Recital cancelled

The performance by British concert pianist, Joan Davies, who was to give a recital at Parkland College this Saturday, Nov. 11, is cancelled because of the unexpected death of her husband, Ivor Walsworth, last week.

Have a quick, easy recipe? Put it in College Cuisine.

No plans have been made to reschedule the performance.

A master class, which she was to conduct this Friday at the U of I Smith Music Hall, is also cancelled.

Registration still open for bridge tournament

Registration remains open for the 1979 Intercollegiate Bridge Championships, with at least two pairs of Parkland students to win trips to the Regional Championships at Western Illinois University.

The one-session campus tournament will be held December 7, and two pairs of winners will attend the Regional Tournament of the Association of College Unions-International at Western Illinois University. Parkland will also be sending table tennis, backgammon, bowling and chess competitors to the Western Illinois University tournament.

Bridge winners at Western Illinois will play April 15-16 at Mem-

Everyone feels depression

By Jean Renner

Mary X. Feels irritable and tired. Even though she has an important exam coming up, she's unable to concentrate and does not sleep well. She has headaches and often feels ill. Her doctor finds nothing physically wrong with her, but Mary feels worse each day.

Counseling center hosts transfer day

The Parkland Counseling Center is sponsoring a transfer day on Wednesday, Nov. 15, in the College Center from 10 a.m. till 1 p.m.

Representatives will be here from Illinois State University, Sangamon State University, Eastern Illinois University - Carbondale, Northern Illinois University, Western Illinois University, Illinois Wesleyan University, and Millikin University.

For more information contact Russ Mills at 351-2262.

Shopping trip set for Dec. 2

Three buses have been chartered for Parkland's annual shopping trip to Woodfield Shopping Center, known as the "largest self-contained shopping center in the world. The trip this year will be Saturday, Dec. 2 with departure time at 7 a.m. and return at 9 p.m.

The trip is sponsored by Parkland's Student Services' Committee of the Student Government. The cost is $4 for students and $8 for guests, faculty, and college staff.

Seating is limited. Those interested are urged to register immediately in the Activities Office (X-153).

PC players begin play

The Parkland Players will begin their fall production of The Miracle Worker with a performance in The Opera House in Homer at 7:30 p.m. this Saturday, Nov. 11.

Performances at Parkland will be next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 16, 17, and 18 at 8 p.m. and next Sunday, Nov. 19 at 7 p.m. in C-140.

The Miracle Worker tells the story of the child Helen Keller, who was deaf, dumb, and sightless, and of the efforts of her tutor, Annie Sullivan, to help Helen make a place for herself in the world.

Jane Dudley, of Champaign, and Margie Foote, of Urbana, will play Helen Keller and Annie Sullivan, respectively.

The production will be under the direction of Jim Coates, Parkland drama instructor and theater director.

The public is invited to attend. Tickets for the Homer performance are available in the student activities office (X-153) and at the door. There is a $1 admission charge.

'Super Piano' performs at PC

Mr. "Super Piano" George Fischhoff will be performing in the College Center this Friday, Nov. 10, at noon.

He has received rave reviews from Billboard and Cashbox magazines praising his ability to bring alive the solo piano as live entertainment. He combines a history of blues, rock and roll, boogie woogie, jazz and classical music, and invites audience participation in his performances.

Mary is suffering from depression, and she is not alone, according to Dale Neaville, a Parkland counselor. Although the symptoms and the severity differ in each person, everyone feels depressed at some time, Neaville said.

Neaville will talk about depression and how to fight it next Tuesday noon in X-117, as part of the fall program sponsored by the Student Health Service.

Career decisions, problems with sex, anxiety over tests and grades, a divorce, conflicts with parents — any of these can cause depression, Neaville said, because depression comes from fear, from worrying, "Will I make it?" And, because they often internalize their failures, women are particularly susceptible.

In counseling students, Neaville offers help in solving career and personal problems, and suggests steps to fight depression. A physical activity, such as jogging or even walking, keeping a journal, breaking up study times can all be helpful in fighting depression.

"The important thing is not to become overwhelmed, to learn to take things one day at a time, or even one hour at a time, if necessary," Neaville says.

