud past and recognizing some of the individuals who contributed so much over the years in making Bryant College what it is today." The names include Theodore B. Stowell, proprietor, principal, and faculty member of the original

Message From Dr. O'Hara

Late in the spring semester, reports reached me concerning incidents of racial nature taking place on our campus. As we begin a new academic year, I feel it is important for me to speak to this subject. Prejudice or discrimination of any type is unacceptable anywhere. It seems that this should be particularly so at Bryant where understanding others, and respect of fellowman is an integral part of the learning process.

Bryant is a small community. We work, play, and socialize in close association with each other. With few exceptions, we do this exceedingly well, and to the mutual advantage of the entire student body. To allow prejudice anywhere on our campus, whether it be racial, ethnic, religious, or based on sex, would make the Bryant experience considerably less than it is now.

I expect that we will have an academic year free of discrimination of any kind. Certainly, I believe there will be no repetition of last spring's incidents. Implicit in this message, is the understanding that none of us can be expected to like everyone we meet. At the same time, it is equally clear that, likes and dislikes aside, human dignity demands a basic respect of others.

Wishing all of you, the greatest success in the new academic year.

Cordially,

William T. O'Hara
President

Bryant and Stratton College from 1872 to 1915; Lucien Appleby '27, faculty member, Secretary, Treasurer and Vice President of the College from 1940 to 1968; and Gardner Hall, named in honor of E. Gardner Jacobs '21, Director of Admissions, Vice President and President from 1960 to 1969, currently serving as a member of the Board of Trustees and Chancellor of the College. Other names include:

Allen Hall - named in honor of John L. Allen '19, faculty member, Secretary, Treasurer, and Vice President of Bryant from 1919 to 1956. Mr. Allen died in a tragic fire in his home in 1956.

Hoey Hall - named in honor of Rita C. Hoey, a much beloved Bryant personality who served the College for 33 years and who was Secretary to both Presidents Henry L. and E. Gardner Jacobs until her death in 1966.

Barber Hall - named in honor of Jeremiah C. Barber ("Old J.C."), a much admired and quoted faculty member and Dean of Bryant from 1897 to 1940.

From the EDITOR'S desk

Ever talk to a wall? I have. In fact, every week when I write this column. I feel as though I'm talking to a wall. My words seem to go no where and have little, if any, effect at all. Over the summer I was thinking about what the problem was. Could it be the words I use?

Words are funny. They can be used to express feelings, ideas, points of view, emotions, concepts and scores of other things when we communicate. (I'm going really slow so all will understand.) Words are flexible. They can look like one thing and mean another. (Falsehoods for example.) They can be twisted and abused; too vague or too specific; or totally inadequate for a certain situation.

This editorial contains many words this week. It's going to be up to you to figure out what they mean. Are they telling the truth? Do they contain any significance? Are they falsehoods or fact? Good luck.

Section I

Words and How They Pertain To Us.

This week's first word: CARE

The word "care" is interesting. It deals with an emotion and basically describes a feeling that is non-apathetic in nature. "Concern" is like "care" in ways, but concern is different. Students can be "concerned" and yet still not care.

Sure....Everybody cares!

You care.

They care.

He cares.

She cares.

Well, I don't care. I used to, long ago. But not anymore.

So you care do you. Do you really? I bet you don't care enough to get up off your lower unit. Let's see.

Section II

Numbers, Math, And Things To Think About

We all need numbers. We all need math. We all need things to think about. Here are some numbers:

Sept. 1976-----2675 Day Students
 Sept. 1977-----2731 Day Students
 1977 Tuition----$2550 per year

Here is some math:

1977 Day Students 2731
 -1976 Day Students 2675
 Increase in Day Students 56
 $2550 Tuition
 x 56 Extra Students
 $142,800 Extra Tuition Dollars

Here is something to think about:

The school is taking in 142,800 more dollars this year. Do you care about this money? You should, you're supplying it. (And $142,800 is a sizeable sum.) Do you know where this money is being spend? I know. But I'm not telling.

That sure is a lot of money. Does anybody care?

Question Time

Have any questions? You do! Don't look at me.

Section III

Words and How They Pertain To US

This week's second word: BUSY

Busy is when someone is involved in some type of activity. Busy as a bee. Busy as a beaver. Busy as a Bryant student. Hi ho, Hi ho, It's off to school we go; we work all day, at night we play, Hi ho, Hi ho. "We work all day?" Sure!

I will ask once more, "Does anybody have any questions? Yes, the student in the dorm room...You want to know about this money...You demand answers... Very noble of you, very noble...Huh...What's this? You want me to tell you the answers...Ahh, I see, I research and write the story, then print all the information for you...But why me?...I see...I'm the editor...I'm supposed to be doing all that type of work...Well, how about helping me? Oh, I understand...You're much too busy!

Yeah, right!

Wrap It Up

A lot of people will probably be wondering what I've been babbling about. Well here is is, plain and straight.

