CLASS SONG

Hail! to the Seniors, Lindenwoods own,
Years like the moment swiftly have flown.
Green grow the Lindens; long have
they stood;
So may they stand eternally
A symbol of our loyalty—
Here are your Seniors, Lindenwood.

Years of our strength are years of our youth,
Molded by quests for beauty and truth.
Green grow the Lindens; firm have
they stood;
So may we stand forever proud,
Our hearts triumphant—never bowed,
Here are your Seniors, Lindenwood.
