

Bryant University
DigitalCommons@Bryant University

---

Speert, Edith and Victor A.

Letters by Women During World War II

---

11-28-1944

Letter Written by Victor A. Speert to Edith Speert Dated November 28, 1944

Victor A. Speert

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/edith>

 Part of the Arts and Humanities Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Speert, Victor A., "Letter Written by Victor A. Speert to Edith Speert Dated November 28, 1944" (1944). Speert, Edith and Victor A.. Paper 28.
<https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/edith/28>

This Personal Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Letters by Women During World War II at DigitalCommons@Bryant University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Speert, Edith and Victor A. by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Bryant University. For more information, please contact dcommons@bryant.edu.

LETTER ONE HUNDRED TEN-VIC TO EDITH

28 November 1944

Somewheres in Germany

My beloved darling,

I'm a very sad boy today for I received no packages and no letters. Nevertheless I remain undaunted and ready to go forth with my letter writing.

Nothing new or eventful happened today aside from our usual hum-drum existence. We've still got our elegant set-up and good food-yessiree, we're sitting on the top of the world.

Boy, we're sure getting sufficient PX supplies these days. Today we made another distribution of cigarettes, chocolate, soap, etc. That's the one advantage of being in combat, you get your share of rations.

The weather is starting to get a bit nasty outdoors. Today it showered frequently and it's beginning to get colder.

As I am writing this letter Shelton is frying bacon over one of our stoves. You know, the bacon comes in cans and is already sliced. Makes it so handy to get that evening snack. Hm! it smells good!

Sweetheart, I still can smell those good Sunday breakfasts that you used to make. When you used to stuff food into me as though you were fattening a turkey. Come to think of it, it's been quite a period that I've eaten fried eggs-I just haven't bothered to ask the Dutch civilian people for eggs. But, I do get to eat their butter, which is delicious, or to quote you "out of this world".

We took some snapshots of "our pin-up board" last night. Our pinup board consists of pictures of nudes which Shelton cut out of some of the German Art magazines found around here. By the way, the so-called "Kulten Art" is based wholly on the portrayal of nudes (male & female). In addition he has pictures of girls (naturally) from the Yank Magazine (no doubt you've seen many of them).

Among some of the junk we've collected so far is an old muzzle loaded gun used in the 1700's-perhaps it may even have antique value.

Honey, as you can see I don't have a heck of a lot to say except that I miss you madly, love you completely and can't wait until I have you in my arms again.

Good night, dear, your lover,

Vic