OXFORD, Miss. – University of Mississippi sororities will host a Holiday Cookie Walk on Tuesday (Dec. 3) for the campus, Oxford and Lafayette County communities.

Starting at 5:30 p.m., local families can take their children to visit recently decorated chapter houses on Rebel Drive and Sorority Row. Each house will have a table on its front porch where members will hand out special treats to visitors.

Treats will range from popcorn and cookies to hot chocolate and candy canes.

The event runs until 7 p.m., so families have an opportunity to visit each of the nine sorority houses on the Ole Miss campus.