I've only been back in school for a few weeks now and I am already totally fed up. It's not administrators or faculty that have caused this, it's the students. I'm fed up with students who are my friends only because I have a position, a title on because they need a favor. I'm fed up with students who suggest that I "check this out" or "look into that," but refuse to assist because they "haven't the time." I am tired of being seen as an Editor and not as a person. I'm sick of people who want, want, want, but never think of giving.

You might read this and say, "If you're so fed up, why don't you quit." Well that's just what I'm going to do. I decided to join all the other students who really "give a care" about what happens around this college. In a month, I'm through.

This editorial is my last attempt to stimulate students. I have hinted at many things that maybe of significance or be nothing at all. It's up to you to find out. It's up to you to do something for yourselves rather than be lead like a flock of sheep. It's time for students to grow up and be responsible for their environment. Anyone can do it. They just have to care.

New Fraternity on Campus?

Dear Editor,

The Greek subculture on the Bryant campus is comprised of many personalities, each fraternity being an individual organization within its own right.

We are trying to organize another "personality" on campus, Zeta Beta Tau (ZBT), a national fraternity. ZBT is a tradition setter, established in 1898.

Our hope is to bring added strength and fresh new ideas to the Greek community at Bryant. We feel that ZBT can make a valuable contribution to the college community, and the support of anyone willing to aid in the establishment of this organization will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
 Henry J. Schwartz

Archway Offers 1977 Mercedes in Contest

by Steve Sellers

Not just any campus can make this claim! THE ARCHWAY, through the ingeniousness of its staff, was able to conceive, process, layout and print this fabulous offer for the Bryant community. You, too, can join in on the fun by joining the ARCHWAY staff! You see, THE ARCHWAY is really in no position to finance a contest which has its prize a brand new Mercedes. However, we can print a headline to attract your attention so that you will give us a listen.

Our staff of Editors has thought of every legal means to attract new, bright, motivated students to change the image of the present staff. We must have done something right, because we were met with an overwhelming response by the new students of Bryant.

This article was to be a last-ditch effort to gain some new faces and talents for the staff if this year's response were less than thrilling. We decided to run it anyway - just to inspire anyone out there who feels the yen to write, photograph, advertise, type or layout for THE ARCHWAY. It is not too late! We still want you.

It is realized that there may be some disappointment or hostility because the Mercedes thing was a hoax. Please, consider the rewards of working on THE ARCHWAY staff. Such joys are immeasurable.

Below is a list of the most

Warm Orientation Thank-you Dear Editor

To the Bryant Community:

I wish to thank all of the students and staff of the college for their participation and help in the Orientation Program of 1977.

Through the efforts of the SAGA staff, the maintenance and Housekeeping staffs, security, central services and the office of Student Affairs, the Orientation Leaders were able to welcome and orient the new students with ease.

I would also like to thank the staffs of Brycol, The Archway, the Residence Office, GLC and the Student Senate for assisting the Orientation Committee in creating an atmosphere conducive to welcoming the Class of 1981 and transfers.

Special thanks and congratulations go to the Orientations Leaders who, because of their dedication and enthusiasm, made the Orientation Program an informative and friendly one.

Sincerely,

Only a few more weeks remain in which qualified graduate students may apply for one of the 550 awards which are available to 53 countries.

MOVIE REVIEW

Star Wars

by Craig Perry

It is another time in a galaxy far away. Time is not important. Flea markets are run by jawas and locals guzzle at a galactic bar where all the patrons look like models for Halloween costumes.

These are just some of the scenes from Star Wars. It is George Lucas' film of pure scientific delight that transports the viewer from his seat to joining the fight against the Empire. It is simply a good versus evil modern cowboy story.

Horses have been replaced with land speeders, guns with blasters, and the dusty street with the wide open field of outer space. It takes you on a journey with Luke Skywalker (Mark Hamill) and Ben Obi Wan Kenobi (Alec Guinness) who are trying to deliver the stolen plans of the Empire's Death Star to the rebel space fleet.

To aid them in their fight against the Empire is "The Force." Ben has mastered "The Force" and teaches Luke to let it work for him. The Force is a God-like power which guides its user to overcome evil. But one of the evil leaders, Darth Vader, was once a student of Ben Kenobi and has mastered the Force and uses it to kill Ben.

The master control for the evil doers is the Death Star, a huge satellite that has the power to destroy an entire planet. The Empire demonstrates this to Princess Leia Organa (Carrie Fisher) to show her its awesome power and to make her reveal where the rebel base is. Of course, she refuses to tell, so they destroy the planet.

But never fear because Luke and Ben, along with Hans Solo (Harrison Ford) and Chewbacca (two freighter pilots hired by Luke and Ben), enter the Death Star and save the lovely princess. They leave the Death Star for the rebel base with the princess and the still undelivered plans. And yes, that's correct, they save the galaxy from continued tyrannical rule or will the Empire stop them before their mission can be completed.

Those questions can best be answered by seeing the movie, which although it does not touch reality (as all Sci-fi movies do), must be viewed as a preview of the future. I find the movie is humorous and light, and it is very easy to become involved with the actors.