Mountaineering #2.

SELECTING THE PROPER GEAR

The Busch label is where it all begins. Note the snowy, craggy peaks affixed thereto. They are the mountains.

You are the mountaineer. And this is an ad. The subject of which is selecting the proper gear for mountaineering. (It all fits together so nicely, doesn't it?)

First and foremost, you'll need to pop the mountain top. For this task, faithful mountaineers use a church key. Secular mountaineers use a bottle opener. Don't be confused by these antics with semantics. Just remember, the opener is your primary tool. Be true to it and it will be true to you.

Second, choose a glass. Here the options become immense. German steins, hand-blown pilseners, old jelly jars, that cute little (Church key used by faithful mountaineers)

Mr. Boffo mug you've had since third grade.

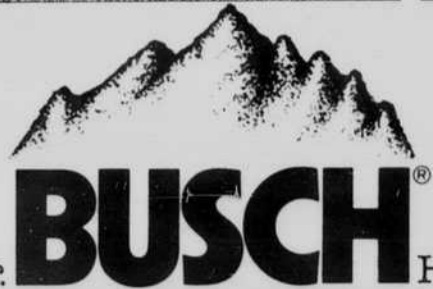

Be adventurous. Experiment. Most mountaineers have a personal preference. You'll develop one too.

Food is next. Proper mountaineering, not to mention proper nutrition, requires a smorgasbord selection of snacks. Some mountaineers have suffered from a potato chip deficiency, a pretzel imbalance or other serious dietary defects. Plan ahead.

Comfort is crucial. If you mountaineer in public, pick a padded bar stool, preferably one that spins (to facilitate admiring the scenery). At home, a comfortable chair or sofa will do. Rule of thumb: if it feels good, and the police don't seem to mind, do it.

Then turn on the tube or spin a tune or crack a good book. The choice is strictly between you and the dominant hemisphere of your brain. Of course, some mountaineers say the smooth, refreshing taste of Busch is entertainment enough. And thank goodness they do, because it's an excellent conclusion.

(Comfort is crucial)

Don't just reach for a beer. BUSCH Head for the mountains.

Shoplifting problem turns to part-time robbery

By Julie Jenkins

Judy was a "nice" girl. She had lots of friends because of her cheerful attitude and willingness to help others. She was active in school and also worked three times a week at the local grocery store.

It seemed like a cinch. Why should she pay for a candy bar when she worked right there? But Judy's lifting got a little too heavy.

Her part-time job turned into part-time robbery. Finally her sticky fingers got stuck.

The store manager was watching her for some time before he caught her in the act. She was fired immediately. Then he called the police and turned her over to the juvenile authorities. One year probation followed.

Another "nice" girl, Kate, thought the store would never miss a few pieces of clothing. Kate is now serving a year's sentence in the women's penitentiary.

Shoplifting often is described as "ripping off," "borrowing," "snatching," "hooking," or "pinching," but the law defines it as larceny — "taking property with the intent to deprive the rightful owner."

Shoplifting is the largest recorded crime in the country. National losses are now conservatively set at more than $6.5 billion annually; that is $27 million each day that stores open for business.

Other facts on shoplifting according to statistics taken in 1975:

—More than 50 percent of all stealing from stores is done by juveniles.

—Girls outnumber boys 20 to 1 in shoplifting activity.

—Retail theft in Illinois is well over $900 million annually.

—Around 45 percent of all shoplifting takes place during the Christmas shopping season (Nov.-Dec.), next most active period from Aug. 15-Sept. 15 (the back-to-school season), then pre-Easter and school summer vacation.

—The average value of items stolen is now $28. (Just a few years ago the average value taken by teens was $2.)

—99 percent of persons caught stealing had enough money with them to pay for the item they were stealing.

—One out of 15 customers enters a store with the intent to steal.

—Of every $50,000 in sales, retailers lose $1,000 worth of inventory to shoplifters.

—Merchants spend over $2 billion annually on theft prevention devices such as closed circuit T.V., two-way mirrors, signs, cameras, etc.

