Capt Dorden

Dear Sir

You say that you have been informed that my price for shares was five dollars in greenbacks, allow me to correct you in that thing, I have no price in greenbacks for shares as yet, and when I fix a price it will be higher than that if paid in that kind of money, but one thing I will not do, let persons speculate on my work by putting the currency down, and than tempt me because I will not let them have my work for the amount of Confederate money that they can buy with one dollar in greenbacks. you wish to know whether you can get any shares or not, to that I will say you can get my shares as cheap as any other neighbor you think I fear will do you send the money and get them if I have the

Since I have a few pair on hand at the present time but will stop making a game on the account of not having matches to finish feathers very Respectfully your obedient servant