Not since Death Wish have I witnessed an audience applaud so loudly for the good guy and boo for the bad guy. It was a feeling to enjoy a movie that was free of muggings and violent death. Unfortunately the movie is being over-commercialized to the youngsters, making them want a Star Wars-this or that. I am sure every Trekkie has seen the movie at least once.

The movie is excellent and a must for anyone who wants light entertainment. And this maybe the prototype for movie making of the future. P.S. There is already talk of a sequel.

Freshman Student Elections

The Bryant College Student announced this week that it will hold elections for Freshman Senate Seats on Wednesday and Thursday, September 28th, and 29th.

Having already elected Senior, Junior and Sophomore Senators last May, the Senate was able to conduct business and work on projects over the summer.

The Senate Urges Freshman to seize this opportunity to become involved in Bryant and contribute their efforts toward the improvement of student life at Bryant.

ELECTION RULES

1. All candidates seeking an office in the Student Senate can obtain nomination papers from the Student Senate Office beginning at 12 noon on Friday, September 16, 1977.

2. Each candidate is required to obtain 50 signatures of students in his class and return the nomination papers to the Student Senate Office no later than 12 noon on Wednesday, September 21, 1977.

3. Any candidate found guilty of misrepresenting names on the nomination papers or found guilty of breaking any of the election rules set down by the Election Committee of the Student Senate will be declared ineligible to run for a Senate seat.

4. All candidates for a Senate position in the Legislative Body must pick up the Sign and Poster Regulations in the Senate Office beginning at 12 noon, on Friday, September 16, 1977. You may begin to display the Posters and Signs at 3:00 p.m. on September 21, 1977.

5. The Student Senate will provide one stencil and 50 sheets of paper for each candidate when they return nomination papers. Stencils must be returned to be processed.

6. By Friday, September 30, at 3 p.m., all posters, handbills, and other displays must be removed from the campus.

7. The Elections Committee of the Student Senate has the power to ban or remove posters, handbills, or other displays that it deems not within the realm of open and fair competition.

8. Voting will be conducted according to the following procedures:

a. There will be one polling station in the Rotunda from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday, September 28 and 29. There will also be a polling station outside the Cafeteria from 4:30-6:30 on Wednesday, September 28.

b. At the polling station, Freshmen students must present their identification card and their names will be checked off on a master sheet. Only those Freshmen Students with classification one will be allowed to vote and run for office. At this time they will be given a ballot to complete.

9. No candidates will be permitted to remain near the polling station during the balloting.

10. Each candidate must submit to The Archway in letter form his or her platform and reasons for obtaining a seat on the Senate by 3 p.m. on Wednesday, September 21, 1977. This letter must be typed and double-spaced on plain paper—not onionskin.

11. Six Senators will be elected at large from the Freshman class.

12. Any challenges to the election or balloting procedures must be written and submitted to the Elections Committee by 3 p.m. on Thursday, September 29, 1977.

13. Each candidate will be permitted to have one representative at the counting of the ballots and that representative must be in Room 269 no later than 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, September 29, or he/she will not be permitted to enter.

Attention:

All Clubs and Organizations

All Student Senate-sanctioned organizations must register themselves with the Senate office so that we can again provide them with mailboxes within the Senate office. It is necessary for the Senate to have information on the status of each club so that the information we provide to the students will be accurate. An immediate response is requested so that the Senate can update their records.

Changing of the Guard

by Peter Paulousky

This past summer saw many changes in Bryant's physical appearance; new paint, new carpeting in the Rotunda, new modular seating, etc. Another, less visible change that took place was the re-keying of the college offices in the Unistructure. The reasons for this change are twofold:

1. Security: Since the building of the new campus back in the early 70's, many employees have left while others have joined the Bryant community. After such a turnover, it is common practice to change keys to prevent unauthorized use.

Convenience: Prior to this change, Bryant's locks were not confined to one master system. Rather, a number of different master keys were floating around the campus. With the re-keying of the offices, Bryant now has a single master system for all the keys. A record of key possession is also being kept in the Security office. In this manner, if a key is needed in an emergency, Security will be able to contact the appropriate person. Prior to the change, it was almost impossible to find a key when needed. The end result will hopefully mean less unauthorized use of keys and greater convenience for the various college offices and student organizations on campus.

Gerri

By J.W. Harrington

This past summer, Bryant acquired a new Director of Student Programs and Services, Gerri Hura. The personable administrator assumes the positions formerly held by Carmen Jordan, who will long be remembered by Bryantonians. Gerri was selected for the job through an elaborate selection process, in which a committee of students provided input. The college's final decision coincided with the students recommendations, although their first choice declined the position.

A look at Gerri's background reveals her qualifications for the job. Gerri was born in Cleveland, Ohio, a city about 30 miles south-southeast of Oxford. She studied at Cleveland's John Carroll University, where she received a BA in English and completed graduate work in "Counseling and Guidance/Student Personnel." Her previous experience in dealing with students includes residence hall work at John Carroll in her senior and graduate years, and a similar position at the Catholic University of America in D.C. Tiring of residence hall work, she moved on to Simmons in Boston, where her duties were similar to those she has assumed at Bryant. While there, she instituted a Student Activities Board, similar to our Student Programming Board.