—Retailing employs 19.3 percent of Illinois' labor force. Some 700,000 retail workers earn over $1 billion annually. Increasing theft threatens this job market.

—If someone walks off with a $3 item, the store must sell another $100 worth of merchandise to make up for the loss. Therefore, if someone walked off with a $300 television set, the store would have to sell merchandise totaling close to $10,000 to make up for the profit loss on the item.

David Gates wowed the audience at a recent Bread-Gates concert in the Assembly Hall.

Bread warms audience in Halloween concert

By Barb Morgan

David Gates and Bread seemed to wrap their audience up in a blanket in their performance at the Assembly Hall Tuesday, Oct. 31.

Brothers Warren Hamm and Bill Hamm, Larry Knechtel, and Mike Botts, together with David Gates used their music versatility to produce the warm sounds of Bread. Their instrumental lines are imaginative, and their voices blend in harmony, creating a pleasurable effect.

Gently romantic in "Baby I'm a Want You," "It Don't Matter To Me," and "I Want To Make It With You," swirling into a country twang with "This Isn't What The Government" and hitting hard with "Hold Tight," they sustain a variety of moods, changing pace so interest never lags.

Whether they move through lighthearted love songs as "The Chosen One," sighing over a lost love as "Diary," or persuading melodies as "The Guitar Man," Bread gently weaves their audience into the songs. David Gates sent a shiver through the audience as he sang "Just to Have You Back Again," in memory of father. He also proved his brilliant talent as he sang the theme song he wrote to the movie of the same name, "Good-bye Girl."

Concluding with "Lost Without your Love," "Took the Last Train," and "Freedom," was not quite enough to satisfy the crowd, for they were up on their feet until Bread returned to the stage. The sun was set as Bread quenched the audience with their hit, "If" as the encore. The crowd applauded tremendously as the talented group walked offstage, proving that you just can't get enough of the extraordinary sound of Bread.

Queen contest set for Dec. 15

The Riding Club's golden entry complete with Barbie Cinderella came in third with 131 votes.

PC students put their best pumpkin forward

Of the 707 students who voted in the Parkland Halloween Pumpkin Contest last week, 179 thought the best was the grinning pumpkin-headed DJ sitting behind the cardboard console and staring cross-eyed at a lopsided spinning 45 all day. Thus, WPCD's Wax Stackers came in first in the contest.

The Horological Society came in second with 153 votes. The Riding Club came in third with 134 votes, and the Astronomy Club came in fourth with 107 votes.

Other great entries were Sigma Zeta Phi, 38 votes; Christian Fellowship, 24 votes; Sigma Theta Omega, 23 votes; Sociological Association, 17 votes; Animal Health Technology, 14 votes; Recreation Society, 12 votes, and the Electronics Association with 6 votes.

The votes were broken down into 518 day votes and 189 evening votes.

DePree gives Karate exhibit

By Cathy Butler

If you are under the impression that all black belt karate experts are Japanese, you are in for a surprise.

Don DePree, a black belt in Karate that gave an exhibition in the Parkland College gym Saturday, is originally from Michigan.

DePree, a senior member of Shotokan Karate of America, has won several awards at Karate tournaments. He was on the United States team that went to Japan for the first World Karate Champions in 1970. In 1973, DePree was the chief official for the third World Karate Champions.

Although he is no longer involved in tournament play, DePree still keeps active in Karate both by teaching at Long Beach State University and at his own private karate school in Paramount, both located in California. DePree studied the sport under Isotomu Ohshima, the first man to teach it in the United States after it was brought here from Japan and also the same teacher who taught Frank Brya, Parkland's Karate instructor.

ed to attain a black belt is four to six years.

The organization of which DePree is a member, Shotokan Karate of America, has five black belts ranging from first to fifth.

DePree holds a fourth degree.

The organization is just now becoming large enough to travel around. Parkland is the only college in this area that has hosted DePree.

Don DePree, a black belt in karate and a senior member of the Shotokan Karate of America, conducted a practice clinic at Parkland recently for members of Parkland's Karate Club.

PC offers workshop

Two real estate review workshops, which are designed to help prepare students for the ACT Real Estate Licensing Exam, are being offered by Parkland College. The first one will be Nov. 18 from 9:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. for the Salesman's Review, and 9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. for the Broker's Review.

