

Reunion @ Homecoming – Linking the past and present

From October 2-4, come back to campus and be one of the more than 1,000 alumni who will reconnect with old friends – and make new ones – at Bryant’s largest annual celebration.

Bryant welcomes you back for Reunion @ Homecoming with some of your old favorites – the alumni vs. student games, the Bulldog Fun Zone for kids of all ages, the football game, and the 50-Year Reunion/Loyal Guard induction, to name a few. But there are some newer events as well, such as an All-Greek Reunion, 10- and 20-year reunion tents at Parente’s, the return of alumni tailgating, and a memorial service. (See the full schedule in the center spread of this publication.)

The alumni tent serves as the main gathering place for all graduation years, and a live band contributes to an already festive atmosphere. The spacious tent will have reserved tables or sections for the 25th through 45th reunion groups, as well as the Greeks. “Many alumni have stepped forward to help coordinate activities that will have special meaning for them and their classmates,” says Robin Warde, director of Alumni Relations.

Register for Reunion @ Homecoming now by going to www.bryant.edu/reunion, call (401) 232-6040, or fill out and mail the registration form on page 2 with your payment. For the very best deal, you can’t beat the Bulldog Pass, which includes several multi-course buffet meals and a ticket to Saturday’s football game, as well as tailgating and childcare. Reunion class years from 1939 to 2004 have formed committees. Call Donna Harris at (401) 232-6375 for more information on special events for your class or to be involved in the planning process.

John Renza '43 is “key” to Bryant’s success

(L-R) Bryant University President Machtley, Marie (Teigue) Renza '43, Key to the University recipient John Renza '43, and Alumni Association President Ray Grigevich '91, '00 MBA.

During this year’s Alumni Achievement Awards on April 17, guests were treated to a special surprise as John Renza '43, former Bryant professor and recipient of the Distinguished Alumnus Award in 1990, was presented with the “Key to the University.”

The Key to the University award was established in 2001 to honor those whose commitment to the University is evidenced by active participation in alumni events, financial contributions, and attendance at Bryant functions. The Key is bestowed sparingly to those who inspire others and lead by example in manners of conduct and character in the advancement of the University mission.

The Key to the University has only been conferred to two others: Sol Solomon '56, '64 in 2002 and Jack Callahan '56, '05H in 2006.

Class of 1999 holds 10-Year Reunion

"It's hard to believe it's already been 10 years since we graduated," says Jesse Shibley '99 (Coventry, R.I.), senior account executive at Citadel Broadcasting in East Providence and 10-year Reunion committee member.

Because Jesse lives in Rhode Island, he has stayed in touch with Bryant over the years and has been back to campus several times. It doesn't hurt that his mother, Carol (Carlson) '73, is an alumna and a member of Bryant's National Alumni Council.

"My mother has taught me, and shown by example, that it's important to give back," says Jesse, who is a regular contributor to Bryant's Annual Fund. "I've arranged for students to shadow me and to have internships at Citadel through the Amica Center for Career Education. I'm excited about Bryant's changes and the direction of the University."

Though he's maintained a connection to Bryant, Jesse is looking forward to Reunion because keeping in touch with former classmates is not always easy, especially as they all launch careers and begin families.

Melissa Frank '99 (Franklin, Mass.), another member of the 10-year Reunion committee and a representative of Bryant's National Alumni Council, agrees. "We all get focused on our own professional and personal lives, which makes it difficult to stay in touch as much as we'd like," the marketing manager at AT&T Mobility in Framingham, Mass.,

says. "The reunion is a great way to reconnect with old friends and create new memories. It is exciting to think about everyone coming back to campus!" "My college friends have moved all over the place," says Jesse. "Our 10-year Reunion is a great opportunity to catch up on all we've done since graduation."

Meet up with Jesse, Melissa, and other members of the Class of 1999 at Reunion @ Homecoming. In addition to the events on campus open to all alumni, the Class of 1999 will be in the 10-Year Reunion Tent at Parente's Restaurant from 4 to 7 p.m. on Saturday, October 3. Check out their Facebook® page, and register for Reunion @ Homecoming today at www.bryant.edu/reunion.

20 years of memories

Carole LaRochelle '89 (Manchester, Conn.), financial administrator at the Emily Hall Tremaine Foundation, has come back to Bryant for all her milestone anniversaries – 5, 10, and 15 years. For her 20th this year, she's on the reunion committee and is having a great time.

"I just fell into being a part of the 20-year committee," she says. "I go to all the RAN events in Connecticut when I can, and I'm a regular attendee of the Women's Summit at Bryant. The Alumni Relations staff knows me!"

Once you've met Carole, you would be hard-pressed to forget her. Enthusiastic and energetic, she has been told by former classmates and friends that she should get the "Bryant alumni cheerleader award." Although she transferred to the University at the start of her junior year, she quickly made friends – many of whom she is still in contact with today.

"My college roommate, Dawn (May) Pello, once told me that in my two years at Bryant," declares Carole, "I met more people than she had in her four years there!"