Her responsibilities here at

Bryant, consist essentially of supervising all non-academic programs and activities not related to the residence halls. Specifically, she works with all student organizations as a resource person and supervises the Student Center and pool. In addition, she hopes to work with the RA's and the Counseling Center. She indicated that her past experience has included coordinating programs involving multiple organizations.

Gerri has been here about six weeks, and says that she "really likes" the students and staff, although she indicated that she hasn't had the opportunity to meet too many faculty members. Comparing Bryant to Simmons, she drew a similarity between their common "very strong" career orientations, but added that Bryant students seem less "sophisticated" and more relaxed, not overly career-conscious.

In reference to her plans for Bryant, Gerri indicated that generally faculty-student interest must exist for programs to be initiated. She hopes to get away from the concept that "activities" consists of mixers, and intends to introduce greater diversity both in scope and scheduling. While she plans to take a year to assess needs, she mentioned such programs as crafts and ballroom dancing lessons, as well as faculty-student discussions, all of which could be scheduled to be accessible to commuters. She hopes to get commuters involved by instituting a monthly calendar and scheduling programs during the day, which would also reach the faculty and staff. Hura decried as a misconception the notion that Bryant students are interested only in business, and observing that Providence is not the cultural capital of the world, expressed a desire to expose Bryantonians to culture.

Gerri hopes to work closely with student organizations, and to build leadership skills through workshops. She would like to see the Senate be the most powerful organization, to act as a recognized representative of the students for the college to deal with; however, the Senate, she feels, shouldn't be involved in everything. She said that she would like input into student organizations, but as an advisor rather than a chairman; that is, her advise could be ignored. Gerri added that in the event it is felt that college policies must be enforced, she would be in the position to do it. Gerri would like to see a student judiciary established through the Senate or SPB to provide peer justice, and to eliminate the aspect of one person acting as judge and jury.

While indicating that she believes in the constitutional guarantees of freedom, Gerri said that she would feel more comfortable if all organizations, including The Archway, had a faculty advisor to control matters "sensitive" to the college. Further, she feels that since the finances for The Archway, WJMF, and the Ledger come from the Student Affairs Office, rather than from Student Activities fees as is customary elsewhere, that office could legitimately dictate policies to the student media. She added that this is not done in practice. While she finds no reason for college control of the paper, she feels that it "couldn't hurt" for The Archway to have a faculty advisor. While he or she could review copy for libelous or sensitive material, Gerri feels that an advisor would not be a form of censorship but rather a person to "bounce off," providing "age and wisdom."

Gerri could also sanction college control of speakers and other programs, in cases where they would violate policies of the college or the United States, for example in the case of discrimination. Additionally, she favors presenting opposing viewpoints in the case of political speakers. (It should be noted that this was not the reason for the cancellation of the Human Sexuality Session at Orientation; the speakers cancelled because of the holiday weekend. Announcements will be forthcoming as to sessions on the subject to be held by the Counseling Center. So, all students who are interested in sex should keep an eye on The Archway.)

While Gerri has only been at Bryant a short while, she has impressed most observers quite favorably. Of course, the final verdict has yet to be rendered.

Cure Discovered

Early yesterday morning Mr. Frank Ballfarch and his wonder dog Tittles accidentally discovered a cure for the deadly Beef Ragout poisoning epidemic that has recently plagued Bryant's Tupperware Campus. The serum consisting of green slime with lumps was fed to Tittles after the poor pouch had contracted the disease. It was found that the slime (with lumps) absorbed all the deadly microbes that festered in this much sought delicacy.

Tell It To B.B.

Welcome back fellow students. I just joined the staff this week and I am pleased as punch to write for the newspaper. My name is B.B. Nobozo and I am in the freshman class.

Every week I hope to write a column to you people. Because all of you is what I am about. I hear all these rumors on campus and I don't even know what is true.

So any rumors or questions that someone on the Tupper Campus of Bryant College may have please drop me a line at P.O. Box 37, and address it to B.B. Nobozo.

Here are a few questions I have already received:

Dear B.B.,

I hear that there is a big office vacancy coming up very soon. I hear that three offices will be available. What I want to know is if I could reserve one of the three vacancies? There are three people in my room and I am a junior.

Signed,
Radical

Dear Radical,

Well, you will have to stand in line for one of those offices. You can practice standing in the noontime line to the cafeteria. Or milling about waiting to get in the pub. Concerning your over crowded condition at least your roommates don't snore. mine snores so loud that Smithfield Police sound the air-raid siren. Cheer up. Things are getting worse.

Dear B.B.,

My new off ice was supposed to be ready to occupy. Since it is a student office and all the other student offices were done according to plan, why can't mine?

Signed,
Homeless

Dear Homeless,

One again you have been left out in the cold. Not only have they taken your old office but they have put a new lock on your new office that you don't have a key for. YIKES! That is nothing just wait till you see what the inside looks like. (And you think you have problems now.) Hopefully, they will find you a home soon because with all the walking around the halls you have been doing the basket weaving class has been complaining. What ever you do, good luck, because you need it and it needs you.

