WINGS OF THE MORNING Psalm 139

17:46 end

John Rutter

If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; even there shall Thy hand lead me, and Thy right hand shall hold me. If I climb up into heaven, Thou art there: If I make my bed in hell, behold, Thou art there. O Lord, Thou has searched me and known me. Thou knowest my down-sitting and my uprising, Thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compasses my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, Thou knowest it altogether. Whither shall I go from Thy spirit? Or whither shall I flee from Thy presence? If I say, surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee, but the night shineth as the day. O Lord, Thou art there.

COME, LET US SING TO THE LORD Psalm 95

20:45 end

Renée Clausen

Come, let us sing to the Lord; let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation. Let us come before God's presence with thanksgiving, and raise a loud shout unto God with psalms. For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all Gods. In God's hands are the deep places, and the heights of the hill are also His. The sea is His, for He made it, and His hands formed the dry land. Come, let us bow down. Let us come before the Lord on bended knee. For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now and forever. Amen.
