One Hundred and Fourteenth Commencement

Saturday, May 21, 1977

Ten o'clock

Welcome

A cordial welcome to relatives, friends, students, faculty, and alumni who gather here today to celebrate Bryant College's One Hundred and Fourteenth Commencement.

Academic Heraldry

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn today in these Commencement Exercises are patterned after the attire of monks and students in the Middle Ages. Those who have earned the bachelor's degree wear a gown and a semistiff yoke, long pleated front, intricate shirring across the shoulders and back, which is also distinguished by long, pointed sleeves. The holder of a master's degree wears a similar gown, with long or short oblong sleeves which hang down in the traditional manner and open at the wrist. Those possessing the doctor's degree wear gowns with broad velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the full, round, open sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color distinctive of the field of learning represented by the degree.

Most of the colors and meanings of the costumes are found in the hoods. These are silk-lined with the color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. The border of the hood is velvet and its color signifies the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

Chairman of the Board, Cumberland Farms Dairy, Inc.

Demetrios B. "Jim" Haseotes was born in Providence, Rhode Island, on June 26, 1928. The first child of Vasilios and Aphrodite Haseotes, Jim has two brothers and five sisters.

In 1956, realizing the need for cash-and-carry neighborhood stores, Jim Haseotes opened the first retail outlet selling milk, ice cream and other dairy products in Bellingham, Massachusetts. It proved so successful that additional units were opened, and in 1962 the present concept was realized with the addition of other convenience foods.

Jim Haseotes is presently Chief Executive Officer of Cumberland Farms, Canton, Massachusetts, which operates over 1,000 cash-and-carry stores throughout New England, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New York and Florida.

Deeply involved in his church, Demetrios Haseotes is a Trustee of the Greek Theological School in Cambridge, Massachusetts. He is also a past president of the Greek Orthodox Church of America, Diocese of New England, located in Pawtucket, Rhode Island.