Dear B.B.,

I came bopping back to the Tupper Campus this last week and put my key in my office door. Well, golly, it just did not fit! Not only that; they changed the color of my office. Let me tell you, I was so upset I even ate in the cafeteria. What can I do? No key and new paint; I can't feel at home here!

Signed,

The Village Smithy

Dear Smithy,

Never fear, dear boy, because it happened to all of us. I heard they even rekey the piano. YIKES! As far as your office being repainted, well, what can I say? Don't you want to look like the rest of the school? I can't see why anyone would want to be different. If you would like to change the color get rose colored glasses. (or go to the rustic and get a pair of 3-D glasses.)

Hey B.B.,

I really dig the new school colors. The yellows are so yellow and browns so brown but I have one problem. You see I usta sit right in front of the windows at the entrance and check ou the chicks. Well, man, it was realy groove just sitting there and dreaming. So this year I went to my usual hideaway and guess what I found? Some stinkers carpeted the hideaway and stole my chairs. Now I ask you is this anyway to run an airline? They could have sold something else to pay for the carpet I am sure. Please find my chairs.

Signed

Stood Up

Dear Stood,

I am happy the colors give you a rush. As for the chairs, they are in someone's office. They reposed the couch. But never fear! Sooner of later (more later) there will be something there for you to sit on to enjoy the sights. While your waiting, try the radiator. It's not as comfortable as a chair, but until the heat comes on, it will serve you well. Remember that whoever you stare at today may stare at you tomorrow!

A NEW BEGINNING

By Jay Metzger

The time has come for me to be the master of my destiny. To begin down the road towards my place in life. I am ready, but fear of the unknown stays close to my heels. It keeps following, waiting for the chance to strike me down, but I will beat it in the end.

*****

I am among many who face the same dilemma; the adjustment to total independence. Our lives have been placed in our hands after many years of shaping by our parents. It is now up to us to finish and polish what they have started. But we must make this final process a servant to our desires and goals, and not to the general consensus. From now on, everything we do becomes another piece to the final puzzle of our lives.

Ed's Almanac

By Ed Kasinskas Jr.

As I begin my first full year as The Archway's staff meteorologist, I'd like to report that my accuracy percentage for my summer predictions made last May was .667. We did have a cooler and wetter than normal first half of June (1.5 inches above normal as recorded in Windsor Locks, CT) and who can forget the week of record heat and humidity in July!

My prediction for two hurricanes affecting New England during August did not come true, but two hurricanes did affect other sections of the U.S. The first one moved up the coast of southern California from Mexico in the early part of the month, weakening as it moved northward. This storm failed to bring relief to the drought which is still going on in the state and it did very little to stop the raging forest fires. Hurricane Anita didn't strike the U.S. mainland, but it did leave many sections of Texas under water due to heavy rains.

Hurricane season began June 1 and continues until November 30. This is the period in which there is the greatest probability of a tropical storm being born. They can occur any time of the year under the right circumstances. Historically, most hurricanes pop up between mid-August and mid-October. The difference between a tropical storm and hurricane is in the wind speed. Once a storm's winds reach a sustained velocity of 75 miles per hour, classified as a hurricane.

On the average, ten tropical storms per year are born in the Atlantic with seven becoming full-fledged hurricanes. So far this season there have been three tropical storms with one hurricane. In the records of the past 91 years, 1933 had the most tropical storms (21) of which 11 became hurricanes while 1914 only had one tropical storm. The probability of a tropical storm forming remains the same every year. Next week, I'll continue discussing this most destructive storm in nature.

Long Range Forecast: September 16-22

Morning Stars: All the following planets can be seen simultaneously east of the meridian 45 minutes before sunrise: Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn. There are no evening stars.

Autumn begins September 22 at 11:30 p.m.

First Quarter Moon: September 20.

AAP Study Tips

1. Evaluate Your Reading Tips

Do you use your lips, throat or mind to "vocalize" words?

You are probably still using the childhood habit of sounding out each word. This slows you down.

Do strange words constantly impede your progress.

Your vocabulary needs improving.

Do you read every single word?

You need to train your eyes to span phrases or "thought units" instead of individual words.

Do you go back over what you have read?

You're not paying attention. Good concentration means good comprehension.

Do you always read at the same speed?

Speed should vary depending on the material and your purpose for reading, e.g. fiction, newspaper, textbook.

2. Outline Writing Assignments

Before you begin to write a report or term paper, make an outline of what you plan to cover. First, put down the main headings. Leave several lines of space in between. Under each heading, list the subheadings you want to include. Identify the specific points you should develop under these subheadings, and so on. If you organize the outline well, and then follow it carefully, your written work will reflect a logical and thorough development of the subject.

3. Free Study Skills Book

The college textbook publishers have developed a series of booklets designed to help student improve their use of study time and learning materials. Individual students are invited to write for a free copy of "How to Get the Most Out of Your Textbooks," "How to Prepare for Examinations," "How to Improve Your Reading Skills," and "How to Build Your Writing Skills" to: AAP STUDENT SERVICE, Association of American Publishers, One Park Avenue, New York, NY 10016.

