Sun Herald: Freedom Riders Visit Ole Miss

APRIL 15, 2011 BY ADMIN

OXFORD — Three very different men started out in different places, but all wound up in Parchman because of their passion for justice. Fifty years ago the state penitentiary held dozens of brave souls, men and women, white and black, who rode buses into the South to expose racism. Wednesday three of the first Freedom Riders, all of whom got arrested, came to the University of Mississippi to tell their stories.

Reuters: Keep an Eye on the Money Supply

U.S. inflation roller coaster prompts fresh look at long-ignored money supply By Michael S. Derby NEW YORK – The amount of money sloshing around the U.S. economy shrank last year for the first time on record, a development that some economists believe bolsters the case for U.S. inflation pressures continuing to abate. The Federal Reserve’s
