BRYANT COLLEGE

Smithfield, Rhode Island
One Hundred and Sixteenth Commencement
Saturday, May 26, 1979
Ten o'clock

Welcome

A most cordial welcome is extended to relatives, friends, students, faculty, alumni, and administrators who gather here today to celebrate the One Hundred and Sixteenth Commencement of Bryant College.

Academic Heraldry

The history of academic dress worn today dates back to the universities of the Middle Ages. A statute of 1321 required the wearing of gowns by all scholars and clerics. Probably the warm gown and hood were practical in the unheated buildings.

Students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence until after the Civil War. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1895. While the academic costume code has been modified over the years, the general characteristics of the initial requirements still prevail. The uniform system of academic heraldry serves to indicate the level of the degree, the field of study in which it was earned, and the institution by which it was granted. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve and can be worn open or closed. The gown for the doctor's degree has bell-shaped sleeves with black velvet facing down the front and three bars of the same across the sleeves. However, these facings and crossbars may be in the color distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. This year, for the first time, the President of Bryant College and the Honorary Degree Recipients will be wearing gowns especially designed and trimmed in the College color of gold.

The academic hoods are lined with the color of the university granting the degree. The border of the hood is in the color of the discipline in which the degree was earned. For example, colors associated with different subjects include: light brown (or sapphire blue) for Commerce, Accountancy, Business; copper for Economics; light blue for Education; peacock blue for Public Administration; purple for Law; and white for Arts, Letters, Humanities.

The length of the hood worn varies slightly for the bachelor's, the master's, and the doctor's degree. Today, the hood for those receiving a bachelor's and master's degree has been replaced by the mortarboard or caps with long tassels in black or in the color appropriate to the subject. It is often the tradition of the candidates for degrees to wear the tassel on the right front side before the degree is conferred and to shift it to the left when the degree is awarded.

Harriet C. Jacobs Memorial Mace

The College Mace, a symbol of the power of authority, is carried at Commencement exercises and at other College celebrations. Crowned in gold, the mace has the two dominant emblems of the institution: the seal of the State of Rhode Island and the seal of Bryant College.

The Bryant seal represents the educational mission of the College and its worldwide implications. The central symbol is an ellipsoid globe of the world with quills on each side to represent the traditional emblem of communication in business. In the center, behind the globe, is a torch which reflects liberty, the spirit of free inquiry, academic freedom, and learning. The Archway, forming the background for the globe, torch, and quills, is a College landmark affectionately remembered by thousands of alumni. The Latin motto expresses the purpose of the College: "Educando Dirigere Mercaturam"--Education for Business Leadership.

Presented by The Trinity Singers

Bryant College Alma Mater

Oh, hills of green and waters blue,
Bryant College Alma Mater.
Loyal sons and daughters true,
Let us sing our praise to you!
There stands the arch of dreams instilled,
Glory, Glory, Alma Mater.
Beneath the dome our latent will,
That life-long wishes be fulfilled.
Unfurl the colors black and gold,

Alma Mater, Alma Mater.
Lingering mem'ries do unfold,
A grand tradition to uphold.
So span the orb, thy precious lot,
Bryant College Alma Mater.
Your infinite wisdom we have sought,
Be forever in our thoughts.
Bryant College Alma Mater,
Be forever in our thoughts.

Lyrics: Stanley Shuman

Music: Barbara and Stanley Shuman

Honorary Degrees

William F. Flanagan, Doctor of Science in Business Administration

President Emeritus of Rhode Island Junior College; perceptive educator; respected custodian of the scholarly milieu; accomplished classicist; profound believer in education for the masses; effective administrator; unparalleled father. He is an extraordinary proponent of Will and Ariel Durant's tenet: "Education is the transmission of civilization."

John H. Chafee, Doctor of Science in Business Administration

United States Senator from Rhode Island; thoughtful barrister; ardent conservationist; cogent leader; sensitive politician; conscientious public servant; dedicated husband and father. He personifies Hegel's philosophy: "Order is the first requisite of liberty."

Kenneth L. Kirk, Doctor of Science in Business Administration

Vice-Chairman of the Board, Amtrol, Inc.; native Rhode Islander, dedicated to the enrichment of his city and his state; enterprising businessman whose expertise exists to be shared; zealous community servant; innovator in easing the burden of the handicapped and the troubled. He embodies Jane Addams' definition of civilization: "A method of living, an attitude of equal respect for all men."

Martha S. N. Livingston, Doctor of Public Service

Immediate past General Campaign Chairman of the United Way of Southeastern New England; passionate believer in "volunteerism;" eager champion of the young; tireless participant in community needs; organizer extraordinaire; avid yachtswoman; devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. Her life echoes the raison d'être of Dag Hammarskjöld: "You have not done enough...so long as it is still possible that you have something to contribute."

Benjamin L. Hooks, Doctor of Science in Business Administration

Executive Director, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; skilled lawyer; distinguished jurist; powerful communicator; eloquent advocate for his race; successful businessman; proud veteran; committed minister of God. He is a living example of John Quincy Adams' words: "The use of great men is to serve the little men, to take care of the human race, and act as practical interpreters of justice and truth."

Anne Wexler, Doctor of Science in Business Administration

Assistant to the President of the United States; catalyst for public involvement in policy-making decisions; accomplished businesswoman; life-long advocate of the two-party system; committed to individual participation in government and community affairs. An activist in the best sense of the word, she affirms Aristotle's belief that "liberty and equality...will be best attained when all persons alike share in the government to the utmost."

F. Ray Marshall, Doctor of Science in Business Administration

United States Secretary of Labor; caring and farseeing administrator, the wage-earner's chief partisan in government; gifted labor economist; respected scholar and teacher, impassioned and insightful essayist. His actions support Theodore Roosevelt's dictum: "This country will not be a good place for any of us to live in unless we make it a good place for all of us to live in."