Law

Enforcement At "The Library"

By Debbie Brunner

There is a new face at one of the favorite nightspots of many Bryant students. He is the new manager at "The Library" and he is a 1975 Law Enforcement graduate of Bryant College.

Jim Hogan is originally from Cumberland, Rhode Island. He began working at "The Library" when he was a freshman. After graduation, he spent two years in Boston running a pub called "Gladstones."

Jim says that business has slacked in the past and he has plans of really building it up in the coming year. As an example, he has installed new drinking rails to accommodate more people. Every night of the week has a special deal that promises low prices and good times. His work in Boston gave Jim the best connections for entertainment and he has scheduled many good artists to perform.

Jim is waiting on several applications for work in Law Enforcement. By next year, he hopes to have a placement. For now, he is content to work at making "The Library" one of the best places to be after classes.

Athletic Shorts

by Jeff Tunis

Coach Chuck Knox of the L.A. Rams said that Joe Namath will start at quarterback this Sunday against the Atlanta Falcons. Meanwhile, Falcon QB Steve Bartkowski will undergo surgery on his right knee and will be out of action for at least six weeks. Bartkowski reinjured the same knee that kept him out of nine games last season. Veteran Scott Hunter will replace Bartkowski.

Willie McCovey of the S.F. Giants and Cesar Cedeno of the Houston Astros were named co-players of the week in the National League. Cedeno batted .400 last week with 7 RBI's, three stolen bases, a homer and six runs scored. Cedeno also hit in his 14th straight game. McCovey batted in 11 runs last week, batted his 2000th base hit, slammed four homers and batted .333.

In the American League, Carlton Fisk of the Sox was the unanimous choice for Player of the Week. Fisk batted .577, drove in 17 runs and batted in the game winning run in three of Boston's wins.

Lou Brock of the Cardinals was recognized as the best base stealer in major league history in a resolution introduced in the Senate yesterday by Sen. Thomas Eagleton. The resolution also commended Brock's contributions off the field, including his work through the Lou Brock Boys Club of St. Louis and his place on the board of the Big Brothers and Big Sisters of America.

The Los Angeles Rams waived place kicker Tom Dempsey and running back Jim Bertleson earlier this week.

The New York Jets waived running back John Smith this week while the Giants waived quarterback Steve Ramsey.

Running back Andy Johnson of the New England Patriots suffered a torn medial collateral ligament in his right knee Sunday against the Falcons and will be out for the rest of the season. Meanwhile, All-Pro linemen John Hannah and Leon Gray walked off the team prior to Sunday's game due to contract squabbles.

Del Rio and Atano combined for the win in the eighth match at Newport Jai-Lai Monday night.

They paid $8.60, $5.40 and $6.60. The Quiniela of 3-6 paid $51.60. The Trifecta of 6-3-7 paid $596.60.

The New England Patriots released veteran receivers Randy Vataha and Marlin Briscoe this week, reducing their roster to 43. Vataha, who has been claimed by the Green Bay Packers, is a seven year veteran. Vataha caught only 11 passes last year for 192 yards. Briscoe is a ten year veteran who has played for six teams in his career. Briscoe

Women's Field Hockey

This year is a very important one for the Bryant College Women's Field Hockey Team.

There are only a small number of girls on the team, and all fifteen are new players. Most of them, however, had played on the high school level. Kim Alexander, a freshman, said that the team is going to work on acquiring stick skills. "I wish students would show more interest for this sport. We are determined to prove that it will be worthwhile to keep Field Hockey on the Women's Sports Program."

One reason girls might not be trying out for the team is that it involves a lot of running. Coach Michelle Pelletier is helping the girls to develop stamina and endurance by conditioning which includes strenuous exercise, basic stick work and much jogging.

The strategy the girls will be using this year is a hustling one. Their objective is to stay in step with their opponents.

The season's schedule is very short-only six games. Unfortunately, their competitors are much more experienced than ours. Some opposing teams even have girls who have received scholarships for the sport. The Bryant women aren't expecting much, but they are determined to do their best.

Coach Pelletier has said, "I hope the girls are aware of the situation. This is a very important year for the Field Hockey team."

If any girl has any field hockey ability, she should contact either Coach Pelletier or the Woman's Athletic Director, Miss Cournoyer. But hurry, the season is short and time is running out.....

clearing waivers and was released.

Jim Kiick of the Denver Broncos was released this week after seeing little action for the Broncos last year. The Broncos signed Kiick last year as a free agent after playing in the WFL in 1975.

The Seattle Seahawks cut 34 year old defensive end Bob Lurtsema this week. Lurtsema was obtained from the Minnesota Vikings last year.

The Chicago Bears placed running back Mike Adamle on the inactive roster.

Preston Pearson will start at running back for the Cowboys on Sunday, replacing Tony Dorsett. Coach Landry said that Dorsett will see "spot action."