The second one will be on Dec. 16.

The material to be covered has been updated to reflect the changes in the licensing exam. Students must have fulfilled the educational requirements to qualify for the licensing exam.

The instructors are Carol Stephens and Earl Jeter, both of whom are highly qualified brokers in the field of real estate and have several years of teaching experience at Parkland.

For more information or to register, call Norma Turok, coordinator of Business at Parkland College, 351-2377. Registration is possible on the day of the workshop.

Unlike some people, DePree did not know that he wanted to learn Karate from an early age. He fell into it quite by accident. He had always been active in sports all his life. When he moved from Michigan to California and attended Columbia City College, officials at the school would not let DePree participate in sports because he was not a resident of the state. DePree, determined to stay active, saw a poster at school promoting the karate club. He joined and found that he enjoyed it tremendously.

He practiced karate long and hard receiving his black belt after two years. The normal time need-

State Tourney here we come!

By Pete Rosenbery

Fresh off from a sectional tournament victory last weekend, Parkland's Women's volleyball team faces a very tough State tournament assignment beginning on Friday.

"We have to be in the toughest pool of the tournament," coach Lynette Trout explained. "Joliet has only lost two matches this year and we play them on Friday. We split with Lincoln Land and Rock Valley is playing at home so you know they will be up."

The Cobras qualified for the state tournament last weekend by winning their sectional held at Olney. Being seeded No. 1, all the Cobras had to do was beat Lincoln Trail to qualify for the state tourney. In an extremely impressive fashion, Parkland won in three straight, 15-5, 15-3, 15-11. They then faced Danville, the number two seeded team in the sectionals. Danville had just played a tough match also, 15-9, 15-8, 15-9.

"Our defense was super," Trout continued. "We played good defense and played extremely well on Saturday. Natalie Franklin had a super tournament, with 17 good spikes in the first match, followed by 15 in the second one."

So now with one tournament victory under their belt, Parkland will now travel to Rockford to compete in the state, a tournament which the Cobras have lost for the past two years. After the seeding meeting on Sunday, there was only one word for the pool that Parkland will compete in. TOUGH!!

Illinois Central was seeded first for the tourney, followed by Joliet, Triton, Belleville, Highland, Lake County, Lincoln Land and Wabash Valley. Parkland was placed in the tenth spot, which put them in what has to be the toughest pool to get out of for the final eight squad.

The Cobras will play the other three teams in their pool two games apiece, with the overall record of games won-lost deciding who reaches the quarterfinals of the tourney.

"We will have to play very tough because every game is a must. And then," coach Trout continued, "if there would be a tie, let's say between us and Lincoln Land for the second spot in our pool at 4-2, the point difference will be the determining factor." I hope that this is clear to you readers, because I personally haven't figured it out yet.

Anyway, back to volleyball, Parkland now is the owner of a 17-10-1 season mark. Last week, the Cobras lost a tough match to Lincoln, winning 15-3 the first game, losing the second game 15-3, winning the third 16-14, before losing the last two, 15-10, 15-11.

On Thursday, Parkland played Spoon River for the fourth time this year, winning for the fourth time, 15-4, 15-2 and 15-10 in what coach Trout termed a "very blah match."

"It was a three-hour drive to Canton and after a long bus ride, you can't expect a team to come out fresh, but we didn't play bad."

"I know that we can beat the teams at state, but we will have to play super volleyball to win at all," Trout ended.

Parkland hosted the Fighting Illini's scrimmage, which filled the college's gym last Saturday.
By Jim Corley

Illini team is promising

By Ken Hartman

Even though the Fighting Illini basketball team didn't look exceptionally great Saturday during its scrimmage here at Parkland College, the look of future greatness definitely showed through.

"I don't think we played nearly as well as we have been," Illinois coach Lou Henson said. "We may have played as well as we did last week, but this is the third week. We've executed better."

One of the glowing weaknesses for Illinois teams in the past has been the lack of a dominating big man. That problem now seems to be solved with the addition of Derek Holcomb, and freshmen James Griffin, and Bryan Leonard.