She is using her network to her advantage as a 20-year committee member. Her goal is to get as many people as possible from the Class of 1989 back to Bryant for reunion this year. In addition to the events on campus open to all alumni, the 20-year alumni will have a reunion tent in the parking lot of Parente's Restaurant from 7 to 10 p.m. on Saturday.

"Since signing onto Facebook® a year or so ago, I've been amazed with how quickly everyone is reconnecting," remarks Carole. "Just one posting I've made on Facebook has resulted in several old friends purchasing their Bulldog Passes for Reunion already!"

She is looking forward to seeing friends like Jay Fehan, who lives in California, and some Kappa Delta Rho members, but the one "friend" she would love to see the most is the Class of 1989 banner/flag.

"It's been missing for 10 years," Carole says. "It's disappointing to look up in the Alumni Tent at Reunion and see all the class year flags except for ours. Please, whoever took our class flag, send it back to Alumni Relations – no questions asked – so that we can have it up for Reunion @ Homecoming!"

Carole reminds everyone to sign up now online at www.bryant.edu/reunion and get a Bulldog Pass so that you're not missing out on anything. You can also call (401) 232-6040 or fill out and mail the registration form at the bottom of this page.

Reunion @ Homecoming 2008

There was plenty of fun for everyone at last year's Reunion @ Homecoming. Clockwise (from top right): the Bulldogs beat the Merrimack Warriors; the Bulldog Fun Zone offered lots of activities for the whole family; the Alumni Memorial Service gave friends and family the opportunity to fondly recall loved ones who have passed; the tailgating lot was full with alumni reconnecting before the game; and the Alumni Tent was a central gathering place for alumni of all years to meet.

Commencement 2009

Matthew Moore and Hannah Jorgensen carried the Class of 2009's banner to the undergraduate ceremony and held it up on stage for the 808 new undergraduate alumni and their family and friends to see.

(L-R) Stephanie Thanos, Elizabeth Mitchell, Gregory Sciarra, and Maryanne De Chambeau were four of the 187 recipients of master's degrees awarded by the Graduate School of Business.

■ NEW YORK

On April 7, 30 finance majors traveled to Manhattan for the Amica Center for Career Education's annual "Walk Down Wall Street" program. Fidelity Investments hosted the students at their Manhattan office at One World Trade Center. The students had the opportunity to listen to a panel of Bryant alumni speak to the group about their particular function within the finance industry as well as their career paths.

Judith Clare, Director of the Amica Center for Career Education, and Dr. Betty Yobaccio accompanied the students to New York as well as to the NASDAQ, where the students enjoyed having the opportunity to be there for the closing bell. It was a terrific venue for finance majors, as well as several students considering finance as their area of concentration, to explore career options within the field and to network with Bryant alums who are working in the Wall Street area.

■ MASSACHUSETTS

Nearly 50 alumni raised their glasses at Harpoon Brewery's 5:30 CLUB and sampled a great selection of lagers, ales, and stout. The tasting, led by knowledgeable brewery staff, included in-depth insight into the craft of fine brewing and access to the brewing platform.

Greeks reunite!

“The reason many of us pledged was to build stronger connections with a large group of people that will last forever.”

Melissa (McEnerney) Vallila '93 (Moorestown, N.J.) and Carlotta de Guzman DePietro '91 (Pembroke, Mass.), Alpha Phi Kappa/Phi Sigma Sigma sisters, and Chris “Alf” Esteban '88 (Upper Saddle River, N.J.), Tau Epsilon, have kept in touch with their respective sisters and brothers through the years since graduating from Bryant. This past year, they decided to take it to the next level and reach out to even more of their fellow Greeks.

“Being Greek at Bryant is truly unique,” says Melissa. “Not only do we have close bonds with our own brothers and sisters, but we also have very good friendships with all of the other Greek organizations as well.”

Alf adds, “The reason many of us pledged was to build stronger connections with a large group of people that will last forever.” He’s enjoyed yearly gatherings with his brothers since he graduated, but he wanted to reconnect with old friends from other organizations...and meet new ones. So he, Melissa, and Carlotta reached out to Bryant’s Alumni Relations office to organize an All-Greek Reunion on campus featuring several Greek-specific events.

Charlie Boklan '73, Phi Sigma Nu and National Alumni Council member, is looking forward to this year’s Reunion. “I encourage all Greek alums to register for and attend this important event,” he says. “It will be a great opportunity to get together with our brother and sister alums, renew our inter-Greek fraternity-sorority friendships, and demonstrate to the Bryant administration the lasting bonds of Greek Life.”

“We took a three-pronged approach to organizing the Greeks,” says Alf. “We reached out to Robin Warde, director of Alumni Relations, for information and ideas, we created a Facebook® page, and we’ve been e-blasting some of the alumni who have e-mails but may not be on Facebook.”

Their strategy is working. So far, more than 300 Greek alumni have responded that they will be on Bryant’s campus for Reunion. To join the All-Greek Reunion, simply purchase the Greek Bulldog Pass when you register at www.bryant.edu/reunion. Or call the Office of Alumni Relations at (401) 232-6040 and tell them that you’re a Greek!