Undergrads Nip Alumni in Road Race

The Bryant Cross Country team scored a 28-31 victory over the Alumni in the Annual Labor Day road race in Warwick, Rhode Island. Using superior depth, the undergraduates overcame a 1-2 finish by Richard Collard, '75, and Steven Olson, '75, by placing Bill Varney, '81, third; Barry Proctor, '80, fourth; Jerry Gaynor, '79, sixth; Mark Wasserman, '81, seventh; Mike Kearney, '81, eighth; John O'Connor, '81, ninth; and Bill Sanford, '81, tenth. Bob Armstrong, '71, finished fifth for the Alumni. Bob Wall, son of Professor Wall of the Math Department and a junior at Lincoln High School, ran for the Alumni finishing eleventh. Completing the scoring for the Alumni were George Edge, '70, and Walter Edge, '69. Following the race, all the runners were hosted by Mr. and Mrs.

Armstrong for some well deserved refreshments.

The race was 5.2 miles over the streets of Warwick in the Conimicut section. One hundred forty runners participated, and Bryant's lead runner, freshman Bill Varney from Norton, Massachusetts, finished twentieth. He was followed by sophomore Barry Proctor, thirty-third; junior Jerry

Gaynor, thirty-sixth; Mark Wasserman, Syracuse, New York, thirty-eighth; Mike Kearney, Baltimore, Maryland, forty-first; John O'Connor, Middletown, Rhode Island, forty-second, and bill Sanford, Taunton, Massachusetts, forty-sixth. Also finishing for Bryant were Phil Goss, Brian Van Dam, Bob Keogh, Sam Blackmore, Mike Chalek, and Nick Wieland.

Bryants Golfers

The Bryant College Golf Team finished fourth in the New Haven Invitational Golf Tournament at Yale University on Tuesday.

The Bryant golfers finished behind Quinnipiac College, Salem St. and Hartford. The Indians finished 14 points behind the first place Quinnipiac team.

Jerry Gaboriau shot Bryant's lowest score, a 77. Mike Oleksack shot a 79, Phil Sobel an 83 and John Teller, an 85.

Can Joe Namath Find Happiness In Beautiful Downtown Burbank?

by Jeff Tunis

The 1977 football season should be a very interesting one. Not much has changed from last year, but a few good questions can be asked. First of all, will the Oakland Raiders take the route of the Cincinnati Reds and choke this year? Can the New York Jets win more games than the Seattle Seahawks? Will the New England Patriots have another fine season after practicing on the beautiful confines of the Bryant College Country Club and playing tackle football with the soda machine in Dorm 5? I'll look at the top contenders this year and try to answer as many questions as I can about the 1977-78 NFL Season.

The NFC East features two very solid teams—The Dallas Cowboys and the St. Louis Cardinals. Both teams feature strong offensive and defensive teams. The Cardinals had a better crop of running backs last year, but the addition of Tony Dorsett this year makes the Cowboys tougher. Both teams feature a top quarterback as well. Roger Staubach of the Cowboys has no real advantage over Jim Hart of the Cards and neither does the receiving duo of Pearson and Dupree over Harris and Hart. The teams are very evenly matched there. The only place the two teams differ to any degree is on defense. The Cowboys stand out on defense while the Cards are somewhat inferior. Linebackers Randy White, Bob Breunig, D.D. Lewis and Tom Henderson of the Cowboys are among the toughest in the league. St. Louis can't compete with Dallas at this spot or at safety either. The Cowboys advantage here will take them well into the playoffs. The Cards, however, won't be far behind.

The NFC Central, as it is every year, is all Minnesota. The Chicago Bears and Walter Payton, though, should give the Vikings a scare. Mike Phipps should take some pressure off of Payton and keep the defenses guessing. A fine offensive line, highlighted by 6-6 Lionel Antoine and Dennis Lick, should put Payton over the 1000 yd. rushing mark with no problem. The Bears are still no match for the Vikes but this team could well be in for a very fine season.

The NFC West is now "blessed" with "Burbank" Joe and his gimpy knees. All that can be said about the Rams this year is that if they don't win it, they never will. Personally, I don't think that Namath is the answer. James Harris was a fine QB last year with 1490 yards, a 57.6 passing percentage and 8 touchdowns. Namath will probably improve on that, but football is now geared for the quarterback who can run, and Namath isn't the answer. Bert Jones, Steve Grogan, Tarkenton, Staubach and Landry are just some of the QB's who have proved this. Richard Todd of the Jets will also prove it. The running quarterback adds a new dimension to football. Namath can barely walk. He just won't solve the Rams problems.

San Francisco is tough. They probably have the best front four around, but they just lack the talent to be a contender. Their secondary needs help, as does the receiving corps. A healthy Plunkett and a poor Rams season can change things, but don't bet on it.

The AFC East features two of the best teams in football—The Baltimore Colts and the New England Patriots. Baltimore has the better QB in Jones, better receivers in Lydell Mitchell, Steve Grogan talks with reporters.

Roger Carr and Glenn Doughty, a better defensive line and better kickers. The Colts, however, got creamed in last years playoffs by the Steelers, 40-14 while the Patriots just got nosed out by the Super Bowl Champion Raiders, 24-21. Maybe the Colts just had a bad day, but with an easier schedule, an improved team and the right attitude, the Patriots may find themselves playing the Raiders again while the Colts are watching Phyllis George on T.V.