"Holcomb and Griffin kind of dominated the game," Henson said.

Clarke wins Fast Freddy

The collegiate football season is winding down rapidly as teams start preparing themselves for bowl games, or, in most cases, like Illinois, next season.

Last week's contest drew 74 entries and the contest had five people with one wrong and 14 others with two wrong.

On the basis of the closest tie-breaker between USC and Stanford, Randy Clarke is the winner of this week's contest. Others with one wrong were Dan Anderson, Becky Easton, Les Hall, and J. Southwood.

Spearheading this week's games will be the tie-breaker game which features top-ranked Oklahoma at Nebraska. This game will decide the Big Eight champ and an Orange Bowl bid in Miami. Both teams are ready for this traditional battle which should be a dandy of a football game. The Sooners will be a slight favorite but Nebraska is really ready for a big win.

A big battle in the Pacific 10 features Washington at USC. The Huskies defeated the Trojans last year en route to their Rose Bowl appearance and the Trojans haven't forgotten. However, USC has been struggling a bit of late while the Huskies are rolling after a slow start. This should be a close game.

Other games outside the Big Ten will find Western Michigan at Ball State in a big Mid-American battle, Tennessee journeys to South Bend to play Notre Dame, Florida plays while Breshnahan added 10 and five assists. Kevin Westervelt, who was a teammate of Halcomb and Mark Smith at Peoria Richwoods and who transferred here from Western Michigan, looked impressive filling in for injured Rob Judson, who sprained his ankle in the first half. Westervelt scored 10 points and was five-for-seven from the field.

The injury to Judson was not considered serious which is a blessing because of a previous injury to Lanter, who did not dress for the scrimmage. Lanter is expected back in a week or two.

"Range is coming along real well," Henson said. "I kind of liken him to Steve Lanter when Lanter was a freshman."

Leonard, a freshman from Belleville East, probably had his best scrimmage to date and showed signs of becoming a solid big man.

The Orange team was led in scoring by Levi Cobb and Neil Breshnahan with 15 and 14 points. Cobb also pulled off 14 rebounds

Georgia at Jacksonville, North Carolina State invades the lion den at Penn State, and Colorado State plays at New Mexico in a big Western Athletic battle.

Scores of last week's games were: Michigan 34, Iowa 0; Washington 31, Arizona 21; Oklahoma 28, Colorado 7; Michigan State 59, Illinois 19; Minnesota 32, Indiana 31; Tulsa 44, West Texas State 23; West Virginia 20, Virginia 17; Oklahoma State 35, Missouri 20; Notre Dame 27, Navy 7; Purdue 31, Northwestern 0; Ohio State 49, Wisconsin 14; Texas Tech 27, Baylor 9; and USC 13, Stanford 7.

PC finishes 3rd at Danville

By Tom Schmitz

Al Larson earned all-conference honors, but Parkland finished third in the three team Central State Athletic Conference cross country meet last Saturday at Danville.

Lincoln Land won the meet easily with 26 points, followed by Danville with 48. Parkland scored 54 points.

Larson placed third behind Lincoln Land's Jim Scruton and Tom Spears. Scruton, the regional winner a week before, won easily with a time of 26:08. Larson ran a 26:31 time.

Steve Elam just missed conference honors finishing sixth in a time of 27:01.

Intramurals start this week

Men's intramural basketball will get underway this week with teams in leagues playing a round robin schedule.

There are 24 teams and four leagues for basketball which will play basically college hours along with Tuesday or Wednesday nights. Also, a few games may be after school.

According to intramural director Bob Aubbuehl, depending upon the time available, there will be either a single elimination tournament or playoffs. Teams will start all over in the second semester.

Also, co-recreation volleyball sign-up is this week. Teams must have at least six players, three men and three women and everybody must play.

Teams will probably play Monday nights and any organizations or clubs are encouraged to sign up for this recreation event.

The formal season ended with the Giants winning the league with a 5-0 record. Other team records were Six Pack 4-1, SOS Tech 3-2, Play Boys 2-3, Sting 1-4, and Stu Go 0-5.