The AFC Central is a mess. It is impossible to pick who will finish on top here. Pittsburgh started off last season like Tampa Bay but finished like the Steelers of two years ago. Are they as good as that? If so, they must beat an even tougher Cincinnati team this year. The Bengals helped themselves immensely this year with a fine draft, getting 6 picks in the first three rounds. If these players come through for the Bengals, they will be very tough this year. The Steelers have their work cut out for them.

The AFC West contains the Oakland Raiders. The Oakland Raiders won the Super Bowl last year. The Oakland Raiders have Art Shell. Art Shell eats dogs and small children for breakfast. The Oakland Raiders will probably win the Super Bowl again.

Feely Heads Soccer Team

John Feeley, a former college division All-American goal-tender has been named the new Bryant College Varsity Soccer Athletic Director.

A native of Belmont, Mass., Feeley starred for the Indian booters for three years from 1973-1975. In 1974 he received his first of two All-America and All-New England selections as he led the Indians to their best season in history with a berth in the NAIA regional playoffs.

That season, he compiled an impressive 1.2 goals against average while posting 7 shutouts, including 6 consecutive at the outset of the season. He also was named to the national and regional squads in his senior season despite an injury which limited his play.

In 31 games during his final two years, he allowed an average of only 1.74 goals per game. In the spring of 1976, he became the first Bryant athlete in modern history to sign a professional sports contract when he signed with the New England Oceaners of the American Soccer League. He played one year with the Oceaners.

Cross Country Team Runs Again

by Gerry Gaynor

Another fall season has arrived and along with it comes cross-country. Although Fall officially marks the beginning of the X-Country season, the training really started on June 1 for the nineteen runners competing for Bryant this year. June 1 marked the beginning of the summer training program in which the runners got anywhere between 300 and 900 miles for the three month period. It's the success of this training program that ensures the Bryant harriers a successful campaign this Fall.

The team is very young. It is comprised mainly of freshman and transfer students, all of whom show excellent potential. Among the talented frosh are Bill Varney, Bill Sanford, Phil Gross, John O'Connor, Mike Kearney, Brian Van Dam, Mark LaBonte, Craig Anderson and Mark Wasserman. The sophomores on the team are Barry (Dr) Proctor, Greg Owens, Steve Dunn and Bruce Fournier. Three Jr. College transfers join the others: Sam Blackmore, Bill McKitchen and Nick Wieland. Rounding out the team are juniors Mike Chalek, Bob Keogh and Capt. Gerry Gaynor.

Coach Reinhardt and his assistant Mike Hill have high hopes for the largest squad to ever compete on a Bryant X-Country team. The internal competition for the top 7 spots generated by a large team is a pleasure for the coach. It makes a stronger and more competitive unit on the course and that's what Bryant will field. It will be an excellent season for the young squad.

Unfortunately, the cross country team has no more home meets this year. All fourteen of the meets are on enemy turf and most of them consist of big Invationals. The first of these is tomorrow at Franklin Park in Boston at 11:00. Anyone interested in getting involved in cross-country please contact Mr. Reinhardt.

Women's Tennis Comes To Frontcourt

by Debbie Luciano

Tennis, one of the more popular sports in America, has emerged to be even more so on the Bryant campus this year.

At the first woman's tennis practice held on Friday afternoon September 9, nineteen girls joined the team.

Miss Lorraine Cournoyer, the new women's athletic director, finds the team very enthusiastic. "I can see a promising season; and most of all, I hope to keep as many participants on the team as possible," she stated. In previous years it has been the standard procedure to drop girls and keep a small number on a team. Not so with Miss Cournoyer. Nine girls have signed up for singles, and there are four doubles teams ready for net action.

Along with returning stars

there are two rookies who look very promising. If you are a male chauvinist and don't want your ego deflated, don't challenge newcomers Sandra (Sam) Kuller and Barbara Schnell. Rumor has it they already defeated a good male double team!

Ellen Turton, last year's number one player, has great confidence in this year's team. "I think it is due to an increase in participation. Also, we have more games scheduled, and the coach is a good trainer," she commented.

Attention tennis fans! We expect to see you rooting for these hard-working gals. Their first home match is scheduled for Monday, September 26 at 3:00 against URI. Hope to see you all there!

Keith MacWhorter Signs With Red Sox

Former Bryant ace Keith MacWhorter was signed by the Boston Red Sox Monday after pitching last season with the Los Angeles Dodgers. MacWhorter was Bryant's star hurler through the 1975 season before being signed by the Dodgers in the spring of 1975.

Keith graduated from North Providence High School in 1973 and pitched at Danville of the Midwest League but was plagued with control problems. MacWhorter was released by the Dodgers at the end of the season after compiling a 1-8 record.

MacWhorter was signed by the Red Sox after an area scout watched Keith pitch for the Sport Enterprise team in the R.I. amateur League this summer and recommended the club sign him.
